

NEW AFFIDAVIT CHARGES MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

AGAINST ROBERT WILSON IN CAUSING DEATH OF CHAS.
LUTHER.

JOSEPH MOSER THE AFFIANT

And He Says the Case Will be Pushed and Arrests of Accomplices May Be Made.

Immediately after police court adjudged Saturday morning, Councilman Joseph Moser appeared before Mayor McCleery and annulled the old warrant against Robert Wilson charging him with assault with intent to kill, and swore out a new one charging the prisoner with murder in the first degree.

Mr. Moser is an uncle of Charles Luther, who dies as a result of a fight with Wilson last Wednesday night.

Mr. Moser is making every preparation to push the charges to the full extent and is emphatic in the statements that the man responsible for the death of his nephew shall suffer the full extent of the law.

"We have the statements of several witnesses and if they try later to change their stories in the slightest degree, they too, will be arrested as accomplices of Wilson, and I'm sure they are not guilty."

The funeral of the deceased will be held from the home of his parents
Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.
The burial will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Bob Wilson spent a quiet night in his cell in the city prison, and still says that he struck Luther in self-defense. He has not yet been taken to the county jail, but he will probably be transferred today. His hearing has not yet been arranged, but the time will probably be decided upon today. Since court is in session the time of the attorneys is pretty well taken up and his hearing will have to be sandwiched in between their other cases.

The well known criminal attorneys,
Smythe & Smythe have been retained to defend him and they are very sanguine over the case. The different stories concerning the trouble are badly jumbled, the witnesses of the actual trouble all seeming to be afraid of being implicated in the case, but the coroner's inquest which is being held today, will probably bring to light some important facts.
It is generally agreed that an old grudge existed between the two men, and the cause of the grudge may shed much light on the case. Both men had many friends who will declare in their power to defend or prosecute the case and they may be of valuable assistance to the attorneys.

Wilson's people have not been notified of his trouble, and may not be for several days to come. His demeanor is quiet, but he is friendly to all the other prisoners and gives the turnkeys no trouble.

Coroner's Inquest.
Coroner Marriott Saturday morning began the work of holding an inquest relative to the death of Chas.
Luther, which occurred at the Sanitarium Tuesday night, the result of a blow on the head, struck by Robert Wilson, a B. & O. railroad engineer.
A large number of witnesses were subpoenaed, quite a number of whom were examined by the coroner at the Saturday morning session.

BLOODY FIGHT STUDENTS BURT

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 5.—Twelve University of Michigan students are in the hospital, some of them seriously injured, as a result of the Freshman-Sophomore rush today. When the Freshmen captured the flag, the Sophomores rushed and the fight became bloody.

DISOWNED

By His Wealthy Mother is the Boy
Who is Charged With Firing Property.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Disowned by his mother, a wealthy woman of Champaign, Ill., George Craven, 15 years old, has been bound over to the state court for trying to steal a ride on a freight train. His mother was notified and Friday she disowned the boy through the chief of police of Champaign.

That official wired Atlanta officers that George was incorrigible. He was suspected of burning several barns in his neighborhood, had served in a reformatory in Indiana for burning a livery stable and its live stock, and was, in fact, a genuine fire bug. He stated that George's father was dead, that his mother had grown tired of sending tickets for the boy to come home on and did not care for him to return. Although only 15 years old, the boy has traveled all over the United States.

Will Honor Roosevelt.
The Hague, Oct. 5.—In the final act of the peace conference it was decided President Roosevelt shall be mentioned first, in the introduction of the act, as the summoner of the conference; the names of Emperor Nicholas, as its convoker, and Queen Wilhelmina, as its hostess, following. In addition, President Neldoff, in his speech at the last plenary sitting of the conference, will refer to President Roosevelt's efforts in behalf of peace.

SIXTY THREE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Osaka, Japan, Oct. 5.—Sixty-three girls engaged in the sorting of condemned shells and cartridges were killed and more than sixty injured by an explosion in the Takatsuki factory today. The factory is in flames and several boats, also filled with explosives, are on fire.

BOY SCREAMED

In Terror When He Found He Was Sitting on a Negro's Mutilated Corpse.

Union City, Ind., Oct. 5.—Little Otto Ripp was playing "I spy" with a number of youngsters Friday night and climbed into a lumber car to secret himself. He sat down upon what he thought was a bag of sawdust, but the next instant he was frightened speechless.

He was sitting upon the corpse of a negro, whose face was mutilated and covered with blood.

When little Otto regained his breath he screamed in terror, and when men learned of the cause they summoned the police.

The dead body bore nothing that led to its identity. The police believe that the negro was murdered and thrown into the car, which was picked up by a Dayton and Union train at Ivorydale, Ohio.

Fish Pleaded.

New York, Oct. 5.—Stuyvesant Fish, former president of the Illinois Central railroad, gave out a statement regarding the Hartford conference of stockholders in that company: "I shall be more than glad to see the stockholders in every city in the country thus get together of their own volition and send representatives of their own choosing to the meeting in Chicago, Oct. 16," he said. "It is in this way that stockholders can best learn what is being done with their property."

BIG STRIKE

Of 8000 Dock and Cotton Handlers Has Tied Up Immense Shipping Interests.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—The immense cotton shipping business of this port was tied up by a strike of 8,000 members of the dock and cotton handlers' union. The cotton handlers have arrayed against them all the business exchanges of New Orleans, which have declared that the commercial life of the port depends upon the outcome of the strike. From 10,000 to 12,000 men will probably be involved, because the railroad freight handlers have served notice that they will not work with nonunion men at the docks.
The immediate cause of the strike was the refusal of 1,200 screw men to load more than 160 bales per day, working in gangs of five. Steamship agents demand that 200 bales be stowed.

Alton Officials Testify.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The representatives of the Alton road stated to the members of the grand jury that the case of the Standard Oil company was the only one where the tariff naming the rate collected had not been regularly sent to the local freight agent, and that, so far as they knew, this was the only case in which shipments had been made at a rate less than that named in the schedule.

New Route to the Pole.

New York, Oct. 5.—A message was received here by Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club, from Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the scientist and explorer of New York, announcing the fact that Dr. Cook was prepared to make a dash for the north pole by a new route through Nansen strait.

RIVAL CANDIDATES FOR MAYORALTY

Tom L. Johnson is seeking re-election as mayor of Cleveland on a platform of 3-cent fares on traction lines and he is exceedingly popular.
Theodore E. Burton, Republican, and leader in the house of represen-

STRAUS FAVORS RECIPROCITY IN TARIFF RATES

Washington, Oct. 5.—At the session of the convention of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, Secretary Straus made an address in which he reviewed the cotton industry from its beginning and also referred to the Chinese boycott. The secretary said: "If you build your tariff walls too high in this country you will encourage high walls on the other side which are known by the name of 'discriminating duties.' We are striking that wall now. No one foresees this more clearly than President McKinley, who recommended reciprocity and a revised tariff to meet the changing conditions in order to gain our proper share of the foreign markets."

CONVENTION FOR DEEP WATERWAYS NOW IN SESSION

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 5.—W. K. Karanough of St. Louis, president of the Lakes to the Gulf Waterways association, called the second annual meeting of that body to order here. Delegates from all sections of the south, north and west were in attendance, and several notable addresses were made.
The slogan "Fourteen feet through the valley" has become popular, and every speaker went on record for a deep-water channel upon the Mississippi river. Among the delegates are governors of 14 states, United States senators and representatives.

MAN KILLS WIFE THEN HIMSELF

New York, Oct. 5.—Jealousy of his handsome young wife, John Bohrnrueller, a Brooklyn saloonkeeper, shot her to death and then killed himself. The bodies were found in the apartments which the couple had occupied. In the kitchen there were evidences that Mrs. Bohrnrueller was preparing breakfast when she was shot down. The husband's body was found in a bedroom. Neighbors say the couple quarreled frequently because of the husband's jealousy.

LIKE A BIRD

Huge Dirigible English Balloon Maneuvered Over London Under Perfect Control.

London, Oct. 5.—Circling over the city like a great bird, rising and dropping at the will of the steers-man, answering its helm like a ship, in a smooth sea, the new English war balloon today gave startled Londoners the finest exhibition of the possibilities of aerial navigation ever witnessed. In the streets below, thousands watched the maneuvers of the big flying machine. The airship started from Aldershot and traveled 35 miles to London and circled St.

seals, Evansville, Ind.: I direct that the license of the master, or whoever is responsible for the 'Fred Hartwig' during the present voyage, be suspended at once for 90 days. I wish this done by telegraph, wherever the boat may be, if such procedure is possible. Colonel Sears can give you the details of the misconduct, which has been of a serious nature and might have at any time caused an accident to the Mississippi as well as to other boats. The action of the master of that boat might have cost my life at my time.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT"

To Suppress White Slave Traffic.
Washington, Oct. 5.—Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor and Frank P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigration, have determined to eliminate the "white slave" traffic from the United States, if possible. On his recent trip through the northwestern and Pacific coast states, Secretary Straus' attention was directed to the increasing importation of women for immoral purposes. The Japanese and Korean Exclusion league informed him that hundreds of Japanese women were being brought to America surreptitiously and held in practical slavery after their arrival here. It was stated the women were sold by their importers precisely as if they were so many bales of goods.

HEAVEN'S WARNING

Collision of Boat With Iceberg Was Considered and Captain Quits
the Sea.

New York, Oct. 5.—Captain August Richter, known to thousands of American ocean travelers, has given up the command of the North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm and quit the sea forever, because, according to his friends, he was warned by heaven through the medium of his ship's collision with an iceberg, to abandon seafaring.

Captain Richter's retirement is similar in its details to the abandonment of seafaring by his brother, Hermann, who, after a collision between his command, the Saale, and a wayward iceberg in a fog, nearly 20 years ago, received what he called an admonition from heaven to give up the sea.

STEAMER IS OVERDUE.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.—The Cunard liner Umbria, has not yet been sighted or heard from, although under ordinary circumstances she should have reported herself by wireless early today. This has led to the greatest concern for her safety in view of yesterday's this has led to the greatest concerning that she had reported to the Cedric by wireless that she that she had suffered severe damages in the recent storm on the Atlantic. Hundreds of anxious inquiries after the steamer have been made to the Cunard line, but the only answer given is that the officers know absolutely nothing about the steamer.

WANTS TO QUIT

Charlemagne Tower, Ambassador to Germany, Asks Roosevelt for This Permission.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Ambassador Tower has written to President Roosevelt asking that he be permitted to retire from the diplomatic service next spring. Mr. Tower's reasons are understood to be that, having been abroad for nearly 11 years, he desires again to live in his own country in order to have a home there for his sons, who are now nearly ready to go to Harvard, and to give his personal attention to his extensive financial, mining and railroad interests that have been left to the supervision of others.

Need Two Fleets.

New York, Oct. 5.—The sending of the battleship fleet to the Pacific is viewed by the people of France generally as a wise precaution, according to M. Jusserand, the French ambassador at Washington, who returned on the French liner La Provence after a holiday abroad. "It shows," said the ambassador, "that the American people are ready to stand by their guns. President Roosevelt is right. You need one fleet on the right hand and another on the left."

Blown to Atoms.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 5.—Owen V.
Anderson, recently appointed to a lieuten-ancy in the United States army, was blown to atoms while handling a bottle of nitroglycerin. The house was wrecked and his mother had a narrow escape. He was preparing to go to Fort Leavenworth and was carrying a bottle of the explosive when the accident occurred.

PRES. ROOSEVELT SAYS REMARKS ARE DISTORTED

FEELS SYMPATHY FOR THOSE WHOM COMMON SENSE
TALK FRENZIES.

WILL NOT STAY HIS HAND

Because a Wrongdoer Masquerades as a Labor Leader or a Captain of Industry.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 5.—When President Roosevelt closed his address here he was driven to his train at the Missouri Pacific railroad station and departed for Lake Providence, La., for a hunting trip. He will be in the woods 17 days.

The president was greeted enthusiastically by the citizens of Memphis as well as by the delegates to the deep waterways convention. A score of governors and many persons of note attended the convention, which was addressed by the president.

President Roosevelt in his speech here, announced that he would call a convention to be held in Washington Jan. 2 next to advocate the preservation and conservation of the natural resources of the country, including coal, water-power, oil, etc. The call had been under consideration for some time by the members of the inland waterways commission, and the details were presented by the members of that body to the president at a luncheon. Statements in explanation of the commission's plans were made by Chairman Burton, Senator Newlands, Dr. McGee, Mr. Pinchot and other members of the commission, from which it appeared that they desired to have the proposed convention follow the river and harbor conference to be held in Washington in December, and to have it devoted largely to other than navigation matters. Governor Brooks of West Virginia took a positive position against the whole idea of a convention, saying that the people of the west want the vast resources of that section developed, and do not want them tied up even by the government itself.

In connection with his discussion of the corporations the president said his experience in the past few years had brought him to the point of feeling sincere sympathy for certain gentlemen who are cast into a frenzy by the most common sense remarks. It had come to the point where a remark of his that honest was the best policy is liable to lead to a run on the banks.
He did not want to punish any one except for wrongdoing, but he would punish the wrongdoer who is poor as freely as the one who is rich. "I will use my utmost power to stamp out murderous and lawless anarchy," he declared, "and I will no more stay my hand because a wrongdoer masquerades as a labor leader than if he masquerades as a captain of industry.
I have heretofore expressed myself on the subject of undesirable citizens and I stand by what I said, alike when he is a great capitalist who wins a fortune by chicanery and wrongdoing and when he is a man who, under the guise of standing up for labor, preaches and encourages violence and murder."

Speaking of the Panama canal the president said: "The Panama canal is getting on well. I received a telegram Thursday giving the excavation made in the canal work for the month of September, and although I had not hoped that the record for the month of August could be exceeded, I am now told that the removal for September exceeded that for the preceding month by 200,000 cubic feet." When the canal has been completed, he said, this nation would not ask other governments to "kindly not bother the canal," that we would protect it. "We must have a larger and highly efficient navy to patrol our coasts not only on the Atlantic, but on the Pacific," he said. He urged the people to disregard party lines in all purely national matters.

Two Governors Honored.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 5.—The steamer Mississippi, with President Roosevelt on board, drew up alongside of the steamer Alton carrying the governors of the various states at 9:30 a. m., while the president's fleet was still several miles above Memphis, for the purpose of giving the president an opportunity to invite Governor Frautz of Oklahoma and Governor Curry of New Mexico on board the Mississippi.
"I want the governor of the territory that has become a state and the governor of the territory that is about to become a state to ride with me," the president remarked.

TAFT'S ROYAL RECEPTION.

Nagasaki, Japan, Oct. 5.—The steamship Minnesota, with Secretary of War Taft and his party aboard, arrived early today. An almost royal reception was tendered the visitors.
Their stay here will be short. The Taft party will go next to Manila.

Society

The Oceola club gave their weekly dance Wednesday evening at Shamp's Hall and was attended by a large crowd of young people who enjoyed the dancing. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour in spite of the warm weather.

The members of the "Miscellaneous Needle-workers" were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Josephine Roche at her home in Woods avenue. After a social hour a business meeting was held and each member responded with a quotation from Longfellow. Delicious refreshments were then served and a guessing contest was held. Mr. Fletcher carrying off first prize and Mrs. Malcolm Clark second. The club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Ayers at her home on East Main street, October 15.

Mrs. Cora Mitchell was pleasantly surprised at her home on Pine street by a number of friends and neighbors, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. A delightful evening was spent and music furnished entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Mitchell received many very pretty and useful remembrances. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Molen and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ispe, Mr. and Mrs. Cullers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nester, Mr. and Mrs. Eberhart, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Miss Zach and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claggett and son, Mr. Charles Mitchell and sons.

Mrs. Claude Bradley delightfully entertained the Thursday Afternoon Harmonious club at her home on Granville street, Thursday afternoon. Pedro was the game of the afternoon, and the first prize was won by Mrs. J. P. Lamb, while the consolation souvenir was awarded Mrs. Hill. After the game a delicious two course luncheon was served to the members and following guests and substitutes: Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Suitor, Mrs. Cluston, Miss Maude Cluston, Mrs. Earl Davis and daughter Loretta. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Burch in two weeks.

One of the pleasant events of the week was a surprise party on Miss Rosa Wilson at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wilson on Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in games and music and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dewesse, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wilson, the Misses Nellie Hughes, Eunice Wilson, Adah Mohler, Lucinda Wilson, Florida Baughman, Harriet Young, Alice Wilson, Ina Mohler, Lida Wilson, Maude Anderson, Mona Wilson, Mollie McDowell, Pearl Wilson and Rosa E. Wilson, the Messrs. Elmer Dayton, Grover Lamb, Wesley Taylor, John Martin, Harry Wilson, William Martin, Harry Dotson, Geo. Young, Edward Dayton, Howard Anderson, Josie Wilson, John Young, George Wilson and George Dewesse.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy entertained the ladies of the L. C. B. A. at her home on South Fifth street on Tuesday afternoon. Point euehre was the game of the afternoon and the first prize was won by Mrs. Charles Diebold and the second prize was awarded Miss Katherine Mortier.

Those present were: Mrs. John Donahue, Mrs. James McMahon, Mrs. Will Callahan, Mrs. John Conlen, Mrs. James Shaughnessy, Mrs. Charles Schaller, Mrs. Nicholas Moler, Mrs. Ambrose Schaller, Mrs. Jerry Callahan, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. John Schimpf, Mrs. Harry Bournier, Mrs. Egan, Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. Katherine Mead. The guests of the association were Mrs. Edward Sullivan, Mrs. Louis Morath, Mrs. George Kureth, Mrs. Jerry Roach, Mrs. Charles Diebold, Mrs. Thomas O'Conner, Mrs. Martin Connors, Miss Rose Moran and Mrs. Mortier and daughter Katherine of St. Louis, Mo.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Edward Browne was the charming hostess at a linen shower given complimentary to Miss Bess Rhoads at her home on Granville street. The game featuring the afternoon was euehre and at the close of an interesting contest the trophies were awarded Mrs. Judson Lewis and Miss Edith Upson.

An elaborate course menu was served the following ladies: Miss Bess Rhoads, Mrs. Kemper Scott, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. Lynn Wilson, Mrs. Ned Wright, Mrs. Charles Rhoads, Mrs. F. E. Corkwell, Mrs. Anna Nichols, Mrs. Wilson Heisey, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. Ed. Williams, Mrs. Ralph Wyeth Mrs. Frank Maurath, Mrs. Thos. Daly, Mrs. Jud Lewis, Mrs. Charles Browne, Mrs. Frank Bolton, Mrs. Charles Hollander, Mrs.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days

On every box 25c

James Fitzgibbon, Mrs. Billingslea, Mrs. J. M. Browne, Mrs. Harry Davis, Misses Heten Crune, Carrie Allen, Sabina Hirschberg, Elsie Hirschberg, Kathryn Simonds, Eva Thacker, Edith Upson, Josephine Roche, Jennie Irwin and Kate Gilbert.

The Research club is holding the first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Josephine Roche on Granville this afternoon.

The Independent circle met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Johns on Eastern avenue. Fifteen members responded to roll-call. After the regular business a delicious lunch was served. The guests were: Mrs. Mabel Canterbury, and Mrs. Lillie Shamp. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Reel of Western avenue, October 1st.

On Friday evening Miss Grace Gorbey charmingly entertained with a theatre party and dinner, honoring Mrs. Homer Sparks. The guests attended the performance at the Auditorium and after the show, went to the home of Miss Gorbey where a delicious menu was served the following guests: Mrs. Homer Sparks, Misses Clara McDonald, Bessie Glenn, Grace Gorbey and Myrtle Gorbey.

Mrs. Homer Sparks was the honor guest at a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening with Miss Blanch Hart as hostess, at her home on Buena Vista street. The flowers were asters and a large bouquet of these formed the centerpiece. Dainty hand-painted place cards seated the guests and an elaborate course menu was served.

Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. Homer Sparks, Misses Myrtle Gorbey, Bessie Glenn, and Clara McDonald.

Mrs. Harry Scott very pleasantly entertained on Tuesday afternoon at her home in the Sherwood with a thimble party complimentary to Mrs. Thorne of Cincinnati. A pleasant afternoon was spent and dainty refreshments were served the following guests: Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Henry Woodbridge, Mrs. William Prout, Mrs. T. A. Cosgrove, Mrs. Gillette, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. E. S. Miller, Mrs. Anson White, Mrs. Fred Sites, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. William Symons, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Channing Thompson, Mrs. Alda Scott.

On Thursday afternoon the Sunshine circle of The King's Daughters very delightfully gave a farewell party for Mrs. Homer Sparks at her home on Pearl street. Mrs. Sparks leaves Monday for Santiago, Calif., where she will reside in the future. The evening was spent in various games and music and a delicious luncheon prepared by the guests was served.

The following guests were present: Misses Grace Gorbey, Bessie Glenn, Clara McDonald, Lucy Connell, Ella Crouse, Katherine Suter, Lulu Fletcher, Mabel Leffler, Bertha Julian, Nellie Rexrothe, Ellen Sparks and Mrs. Homer Sparks.

The first meeting of the Unity Reading Circle was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Moore on Summit Heights. The retiring president, Mrs. Lou Bancroft Hunt, welcomed the new president, Miss Lucy Connell, who gave the president's greeting after which the following program was rendered: History of Cuba—Miss Mella Burch. The Island Since Gen. Weyler—Mrs. McGough.

Miss Lillian McNeally gave two very interesting readings.

The guests of the club were: Mrs. John Sachs, Mrs. Samuel Sachs, Mrs. D. W. Matticks, Mrs. Lee Stillwell, Mrs. Cora Laird, Miss Pearl Bournier. Dainty refreshments were served, and the hostess was assisted by Misses Lillian McNeally and Alma Kerr.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Kemper Scott entertained in a most delightful manner at her home on Eleventh street, complimentary to Miss Bess Rhoads. The rooms were prettily arranged with scarlet flowers and the game featuring the afternoon was euehre, at the close of which the souvenirs were awarded Mrs. Oren King and Mrs. Frank Maurath.

An elaborate luncheon was served the following guests: Miss Rhoads, Mrs. Frank Bolton, Mrs. Edward Williams, Mrs. Charles Browne, Mrs. Thos. Daly, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. Charles Wesson, Mrs. Frank Maurath, Mrs. Ralph Wyeth, Mrs. Charles Rhoads, Mrs. Wilson Heisey, Mrs. Charles Hollander, Mrs. Lynn Wilson, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. Judson Lewis, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. Harrington Davis, Mrs. Resuden, Mrs. Fred Sites, Mrs. John Carroll, Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mrs. Oren King, Mrs. Fred King, Mrs. Francis Corkwell, Mrs. Fred Black, Mrs. Albert Rosebraugh, Mrs. Daniel Althoff, Mrs. Edward Browne, Misses Kathryn Simonds, Vera Nichols, Eva Thacker, Edith Upson, Helen Crane, Elsie Hirschberg, Kate Gilbert, Josephine Roche, Carrie Allen, Jennie Irwin and Mrs. Charles Lutley of Columbus.

One of the social events of the week was the surprise given Mrs. Clifford Stewart by her friends and neighbors at the home of her mother, Mrs. Brown, on West Locust street, on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Fred Richards, Mrs. Arthur Kennedy and Miss Bernice Brown favored the ladies with some choice selections on the piano. After serving dainty refreshments all wished Mrs. Stewart a safe journey to her future home in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Those present were: Mesdames Avery, McGough, Osborn, Blina, Teuscher, Brown, Ramey, Kollar, Perry, McDonald, Richards, Beaumont, McVey, Marshall, Kennedy, Dalton, Stewart, Miss Lunley and Misses Bernice, Myrtle Brown, Mrs. Pickett of Columbus, Mrs. Dowds of Utica, Mrs. Stewart was presented with several beautiful pieces of china.

Mrs. Kemper Scott was the charming hostess at a very pretty euehre party on Friday afternoon at her home on Eleventh street, honoring Miss Bess Rhoads. A spirited contest featured the afternoon and concluded when the trophy for progressions was awarded Mrs. Jesse Elliott, and the lone hand souvenir was received by Mrs. O. C. Jones. A dainty luncheon was served and the dining room was arranged with floral decorations favoring hues of red.

The guests were: Miss Bess Rhoads, Mrs. William Neal, Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Lattimer, Mrs. Rugg, Mrs. D. M. Black, Mrs. Frank Felix, Mrs. Upson, Mrs. Vellich, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Mayme Kennaday, Mrs. O. C. Jones, Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Mrs. George Blood, Mrs. Alda Scott, Mrs. Anson White, Mrs. J. Fuller, Mrs. B. Wingerter, Mrs. J. W. Franklin, Mrs. Frank Roe, Mrs. William Sedgwick, Mrs. C. A. Hatch, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Dr. Wright, Misses Clara Scott, Mary Scott, Dora Lisle, Kathryn Suter, Lizzie Jones and Romaine Stansberry.

Notes of Interest to Our Readers.

To prove that "BLONDINE" will cure Catarrh every reader of this paper can have a positive guarantee. If there is any doubt in your mind as to the power of "BLONDINE" to cure all Catarrhal Troubles, the remarkable offer made by W. A. Erman & Son should expel that doubt. They give you a personal guarantee with every 50c. bottle of "BLONDINE" they sell, to refund the money unless it gives satisfaction. They take all the risk of cure, and no reader of this paper can afford to suffer longer with Catarrh when an offer like this is made.

Special excursion via B. & O. R. R. to Chicago Oct. 11. Round trip only $6. See ticket agent for particulars. 3d7t

10 HOUR COLD CURE

Taken promptly at the beginning of a fresh cold or cough, will positively CURE IT IN 10 HOURS, and a chronic cold or cough in one half the time required by ordinary remedies. Money back if not satisfied. For sale by all grocers, 25 and 50 cents. Rein-ur Remedies Co., Newark, Ohio. 10-5-w-stf

"LADY"

Alleged Horse Thieves From Their Lair and Holds Them for Police.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 5—"Lady" the thoroughbred buldog at the police station won her way to a job on the force last evening by aiding in the capture of two alleged horse thieves.

Sam Hines, a New London farmer, notified Officers Hufnagel and Curry that his rig had been stolen on High street by a negro and a white man. The officers traced them to the E. R. and I. railway bridge, where the men had abandoned the rig and secreted themselves. It was here that Lady came into play. She routed the men from their concealment and stood guard over them until Officers Hufnagel and Curry arrived.

The negro is registered at James Early, of Covington, Ky., and his partner as William Eisenfeldt, of Connersville, Ind.

FRESHMEN WON.

Delaware, Oct. 5—The Freshmen were victorious in the annual class rush at Ohio Wesleyan University today. The affair was free from rowdism. Leonard Draper, a freshman, had his right wrist broken.

NO INDICTMENTS FOUND.

Chicago, Oct. 5—The Grand jury investigating gambling in Chicago, today refused to return any indictments because it could not indict the "men higher up." In its report it declared that there is a gambling trust in Chicago.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our friends, neighbors B. of L. E. and G. I. A. to B. of L. E., Licking and Bellaire aceries of Eagles, for their kindness during the death of our husband and father. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. H. G. Lipscomb and children.

HEIRESS

ELOPED WITH AN ENGLISHMAN AND THE COUPLE ARE NOW ON THE SEAS.

Girl's Father Left Roosevelt Party to Attend a Family Conference in Philadelphia.

New York, Oct. 5.—An international marriage by the elopement route was the culmination Tuesday of a romantic attachment formed in Europe between Miss Helen Maloney, a beautiful heiress of Philadelphia and Spring Lake, N. J., and Samuel Clarkson a dashing young Londoner of more manners than means. They are believed to have sailed for England on a honeymoon shortly after their marriage in this city.

Miss Maloney is the youngest daughter of Martin Maloney, who was made a Marquis of the Holy Roman Empire by the Pope after he gave part of the millions made out of Philadelphia gas and telephones to the church. He learned of his daughter's elopement in St. Louis, where he had gone to join President Roosevelt on his voyage down the Mississippi, and started at once for New York.

Miss Maloney was taken abroad last fall to get away from the attentions which a well-known Princeton student was showing her. Early in the year she met Mr. Clarkson somewhere on the continent. The friendship grew so rapidly that Mrs. Maloney, it is said, became alarmed, and their return to America was hastened. It was not long until Clarkson followed them across the Atlantic, and after meeting Miss Maloney several times at the home of a friend was permitted to call upon her. Finally he was invited to the house for an extended visit.

The Maloneys are ardent Catholics, and the head of the house has given thousands to the church at various parts of the country. Clarkson was a protestant, and that was considered by the family as a definite bar to any match between them.

Last Sunday her father departed for St. Louis in response to an invitation from President Roosevelt. On Monday the young woman broached the subject of a shopping trip to New York. She suggested that it would be interesting for her to go in with the family friend, the polite and handsome Clarkson. They visited a few shops on Fifth avenue and went to the Waldorf-Astoria for luncheon. Miss Maloney told her maid to wait at the hotel for her until 3 o'clock and departed with the Englishman.

The maid waited patiently until late in the afternoon. Late in the evening she telephoned to Spring Lake that she had lost them and was instructed to return home in the morning. A telegram which stated that Miss Maloney was then Mrs. Clarkson was followed by a special delivery letter in the bride's hand addressed to her father.

BOTH PARTIES NOMINATE

Boston, Oct. 5—The Republican state convention today renominated Gov. Guild and the Republican state officers. The Democrats met at Springfield and nominated Chas. W. Bartlett of Newton for governor, while the rump convention nominated Henry M. Whitney of Boston.

Bradstreet's Review.

New York, Oct. 5—Bradstreet's says: Trade reports are irregular. Some lines noting a relatively larger volume of business than last year, while others indicate an opposite tendency. Business is of a flitting character, although some sections report an enlarged house trade owing to fall carnivals. Retail trade on the whole has been hampered by unseasonable weather, temperatures being too high. Collections, while still dragging in consonance with the tightness in money, appear to have improved at a number of centers. Some orders for early spring are being placed, but the volume of business is rather light.

A revolution has broken out in the province of Corrientes in the Argentine republic, the insurgents already having seized several positions.

Mrs. Rebecca Wenzel, 86, of Pottsdam, Pa., with a record of 3,092 funerals she has attended, announces she must forego the "pastime" because of illness.

Goodhair Soap

A Scientific Remedy for the cure of all hair, scalp and skin diseases. Sold on a guarantee. One trial will surprise you. At your druggist or by mail on receipt of 25 cents. Goodhair Remedy Company, Newark, Ohio.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

San Francisco, Cal. U. S. A. New York, N. Y.
Louisville, Ky. London, England.

GRANVILLE NEWS

Granville, Oct. 5—Again the general reception given by the members of the faculty and the students of Shepardson college, is a thing of the past. The occasion is always one of the most important events of the school, and is a function that its greatly enjoyed by both the new and old students. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Helen Hunt, Miss Barker and Anna Sorenson. The rooms were filled with students during the evening and the reception was one of the most successful in the history of Shepardson.

W. F. Chamberlin of Dayton, O., arrived in Canonsburg this morning, the object of his visit being to make arrangements for the future care and preservation of "The Old Log Cabin" which now stands in college campus.

As stated in The Notes some time ago one of the Jefferson college fraternities, the Phi Gamma Delta, made a proposition to the academy board of trustees and to Dr. W. F. Brown to whom the Fulton brothers, the descendants of Rev. Dr. John McMillen, donated the old college, to remove, repair and keep in good condition this ancient classical building as a memorial receptacle of their alma mater.—Canonsburg Notes.

Mr. Chamberlin is a graduate of Denison university, Granville, is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, and an all round good fellow.

A well attended meeting of the Denison Scientific Association was held Thursday afternoon in the physics room in Science hall. Prof. A. Brumback delivered the principal address, his subject being "Some of the Achievements of Chemistry." The picture of Louis Agassiz the celebrated naturalist, which was given to the association by the '07 class of Doane academy, was presented by Prof. Carney. At this meeting Prof. Chamberlin also delivered a fine address.

Robert Walsh, D. U. '7 visited his sister Friday for a few hours. Mrs. Charles Edwards of Ironion, who has been visiting here during the past week, returned home Friday.

Miss Lillian Henry of Charleston, W. Va., made a short visit here with friends Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lamson of Toledo, are visiting friends and relatives in Granville.

Horace Willis of Hamilton, who was transacting business in The Democrats of Granville village and Granville township will meet in convention in the town hall tonight at 8 o'clock to nominate village and township tickets. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of Iowa and Mrs. James Priest of Brownsville, Licking county, have been visiting relatives in Granville.

The Price of Health.

"The price of health in a malarious district is just 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Slayton of Noland, Ark. New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system. 25c. Satisfaction guaranteed at F. D. Hall the druggist's.

MR. ATKINS IN RUNAWAY.

Noah Atkins who lives in Cambridge, and a son-in-law of Mr. Geo. Markley of Newark, had an early morning experience Thursday which left him considerably bruised. He was out with his two children for his accustomed morning drive and while returning a piece of the harness broke. Before he could stop the horse, the buggy went over a large bump in the road, and losing balance the two little ones fell out, both being bruised. Mr. Atkins could not stop his horse since the harness was broken, and he also fell out. The horse was soon caught and brought back to the owner. All fortunately escaped serious injury.

REVOLT IN PORTUGAL.

Paris, Oct. 5—A rumor was current on the Bourse today that a revolution had broken out in Portugal. It was impossible to confirm the report, but Portuguese Renten dropped as a result of the rumor.

TROLLEY'S COLLIDE.

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 5—Four persons were injured in a collision between a Sharon and Youngstown traction car and a local street car Saturday. The injured are C. A. Murray, Elias Anderson, Antonio Marini and R. M. Markl.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c. tubes

Pennsylvania LINES

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION

Daily Excursions to Norfolk, Va. Tour of East, with Stop-overs at PITTSBURG, NEW YORK, HARRISBURG, BOSTON, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, WASHINGTON, RICHMOND and other points.

Go One Route—Return Another Columbus and Return, 75c. Pennsylvania Lines Sundays, convenient train service in both directions.

NORTHWEST, WEST SOUTHWEST. Special reduced fares. For particulars, call on J. L. Worth, ticket agent, Newark, O.

DR. A. W. BEARD, Dentist.

Trust Building, Fifth Floor, Room 501. Telephone, Office, 3121 Red. Westphone, Residence, 7492 White

Columbus-Zanesville-Limited

Only Two Hours Between Terminals Via The

Ohio Electric Ry. Co

4 Trains Each Way 4 Except Sunday

Newark

East Bound..... 8:05-1:05 a. m.
East Bound..... 2:05-5:05 p. m.
West Bound..... 7:45-10:45 a. m.
West Bound..... 1:35-4:35 p. m.
Connect With Granville Cars at Pine St.

Free Baggage—No Extra Fare

350 Mile Books are on sale at all stations for $5.00, good for bearer and two or more traveling together. For special rates or service to BUCKEYE LAKE or elsewhere, call on

W. S. Whitney, G. P. and T. A.,

510 First Nat. Bank Bldg., Columbus, O.

For Woman's Eye

J-18

Women's troubles very often occur regularly at a certain time every month. Because this may have been so all your life, is no reason why it should continue. Many thousands of women, who had previously suffered from troubles similar to yours, due to disorder of the womanly organs, have found welcome relief or cure in that wonderfully successful medicine for women,

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. Leota Forte, of Toledo, Ill., writes: "I am well pleased with the results of using Cardui. I have taken three bottles and am now perfectly well, free from pain and have gained 25 pounds in weight."

WRITE US A LETTER

Write today for a free copy of valuable 64-page illustrated Book for Women. If you need Medical Advice, describe your symptoms, stating age, and reply will be sent in plain sealed envelope. Address: Ladies Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

NEWSY NOTES

Called For Information of Advocate Readers.

Burns, cuts, sores, chafing, tender skin healed by Satin skin cream. 25c.

Estate Gas Ranges at Elliott's.

Fortune Ranges at Keller's.

E. Vincent McCament, undertaker
Phone 459. 2-1dtf

Every 50 c. cash purchase gets you a chance on a $20 Triple Effect Gas Heater. Elliott Hardware Co. 30-1m

Baltimore and Ohio R. R. to Chicago Oct. 11. Trains leave Newark 7:45 a. m. and 9:20 p. m. Round-trip, $6, good returning Oct. 14. 3d7t Dancing Notice.

Dancing at Assembly Hall every Tuesday and Saturday night from 8 to 12. Private instructions will be given both evening from 7 to 8. Music by Marsh's Orchestra. Conducted by Fox Bros. 9-30d-mtfs

Private Dancing Class.

Miss Simonds will reopen her private dancing classes at Assembly hall. Young people's class, Friday, October 11, 8 to 10 p. m. Juvenile beginners' class, Saturday, October 12, 1:30 p. m. Juvenile advance class, Saturday, October 12, 3 p. m. Application for admission must be made before the above dates. Reference required. Residence, 80 Hudson avenue. 10-2d9t

Mrs. Jones Will Speak.

Mrs. Grant Jones will speak at the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Congregational church on Sunday evening.

At Plymouth Church.

Rev. J. M. Thomas of Columbus, has accepted a call extended by the Plymouth Congregational church and not the First Congregational church (Welsh) as was stated in Friday's Advocate.

Notice I. O. F.

All members are requested to be present at the funeral of Brother Charles Luther tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2:30 from No. 147 East Main street. Mrs. Ida Moser, Chief Ranger.

Newark Mechanics.

Mr. L. A. Stare and son were at Ft. Marys of the Springs Thursday of this week, setting in place a studio cabinet which Mr. Stare manufactured. Mr. Stare has built several pieces of furniture for this well known institution, and has orders for several more.

Mrs. Wehrle Very Ill.

Word was received in Newark late Friday night that Mrs. Joseph Wehrle who is in a sanitarium at Mt. Clemens, Mich., had sustained a second stroke of paralysis and was in a serious condition. Her sons, William and August of this city, and Rev. Father Wehrle of Bellaire, have been notified and left at once for Mt. Clemens. She is also the mother of two daughters, Celia of this city and Sister Mary, who is in a Columbus convent.

Business Meeting.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Quex club will be held on Thursday evening, October 10, at the

Have You Wires Enough

Can one telephone circuit take care of your large and growing business? Did you ever stop to consider that while your present telephone circuit may be in use others may wish to enter orders? We can remedy this by installing an extra circuit for you. TRY IT!

The Newark Telephone Co

Russo Rheumatism Cure

Is not a temporary relief but cures to stay cured. If you have stiff neck, lame back, tender inflamed and swollen joints quick relief can be had by the use of

Russo

It relieves the distressing pain very quickly, reduces the fever, destroys the poison and eliminates it from the system preventing recurring attacks.

A. F. Crayton & Co.
DRUGGISTS.

home of Helen Freeman on Moulton street. All members are requested to be present and wear Japanese costumes.

Licking Aerle 387 F. O. E.

Will meet at their hall at 12:45 Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Brother Charles H. Luther. They will also meet Monday at 1 p. m. to attend the funeral of Brother Celestin Bottino. Geo. H. Hamilton, President; D. A. Murphy, Secretary.

For Illegal Selling.

Two Hungarians are confined in the county jail charged with selling intoxicating liquors in the village of Pataskala, to H. S. Frambes, without a license. The men, Pete Waschenles and John Sepko committed the offense on the 26th and 27th of September, and their mode of "bootlegging" was rather novel. The men had eleven kgs of beer shipped to Pataskala and would bottle the liquid and then sell it to their customers. They were arrested and had their hearing before Mayor Eugene Moore, who fined them $125 and the costs, which amounted to $15.75. The men were brought to Newark and are confined in the county jail.

Demonstration of the Ohio Steam Cooker will be given by Mrs. Gilbert at the Newark Hardware Store Saturday afternoon and evening a light lunch will be served and a special invitation is extended to the ladies. 4d2t

ON A STREET CAR.

Stout Woman Who Tried the Patience of a Conductor.

The stout woman signified the conductor, and the conductor signified the motorman, and the car came to a stop. "What street is this?" the stout woman asked.

"It's the street where you get off, isn't it, ma'am?"

"It looks something like it. Is that a new house on the corner?"

"I'll have a copy of the building permit ready for you the next time you drop around, ma'am."

"I don't feel quite sure about the street," said the stout lady.

"Step lively, please, ma'am."

"Eh! I haven't any lively steps. Do you take me for a ballet dancer?"

"Not at your age, ma'am."

"What do you mean by that?"

"I mean that you are not old enough for a ballet dancer, ma'am. Will you step lively, please?"

The stout lady balanced herself on the running board.

"I want to get off the right way," she said.

"The quickest way is the right way, ma'am."

"Don't you dare to start the car before I'm off."

"Certainly not, ma'am. We'll cheerfully wait all night if it's necessary."

"You face to the front, don't you?"

"Yes, ma'am. But you can face both ways if you like."

"Then you let yourself down with your left hand, don't you?"

"Yes, ma'am."

The motorman looked around.

"Wake me up, Charlie, when the ark is unloaded," he called back to the conductor.

"Tell that man to look the other way," cried the stout woman.

Then she lowered herself carefully to the ground, and the conductor seized the bell rope.

"Mercy, this isn't the right street, after all!" the stout lady cried and nimbly clambered aboard again.

Then the conductor broke the rope with the yank he gave it—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Where Ignorance is Bliss.

An old German farmer who resided in one of the rural districts of the state of Iowa was the father of a half-witted boy whose lack of intellect was the cause of no little anxiety and solicitude on the part of his paternal parent.

"Dot poy Shon," he was heard to remark in the course of a conversation with a neighbor of like Teutonic origin, "he iss not ferry bright, aber I ton't want you to tell him, because I ton't want him to know it."

Meantime the young hopeful was driving through the barnyard with a load of hay, which, in attempting to turn a sharp corner, he unfortunately upset.

The old man immediately became highly indignant. "Shon," he bellowed in a voice of thunder, "you iss a plame fool, you always vass a fool, you always vill be a fool, you not know noddings."—Judge's Library.

Helpful.

Rev. Mr. Gooday—Have you ever done anything for the church?

Mr. Pompus—Have I? My dear sir, it has always had my moral support. I say a good word for religion whenever I get a chance.—Philadelphia Press.

CHARGES FOR OBITUARIES AND CARDS OF THANKS.

Readers will kindly take notice that there is a charge of five cents a line (six words to the line) for all obituaries exceeding 15 lines, (90 words). We print all obituaries less than 15 lines in length free of charge. Cards of thanks we charge five cents a line (six words to the line). The minimum charge of cards of thanks is 25 cents.

FOUNDED 1876.

And without advertising all eyes are turned toward Bentley's White Lily Catarrh Cure at this time. It reaches a high class of the nation's best home people, who are wise and willing buyers of this worthy article 25 cents. All druggists. 9-24-1m

ABOUT PEOPLE

Short Personal Items Gathered During the Day.

Miss Helen Felger is visiting in Massfield.

Miss Flo Faulkner is in Mt. Vernon to spend Sunday.

Mr. L. A. Stream of Mt. Vernon was in Newark, Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Anderson returned home this morning.

J. H. Norcker of Asheville, O., is attending the Licking county fair.

Misses John Spence and John Whitman of Mt. Vernon attended the fair.

Glen Boyd has returned to his home in Coshocton, after a short visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hyman of Mt. Vernon were in Newark, Thursday.

Dr. Chapin and Mr. Robert Stauffer attended the races at Newark, Thursday.

Mrs. Sadie Wilson Schmidt of West Church street is confined to her home with grip.

Quite a number of Cambridge people were in attendance at the County Fair Friday.

Mrs. Abby McCallum Dusterheimer has been visiting relatives in Cambridge for a few days.

Mrs. B. F. Spencer of North Fourth street, returned home today after two weeks' visit in Marion and Delaware.

Mr. Andrew Mikesell has returned to his work at A. G. Wyeth's store after a severe attack of stomach trouble.

J. S. Axline, a prominent resident of Summit Station, this county, was in the city Saturday and attended the fair.

Mrs. Harry Lewis and little daughter Susan of Pittsburg are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Montgomery.

Mr. Claude C. Connell has returned home from a month's trip through Washington, California and other western states.

Miss Florence King has returned home after an extended visit in the east with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Merriam.

Mrs. Edith Barber, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Jones, and other relatives and friends in Cambridge, has returned home.

Albert Fessenden of Toronto, Canada, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Tyler. Mr. Tyler and Mr. Fessenden went to Newark today.—Coshocton Times.

Edward Kibler Jr. who is a student at O. S. U., is here to spend Sunday with his parents, Attorney and Mrs. Edward Kibler at their home on Granville street.

Mr. William Webb has received word that Mrs. William Webb and daughter, Miss Charlotte and Miss Nina Webb had a pleasant journey and had arrived safely.

Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Porter of Washington, who have been visiting relatives here for some weeks, left for the east Friday night to visit Niagara Falls and other places of interest.

Harry Jenkins, a former Newark boy, whose father was foreman of the old Newark rolling mill, left for his home in Southern Missouri Friday. Mr. Jenkins is engaged in the mining business.

Miss Mary F. McElroy of West Main street, has returned home after having spent the past month in a most delightful manner visiting among friends and relatives in Cincinnati, Toledo and points in Kentucky.

John H. Lott, an old Newark boy, but who has been a resident of Goshen, Ind., for a great many years, who has been in attendance at the funeral of his sister, Mrs. George Edwards, passed through the city Friday and remained over night with Albert Lott.

Mr. Albert Ritter, formerly of Licking county, now yard master at Newark, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Jennie Wharton of Buena Vista street, and other relatives and friends, will return to his home Sunday afternoon. It has been many years since Mr. Ritter has been in Newark, and was much impressed

Extraordinary OFFER BY THE Dr. Taylor Remedy Co. For the Cure of ECZEMA

If you have ECZEMA, SCROFULA, PSORIASIS, ULCERS, or any other skin-torturing disease, purchase a set of our remedy from any druggist and if you are dissatisfied with the result, bring your empty wrappers to our office and we will refund your money.

It has NEVER FAILED TO CURE the WORST CASES of skin disease.

Sold for Free Booklet.

Sold by J. W. Collins & Son, Newark. Ask for free illustrated booklet.

with the city's growth and improvement.

Mrs. G. W. Moore of Ft. Wayne, Ind., is in the city, called home by the serious illness of her sister, Miss Harriet Stobridge.

Mr. E. J. Carlisle of High street, who has been abroad for five months, sailed Saturday from England. He will reach home about Oct. 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Mast Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shppard, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin VanWey, Mr. Matt Mast, Sr., Mrs. Mary Keley, Miss Ella Mast, and Mr. Earl Mast of Newark attended the funeral of John Dickey, near Dresden, Friday.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private parts. Sold by R. W. Smith, Newark. 50 cents.

CAREER OF CLARENCE J. DARROW BRILLIANT CRIMINAL LAWYER, NEAR ITS END.

Submitted to Operation for Abscess of the Brain Caused by Overwork in Haywood Case.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—News came from Boise, Idaho, Friday night that Clarence S. Darrow was dying there.

An abscess of the brain was the malady from which he was suffering. It was of such a serious nature that an operation involving the opening of his skull was performed last Wednesday as the only means of saving his life.

The operation in itself was an extremely dangerous and delicate one, and from the best information ob-

ATTORNEY CLARENCE DARROW. tainable he had not rallied from it as those watching at his bedside had hoped he would.

Dispatches from Boise received at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, stated it was now doubtful if the distinguished lawyer would live.

The message did not come to his law partner, but to Glenn S. Plum, an intimate friend of Mr. Darrow, who was associated with him when he was traction attorney for the city.

Mr. Darrow's illness was brought on by overwork in the trial of Wm. D. Haywood, concluded at Boise two months ago. After a very short rest he returned to Idaho City to take up the defense of the Pettibone case, but the trial of Senator Borah in the land fraud cases intervened and he was kept waiting three days after day.

It was ten days ago, according to the information received here, that he was stricken. He was already weak and his vitality was low because of the long strain on his nervous system and was in no condition to combat a desperate malady.

Mr. Darrow's illness progressed so rapidly and his case became so desperate that it was decided last Wednesday the only means of saving his life was a surgical operation. He submitted to it, though knowing his danger and the chances against success.

The Crescent club will dance at the A. I. U. hall Saturday evening. All are invited. Music by Stevens' Orchestra. 10-3d3*

The best $2.00 and $3.00 hats are sold by Hemmatt, the clothier. 4-2t

Directors of the First National bank of Hattiesburg, Miss., issued a statement saying that the accounts of Assistant Cashier J. W. Harper are apparently $700 short. Harper is missing.

Former Missouri counties have gone "dry."

The Chinese are being reduced to wall paper.

Ten men to one woman carry life insurance.

Rapid nail growth is indication of health.

The Pope has a million dollar lace collection.

18 words 3 days 25 cents

These Little Want Ads will sell your property. Have you ever tried them? The cost is not so great. Eighteen words, three days twenty-five cts. Twenty-four words three days thirty-five cents, more in the same proportion.

SELL YOUR PROPERTY

You can not afford to lose time hunting for a purchase. Let the Advocate Want Ads do it for you. They are selling all the time. Get your name before the buying public through the Advocate.

18 words 3 days 25 cents

WANTED.

Wanted—Children's and plain sewing to do. Call Independent telephone 1334. 5d3t

Wanted—Good fresh cow. Call on Henry Loewendick, at old Kortzenborn brewery, or 438 South Second street. 5d3t

Wanted—Young man to manage distributors and six boys to distribute bills. Pay 75c to $1 per day. Apply Express Printing Co. C. Lester. 1t

Wanted—Blacksmith's helper and cupola tender. Apply at Scheidler's Machine Works, Monday. 5d3t

Wanted—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping by young couple. Near Wehrle Co. Address C. F. care Advocate. 5d3t

Draftsmen—To draw $125-$150 monthly anywhere. Chief Draftsman of Engineering firm will instruct and prepare you practically, individually for above salary, by practical work, home instruction. Guarantee you necessary, actual drafting room experience, not obtainable in schools, colleges, or institutes to be competent high salaried draftsman. No diplomas, but "raining" until competent. Furnish tools and position free. Terms reasonable. Address Chief Draftsman Div. 36-C. Engineers' Equip't. Co., (Inc.) Chicago. 1t

Wanted—Good girl for general housework in family of three. Inquire 126 West Church street. 4d3t

Wanted—Position by middle-aged lady in small family. Inquire 335 East Main street. 4d3t

Wanted—Machinists and die makers. Apply at once to Chas. Mueller, No. 401 South Ninth street, Coshocton, Ohio. 4d3t

Wanted—To buy a few acres of land near city. Address, giving location and price, M. J. S., 195 Wing street, Newark, O. 4d3t

Wanted—Apprentice girl to learn millinery. Apply to Mrs. Kear, Bon Ton Millinery. 4d3t

Wanted—Experienced girl for general housework in the family of a Professor in the Ohio State University. Small family good wages; reference required. Address 234 W. Tenth avenue, Columbus, Ohio. 4d3t

Wanted—Girl for general housework. Call at 319 Buckingham 4d3t

Wanted—Middle aged lady for housekeeper in country, in family of 4. Address Box 165, Dresden, O. or inquire 44 Cedar street, Newark, Ohio. 10-3d3t

Wanted—A competent white girl for general housework in family of three adults, one child. $5. References. H. S., 225 West 8th avenue, Columbus, O. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Girl or woman for general housework. Call at the Auditorium Millinery Store. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Employment immediately by high school "Junior" Fundamental principles of bookkeeping understood. Address "Student," care of Advocate. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Position as housekeeper; with two small boys; country preferred. Inquire at the Advocate office. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Boarders at Union house. 297 Clinton St. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Laboring men and young men as helpers. Bailey & Keelley, 86 West Main St. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Dining room girl at Newark house, 55 South Second St. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Help, boys, girls and men. Ruger Haber Factory. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Position as bookkeeper, of several years' experience. Can give best of references. Address G. K. care Advocate. 10-3d3t

Wanted—Good boy to run errands. Apply to W. J. Bowers at Advocate office. 4d3t

Wanted—You to be entertained with photograph with the wept pictures on baby's carriage. C. E. Welch, West Main street. 5d3t

There are more people in Newark than among people as among Newark's children.

FOR RENT.

For Rent—Seven room modern house on Elmwood avenue. Four room house on Baltimore street. Apply Wesley Montgomery, Penny avenue. Both phones. 10-5d3t

For Rent—Five room house at 65 Le Roy street. Call new phone 3241 Ruby. 5d3t

For Rent—Five room house; gas for light and heat. Inquire 398 Eastern avenue. 5d3t

For Rent—Five room house at 116 E. Locust street; $10 per month. Inquire Newark Real Estate and Imp. Co. 5d3t

For Rent—Five room house with gas, well and cistern on Tenth street, near Granville. Inquire 206 Eddy street. 5d3t

For Rent—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 64 W. Main. 5d3t

For Rent—Five room house and new large barn, $15 per month. Located at 139 S. Pine street. 5d3t

For Rent—Six room house No. 32 First street, between E. Main and Church streets. Enquire at No. 38 N. First street. 5d3t

For Rent—Furnished front room on first floor, 10 minutes walk from square. (Board near.) 161 N. Fourth street. 5d3t

For Rent—Half of double house, near square; six rooms, modern conveniences. Call 22 West Locust street, new phone 6651 Red. 4d3t

For Rent—Three desirable rooms, corner Fifth and Wilson street. Inquire 47 S. Fifth street. 4d3t

For Rent—Furnished room; all modern conveniences; close to square. Inquire 65 West Church street. 10-3d3t

For Rent—Emery's cottage, 237 Woods avenue. $12 per month till April 1st. 10-3d3t

For Rent—House, 6 rooms with gas, 33 Western Ave., between W. Main and Church Streets. Enquire 60 N. 5th St. New Phone 3631 West. 10-3d3t

For Rent—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Modern conveniences; first floor. 115 Elmwood avenue. 21d3t

For Rent—Seven-room house on Wallace street. Inquire of James Mills. 9-10d3t

For Rent—Desirable rooms for light housekeeping, near square. R. M. Davidson, 60 N. Third St. 8-21d3t

For Rent—Six room house on Wehrle avenue. Enquire of Bailey & Keelley. 4-11d3t

C. L. STURGEON.

Farm of 142 acres in McKean township. Mostly pastures and meadows. Free gas.

141 acres north of Newark 7 1-2 miles. Fine house, good stable, and a fine place. Will either rent or sell.

My farm of 75 acres at Buckeye Lake for rent. Barn will hold 25 head of horses and all the crops that can be raised on the place. A splendid chance for trucking.

Houses and lots in all parts of the city. See me if you want good values. C. L. STURGEON. New phone, Red 1441. 78 North Fifth street.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Lost—Fox hound, mostly black, white and tan feet, white tip on tail, white breast, white mark right side neck. Reward 14 Western avenue. 5d3t

Lost—Small gold watch at Fair Grounds. Finder will please return to 34 Jefferson street, or phone 531 Citizens phone, and receive reward. 4d

Lost—Pocketbook, containing $7.50, certificate for prize, etc., at park. $1 reward. New phone Red 212. 4d3t

Money to Loan—On real estate at low interest. Norpell & Norpell, Lansing block. 6-12d3t

F. J. Mackenzie, Watch and Clock Repairing, 53 N. Third street. 5-7t

J. I. Smith & Son (successors to W. H. Lucas) for Licking county for the Lucas Patent Cement Cistern and Cesspool, 50 cents per barrel. All kinds of repair work and clearing cisterns promptly done. All work guaranteed. Residence 187 North Gay street. New phone Red 1162. 3-25d3t

FOR SALE.

12-room boarding house on St. Clair street. Will take small house as part pay. Five room house, rents for $10, price $1,250. Inquire Warner's Insurance Agency, Newark Trust Bldg., 5th floor.

In open revolt against high prices, the people of Augusta, Maine, have declared a boycott on meat.

For Sale—Seven fine Delaine rams. Inquire of O. C. Irwin, 6 miles s.e. of Newark, or phone 194 Farmer. 5d3t

For Sale—New 4-room house, 10 acres of farm land, on Wilkins road. Inquire W. T. Willey, Newark, R. D. No. 7. 5d3t

Public Sale—Six horses, 16 Jersey cows and heifers, 4 short horn cows, fresh. 50 Berkshires, 2 Chester Whites with litters. Sale Thursday, Oct. 10 at 9 a. m. C. G. Walker, 7 miles north of Newark. 1t

For Sale—One good cow, to be fresh in about a month, and 5 shoats. O. B. Inlow, R. D. No. 4. 5d3t

For Sale—Adjustable sleeper go-cart; good condition. 395 Hudson avenue. 4d3t

For Sale—5,000 yards of soil, gravel and sand. Apply Tailmadge Realty Co., 13 1-2 North Second street. New phone 1189. 4d3t

For Sale—Fine driving horse, six years old; city broke. Also phaeton and harness good as new. Will sell cheap if sold soon. Bell phone W461, or call at 250 Eddy street. 4d3t

For Sale—Grocery and meat market; cheap if sold at once. Address G. and M., care Advocate. 10-3d3t

For Sale—Show cases, counter and shelving. Call Bell phone Main 321. 10-3d3t

For Sale—Four acres of ground on Manning street, with two good houses and two barns thereon, and also fruit trees. Will sell all together or in parcels. Enquire at Westbrook's grocery, 350 E. Main street, Newark, O. 10-3d3t

For Sale—80 acres, 2 1-2 mi. south-west of Kirkersville. Farm of Dennis Smoke, deceased. Enquire of P. E. Smoke, Admr., Cleveland, Ohio. 10-3d3t

For Sale—10 room brick house. Nice location. Cheap if sold soon. Address A. X. Z., care Advocate. 10-3d3t

For Sale—75 misfit overcoats 50 business suits, also pants and ladies ware. Cleaning and repairing on short notice. Sam King & Co., No. 17 S. Fourth street, Newark. 10-1-1m

For Sale—Cadillac automobile, extra tire, $500. Enquire F. J. Harrington, 232 East Main street. 30d6t

For Sale or Exchange—3 acres with house and barn, west of Utica; rents to earn 10 per cent and chance for gas well. Very cheap. J. F. Moore & Son, Franklin Bank Building. 4d3t

For Sale—A first class one-man commercial job printing office. A good mechanic can earn $125 per month. Ill health reason for selling. Cheap if taken at once. Address D. W. Matticks, Newark, O., if you mean business. 9-14d3t

For Sale—Seven room and bath, modern, new house, in Woodside. Inquire D. C. Walker, care J. C. Jones, o new phone 3081 West. 9-6d3t

Elizabeth Chapel Lots—Are going rapidly. Come soon if you want one. See W. B. Fous at Camp Grounds. E. H. Staughenaupt, Kirby's store, J. C. Goodhart, Mahlon street and Rev. H. S. Bailey, 22 N. Williams street. 9-7-mtwsimo-73t&78t

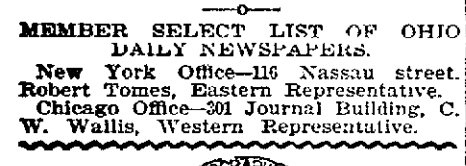

Public Sale of Farm—I will sell at public auction on Oct. 7th, 1907, at 10 o'clock sun time, my farm of 22 acres, four miles north of Newark and one-fourth mile west of Vanatta. All buildings new; 11-room house, finished in oak; gas for light and heat; bank barn 32 x 40 and other outbuildings. Terms made known on day of sale. Auctioneer, W. C. Seward. H. D. Blum, Vanatta, O. 23d9t-sw77-3t

FOR SALE.

12-room boarding house on St. Clair street. Will take small house as part pay. Five room house, rents for $10, price $1,250. Inquire Warner's Insurance Agency, Newark Trust Bldg., 5th floor.

In open revolt against high prices, the people of Augusta, Maine, have declared a boycott on meat.

THE NEWARK DAILY ADVOCATE Published by The ADVOCATE PRINTING COMPANY
J. H. NEWTON, Editor.
C. H. SPENCER, Associate Editor.
A. H. PIERSON, Business Manager.
Terms of Subscription:
Single copy 2 cents
Delivered by carrier, per week, 10 cents
If Paid in Advance:
Delivered by carrier, one month, 40 cents
Delivered by carrier, six months, $2.25
Delivered by carrier, one year, $4.50
By mail, strictly in advance, one year $5.00
All subscribers who arrange to pay at the office are subject to call from the collector if payment is not made when due.
MEMBER SELECT LIST OF OHIO DAILY NEWSPAPERS.
New York Office, Nassau street.
Robert Tomes, Eastern Representative.
Chicago Office—201 Journal Building, C. W. Wallis, Western Representative.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

Representative,
ROBERT W. HOWARD,
of Newark.

CITY TICKET

Mayor,
HERBERT A. THURSTON.
President of Council,
HARRY ROESEL.
City Auditor,
FRANK T. MAURATH.

City Treasurer,
A. P. TAYLOR.
City Solicitor,
FRANK A. BOLTON.

Board of Public Service,
SIDNEY B. LEVINGSTON.
ANTHONY R. PITZER.
CHARLES D. NUTTER.

Councilmen,
First Ward—OLIVER D. IRWIN.
Second Ward—W. D. FULTON.
Third Ward—ELMER ORR.

Councilmen-at-Large,
J. S. KUSTER, JR.
HENRY BAKER,
L. A. STARE.

Board of Education,
DAVID M. KELLER.
CHARLES ROESEL.
CHARLES W. MILLER.

Assessor,
First Ward—FRANK VOGELMEIER.
Second Ward—HENRY BONER.
Third Ward—J. R. ANDERSON.

TOWNSHIP TICKET

Justice of the Peace,
W. F. HOLTON.
Constable,
ROBERT E. FORGRAVES.

Treasurer,
FRANK SHOWMAN.
Trustee,
JOSEPH ORR.
TITUS R. JONES.

Clerk,
E. C. RICHARDSON.

Oct. 5 in History.

- 578—Justin, Roman emperor at Constantinople, died.
- 1805—Charles (earl and later marquis) Cornwallis, British commander in North America and afterward governor general of India, died at Ghazipur; born 1731; surrendered at Yorktown Oct. 19, 1781.
- 1812—General William H. Harrison defeated the British and Indians at the Thames, Ontario; the noted chief Tecumseh was killed.
- 1835—Burning of Crystal Palace in New York; loss, $1,750,000.
- 1836—Alfred Tennyson, Baron of Lynton, laureate of England, died; born 1799.
- 1890—Ex-United States Senator James Harlan, last surviving member of Lincoln's cabinet, died at Mount Pleasant, Ia.; born 1830.
- 1906—General Bradley T. Johnson, well known Confederate veteran and writer on the war, died at Rock Castle, Va.; born 1829.

AMUSEMENTS

DREW CAPACITY BUSINESS.
The "Cattle King" drew capacity business at the Auditorium Friday evening, and long before the doors opened not a seat was left in the house. The play was laid in the far west as the title indicates, and was well produced. The cast took their parts in a painstaking manner. The specialties were especially good. This afternoon "Little Lord Fauntleroy" is being produced with Baby Bernice, the wonderful little to dancer in the title role. The company will close its engagement at the theater tonight and "Ruined Lives" will

General Debility

Day in and day out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself. Food does not strengthen. Sleep does not refresh. It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers. For this condition take

Hood's Sarsaparilla
It vitalizes the blood and gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

be the bill. The play is regarded by the members of the company as one of their strongest.
Monday matinee and night the time tried favorite, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will be produced. Tuesday night the first big show of the season will be seen. "Simple Simon Simple" is regarded as one of the best musical comedies on the road today and will probably do a big business here.
ADELAIDE THURSTON.
One of the characters in "The Girl From Out Yonder" Adelaide Thurston's play, is an old sailor, Ben Cooke who finds a panacea for all the ills of this life in the game of "Jacks". It even consoled him between the 35 times that he proposed marriage to one of the female characters in the play. Miss Thurston and company appear at the Auditorium Monday evening, October 14.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.
An event looked forward to with more than ordinary interest theatrically is the coming of Al W. Martin's revival of Harriet Beecher Stowe's lovable story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Mr. Martin's reputation as a promoter of this big production is well known to theater goers, but few are aware that the coming event is one of the most gigantic and elaborate that has ever been attempted in America. Not only does Mr. Martin promise to bring a company of fifty white people, but a car load of scenery, ponies, horses, bloodhounds, etc. for the piece. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will hold the boards at the Auditorium Monday afternoon and night, October 7.

SIMPLE SIMON SIMPLE.
Nixon & Zimmerman, a firm noted for the high character of the productions it sends out to the one night stand cities, has outdone itself in organizing this season's fun trust. "Simple Simon Simple," which is billed to appear at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 8. The company includes all of the old favorites and many newcomers of unusual ability. The musical numbers have been revised and several new songs hits interpolated. The chorus has been strengthened, the book improved an dall in all, "Simple Simon Simple" has been made the jolliest, jingliest, jewel of fun in the necklace of amusements.

ORPHIUM THEATER.
The amateurs scored a tremendous success last evening and all present enjoyed every interval after the raising of the curtain.
The prizes were awarded as follows: The Cotton Blossom Four, first: John Leahy, second: William Muldoon, third.
The regular bill was sure to please, and those that have not already attended should not fail to do so tonight.
The extraordinary bill for next week is headed by Porter J. White and company, three in number, presenting a sketch entitled "The Visitor." Porter J. White is an acknowledged star in all the cities of America, touring as "Mephisto" in Faust for a number of years, being most favorably remembered by Newark theater goers.
Mr. White is to be seen at the best of his advantage in this newly written masterpiece of Olive White, and securing seats early will insure good ones. The balance of the bill consists of Addison and Livingston, comedy sketch artists, Bates and Neville in a comedy skit, Dolly Vardenne, child impersonator and most excellent moving pictures and illustrated songs.
Don't forget that the second performance this evening means giving away a handsome rocker. Secure the lucky number Tickets issued at both performances. Secure your seats early for next week's performances.

MANAGER HILTON HERE.
General Manager Fred Hilton of the Sun & Murray amusement circuit arrived in the city yesterday and will be the guest of Manager Baum for a few days. The future for the Orphium looks pleasing to Mr. Hilton and he stated that at all times nothing but first class clean vaudeville shows will appear at this theater. The circuit includes Zaniesville, Canton and Youngstown, which have recently been added to the circuit and now makes it the biggest vaudeville circuit in the United States. More than 100 theaters are being booked and nearly 500 acts receive employment each week. Quite an number of big acts have been booked and several treats are in store for the Orphium's patrons in Newark.

Hawes soft and stiff hats, the latest styles at Hermann's the clothing store.
HEBRON W. C. T. U. NOTES.
Hebron, Oct. 5.—The regular yearly public meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the M. E. church on Sunday evening, October 6 at 7 o'clock. Airing Starc President Mrs. Frances Ensign will deliver an address. Mrs. Ensign is a capable speaker and all will be benefited by hearing her.
The W. C. T. U. will hold its gold medal contest at the Church of Christ on October 18. All are invited.
The people who are wrapped up in themselves are generally pretty small.
A woman can forgive a man almost anything except not admiring her.

THE NEWARK CHURCHES

St. Paul's Lutheran.
Corner First street and Sherwood avenue. John W. Weeter, pastor. Sunday school at 9:20 a. m. Morning worship at 10:30 and evening services at 7:15. A. E. Bell of Wittenberg college will preach.

Central Church of Christ.
J. N. Scholes minister. Residence 128 North Seventh street. Bible school 9:15. Communion 10:30. Preaching 11. Subject of sermon "A Great Soul's Gift." Christian Endeavor prayer meeting at 6:15. Evangelistic services at 7:15, sermon theme "Self and Christ."

Missionary Meeting.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet with Mrs. A. H. Marple, 533 West Main, Friday, October 11th at 2 o'clock.

Fifth Street Baptist.
Rev. Joseph A. Bennett, 196 Granville street. Bible school and pastor's class at 9:30. Preaching at 10:45, theme, "Redemptive Predestination No. 1." Young People's meeting at 6. Preaching at 7, theme, "Redemptive Predestination No. 2." Wednesday evening at 7:15, regular prayer service. Music by the large chorus choir under Prof. W. W. Flora. Everyone welcome.

Holy Trinity.
Evangelical Lutheran, corner of West Main and Williams streets. C. C. Roof, pastor. Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. Morning worship at 10:30. Communion service. Evening worship at 7:15. Sunday school at 9:30. Teachers' meeting Wednesday evening at 7:15. Everybody welcome to these services.

West Newark Christian Union.
Class meeting at 9:45. Preaching 10:30, subject, "Conquests of Testimony." Sunday school at 2. Preaching at 7, beginning the first of a series of talks for workingmen, subject tomorrow evening, "Jesus Christ as a Workman." Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7, subject, "The Conditions of Unanswered Prayer."

Woodside Presbyterian.
All services held in Sunday school hall on Eleventh street, between Ash and Selby streets. Sunday school at 2:30. Young people's meeting at 6. Preaching at 7, subject, "The Lord's People in Satan's Palace." Midweek service Wednesday evening at 7:30, topic, "Growth in Character." II. Peter 1:5-8. The public is kindly invited to these services.

St. Francis de Sales.
Masses at 7 and 10 a. m. Baptism at 1 p. m. Sunday school at 2. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3 p. m.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.
Auditorium building, second floor. Services Sunday at 10:30 a. m., subject, "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" Golden text, "Fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel; for I, I will save thee from afar; and thy seed from the land of their captivity." Jeremiah 30:10. Sunday school at 9:30. Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. The public is cordially invited.

United Brethren.
Sager Tryon, pastor, 296 East Main street. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Junior at 2 p. m. C. E. at 5:50 p. m. Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon at 1:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Choir practice Thursday evening at 7:30. Please note the change in time of the Sunday evening services. Morning sermon subject, "A Mighty Work of a Weak People." Evening, "Sources of Weakness."

First Presbyterian.
Preaching service at 10 a. m., subject, "Lost Power in the Church." Bible study at 11:15. Young People's meeting at 6 p. m. Preaching 7 p. m., subject, "The Sorrow of the World." Prayer service Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. Normal class at 8 p. m. Thursday. You will be welcome at any of these services. F. E. Vernon, pastor, residence 67 North Sixth street.

Second Presbyterian.
Communion service Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. New members will be received. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Sunday school at 11:30. You are cordially invited to all of our services.

Plymouth Congregational.
Rev. B. F. Griffith of Cleveland, O., will preach at both morning and evening services. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. Young people's meeting at 6 p. m. Sunday school at 9:20 a. m. The public is invited to all the services.

First Methodist.
First quarterly meeting conducted by Dr. McElfresh at 10:30 o'clock. The pastor will preach at 7 p. m. Class meeting 8:15. Sunday school at 9:15. Epworth league 6 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. Everybody invited to all the services.

Ministers' Union.
The regular monthly meeting of the Ministers' Union will be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the First M. E. church. F. E. Vernon will speak, topic, "The Separateness of the Church." All the ministers of the city are urged to be present as important matters will be brought before the meeting.

further notice will be at 7:30 instead of 7. Take notice of the change.
Mr. Uetsuegi is at present a student at Denison university. He was converted to Christianity by the English church and was baptized and confirmed in Japan. He will speak of his life as a heathen and of his conversion to Christianity. A portion of the offering will go towards his education in his preparation for a missionary to his own people.
All organizations of the parish will meet as usual during the week. Evening prayer will be said in the church on Friday afternoon at 4.

City Mission.
Sunday school in the tent on Sixth street at 9:15 a. m. Preaching at 10:45 and 2:30 and 7:30. Meetings each evening next week at 7:30, beginning Tuesday. At 120 East Main street, meeting at 6:30 this evening and Sunday evening. Sharon Va. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Preaching at 2 p. m.

REORGANIZED

Trinity Church Choir Under Mr. D. J. Winton Has Begun Preparation for Christmas Music.

During the vacation season the vested choir of Trinity church has been thoroughly reorganized as follows:

Mr. D. J. Winton, late of St. Stephen's church, Olean, N. Y., manager of the choristers; Mrs. Elizabeth Graham Winton (pupil of Dr. Starnes) organist; Mr. William Reynolds, basso cantante; Master Harry Graham, crucifer; Master Duke Clayton, acolyte; Mr. Ernest Cochran, librarian, and the Newark Trust company, treasurer.

The Guild of The Daughters of Trinity has very generously provided the choir with new and complete equipment of ladies' vestments, comprising white cottas, black gowns and caps.

On Sunday next the choir will render the following program for the morning service, at 10:30:

Prelude, Fugue on Duke Street, Lincoln.

Processional, Hymn No. 414, Barthelmon.

Communion Office in F (first time in Newark), Stainer.

Hymn, Lead Kindly Light, Dykes.

Anthem, Praise Ye the Father, Gounod.

Retrocessional, Hymn 403, Ward.

Postlude, Processional March, Gault.

At this service will occur the office for the admission of a crucifer, by which Master Harry Graham will be admitted as crucifer vice Mr. Roe Bremigan, resigned.

Mr. Bremigan has been a faithful and efficient crucifer and is now advanced as a chorister.

Beginning with next Sunday the evening service will be resumed commencing at 7:30 o'clock instead of 7 p. m. as heretofore. The music will be as follows:

Prelude, Andantino in D Flat, Lemare.

Choral Evensong, including the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Sparks sung antiphonally, Hymns 9 and 375 by Dykes.

Anthem, The Radiant Morn, Woodward.

Postlude, Volkmar.

The personnel of the choir comprise the following:

Trebles—Messrs. Fall Brunner, Frederic and Goddard Chase, John Criticos, Clarence Crossley, Lee Forgrave, Frank Graham, Evert Jones, Louis Kastla, Harry Kuppinger, George Pratt, Cortlandt D. Winton.

Soprano—Messdames Mary Bremigan, Kate Burton, Estella Daly, Goldie Daly, Alice Daly, Charles A. Fern, Irene Henthorne, Besse Laird, Katherine Messenger, Eleanor Place, Fay Shaffer, Grace E. Winton.

Contralto—Messdames Frances Smith and Lina Shaffer, Master Duke Clayton.

Tenor—Messrs. Ernest Cochran, Creasy Daly, Herve Reynolds, D. J. Winton.

Bass—Messrs. Roe Bremigan, E. C. Harter, William Reynolds.

The preparation of the Christmas music has been commenced, which includes a Te Deum in C by Gounod and an English version of his celebrated St. Cecilia's mass.

Property for sale. See the want ads on page 3 of the Daily Advocate.

Excursion Oct. 11. Chicago and return, via B. and O. R. R. Only $6. See ticket agent for details.

3d7t

ALONZO SOUSLIN TO RETURN HOME

Mr. Alonzo Souslin, the former Licking county man, who is known as the man with the broken neck, and who has been in attendance at the Licking County Fair all week selling his booklet, giving a short account of his life, and the story of the accident which resulted in a broken neck while at work at the plant of the National Cash Register company, Dayton, Ohio, left Saturday with his wife and little son for their home in Dayton. Before leaving he called at the Advocate office and said that he desired to thank the people of Licking county for the interest they had taken in him and also for their liberal patronage in purchasing his little booklet. Lon has many friends in Newark and through northeastern Licking county and while here added many more to his long list.

"NEWARK DAY"

Mayor McCleery Issues Formal Proclamation For Its Celebration at Jamestown.

In recognition of the fact that Newark has been officially recognized by the directors of the Jamestown Exposition and a Newark day appointed, Mayor McCleery this morning issued the following proclamation:

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, there is now in progress, the Jamestown Exposition, at Norfolk, Va., celebrating the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the first permanent English settlement in America, an event of great importance to America and the human race; and

Whereas, the City of Newark, Ohio, has been officially recognized by the management of the said Exposition, by setting apart a time to be known as Newark Day, at which time a special program will be prepared in honor of our city; therefore, I, Samuel H. McCleery, mayor of the city of Newark, Ohio, do hereby name and appoint Thursday, the 17th day of October, A. D. 1907, to be known as said day, trusting that many of our citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity and help the management do honor to our city and aid in the making the Exposition the great success it so justly deserves.

Given under my hand and seal, this 5th day of October, A. D. 1907.

SAMUEL H. MCCLEERY,
Mayor.

DRUNKENNESS A CURABLE DISEASE

Eminent Physicians and Scientists Agree That it Should be Treated as Such.

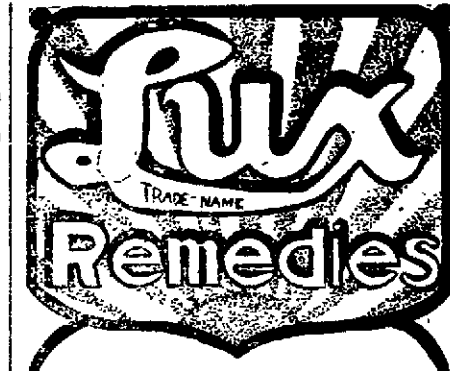

Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orrine. It is a scientific cure for Drunkenness and has given such universal satisfaction that it is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. This guarantee is given in good faith and is carried out to the letter. Orrine is not a new remedy; it has been sold by the leading druggists in every city for years. It has lifted tens of thousands from the depths to worthy manhood and has the hearty endorsement of grateful men and women in every state in the Union.

Orrine No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orrine No. 2, is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1.00. The guarantee is the same in either case. Write to The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., for free treatise on Drunkenness, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Orrine will be mailed sealed on receipt of price. Sold by the leading druggists in every town and city, and in this city by Frank D. Hall.

STEVENS' UNION ORCHESTRA

Dances, banquets, openings, etc. F. C. Stevens, violin. Cora Coleman piano. Wm. Reynolds, cornet. A. F. Savage, drums. All experienced. Citizens phone 1644 or Bell phone 784-W

Prescriptions ready to use

"Cure-alls" there are in plenty, but every physician knows there is just one proper prescription for every ailment. Famous physicians have selected the prescriptions which are compounded, ready to use, under the name of Lux—one for each disease. When you buy the Lux Remedy compounded for your particular trouble, you are not paying a doctor's bill; you pay for the drugs only. It's the common sense thing to do, if you know what ails you. If you don't know, go to a doctor.

Sold and Guaranteed by

W. A. ERMAN & SON

Wherever You Find The Pianola Piano

There you will find music. In this combination you get not only the piano, but the ability to play it. We are sole agents and take pleasure in showing this wonderful instrument.

The Munson Music Co.

27 West Main Street.

ROBBINS HUNTER, Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law.

Newark, Ohio.
Office—Hunter & Jones Block, West Side of Public Square. New phone 173.

John David Jones. Roderick Jones.

JONES & JONES, Attorneys-at-Law.

Practices in all the courts, both State and National. Prompt attention given to wills, conveyancing and administrators and guardians accounts, and all litigation.

Trust Building, Newark, Ohio.

JOSEPH RENZ, NOTARY PUBLIC, REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

Office No. 7 L-2 West Side Square, over Simple Shoe Store.

Deeds and mortgages written. All business entrusted to me will be promptly and carefully attended to.

$10 TO $200 LOANS
On any good chattel securities, such as
PIANOS, HORSES, WAGONS, ETC
NEW YORK FINANCE COMPANY, 14 1-2 N. Second St. Citizens 'Phone 698

You can pay us back in weekly or monthly payments, in amounts to suit your means. No publicity whatever. You will find everything confidential

Come in and see us, and talk it over. Information gladly given. No charge unless you secure a loan. All security remains in your possession

WE CANNOT SAY TOO MUCH FOR PE-RU-NA

These Women Say, in Substance, That Before They Took Pe-ru-na They Were Miserable.

They Were Weak and Wretched.

After Taking Pe-ru-na They Were Restored to Health and Usefulness.

This Is the Whole Story In a Nutshell.

If Pe-ru-na Can Do Such Wonders For These Women It Can Do the Same For You.

The housewife is the one who is best able to judge of the relative merits of family medicines. It is she that knows the many uses of Pe-ru-na in the family. It is upon her testimonial that chiefly depends the popularity which Peruna enjoys.

MRS. E. T. GADDIS

Mrs. E. T. Gaddis, Marion, N. C., writes: "Before I commenced to take Peruna I could not do any hard work without suffering great pain. I took Peruna and Manalin, and can say with pleasure they have done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken. Now I am as well as ever. I do all my own work and it never hurts me at all. I think Peruna is a great medicine for womankind."

From Grateful Women.

"I was troubled with suppressed and painful menstruation. I took Peruna according to your directions, and now I am well."—Mrs. James Eighmey, Grape, Mich.

"We have been using Peruna for some time. To speak from a standpoint of experience I can candidly say that Peruna is the remedy for female weakness. From a personal test and from the testimony of many others I shall not hesitate to recommend it, especially to all suffering women."—Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burning Springs, Ky.

"I suffered from catarrh for many years, but since taking Peruna I feel strong and well. As I used Peruna and Manalin while I was passing through the change of life, I am positively convinced your beneficial remedies have relieved me of all my ills."—Mrs. Mathilde Richter, Doniphan, Neb.

"I suffered with pelvic catarrh until I wrote to Dr. Hartman, and after taking treatment as he advised, I can say I am cured of this most trying affliction, for which I am truly thankful. I never felt better in my life than I do at present."—Mrs. Etta Booker, Dundurn, Sask., N. W. T., Can.

adoption, and on that night refreshments will be served. If you have a friend that would make a good neighbor, induce him to put his name into Cedar Camp and become a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

If you have a prospect, telephone to the Clerk, who will send District Deputy W. S. Brandriff after him and you will if the member is adopted, get in on the turkey roast when the 1200 membership mark is reached. At the meeting on Monday night short talks were made by several neighbors.

Cedar Camp now has over 1100 beneficial members and we are working hard for 1200 membership mark. Cedar Camp stands eighth in membership in the entire jurisdiction and the neighbors should feel proud of the fact. We hold the prize state banner for the largest membership in Ohio and that is another feature to be proud of. But neighbors, there is a camp that says they are going to take the banner away from us and they are working hard to do so. Are we going to let them take that banner that we have held for four straight years? Neighbors we want that banner for just one more year and then we will let Zanesville have it. All beneficial members are notified that there is no assessment for the month of October, making three that have been skipped this year.

Neighbors, read this month's paper about the Modern Woodmen's silver anniversary on the first page of the paper, and then come to the next meeting of the camp with two or three application cards filled out with your friends' names upon them.

Neighbors, the ball has started rolling and on the night of November 4, there will be another class candidates. All members of the degree team are urged to be present. We cordially invite all visiting brothers to our hall and enjoy the evening with us.

Home Guards of America. The members of Newark Home No. 34 are requested to be present on next Wednesday evening, as there is some business of very great importance to all members, and should be attended to at once. Also those who want to take part in the new team work will have an opportunity to learn what the new work is to be.

Modern Woodmen. The regular meeting held by Cedar Camp, No. 4727 Modern Woodmen of America, on Monday night, September 30, was the best meeting that had been held for some time. All officers were present and the Forester team which is composed of 16 men, were all in uniform and put on the work, which was a great credit to them.

Seven applications for membership were received and elected. The Escort found in waiting Fletcher S. Scott, E. M. Goldenberg, Harvey Parr, Alfred Oberfeld, David A. Jarves, Henry C. Earl, George O. Brison, Nathan Wolf, George Yirk and Louis J. Blane who were adopted as members of Cedar Camp.

Neighbors, the ball has started rolling and on the night of November 4, there will be another class

adoption, and on that night refreshments will be served. If you have a friend that would make a good neighbor, induce him to put his name into Cedar Camp and become a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

If you have a prospect, telephone to the Clerk, who will send District Deputy W. S. Brandriff after him and you will if the member is adopted, get in on the turkey roast when the 1200 membership mark is reached. At the meeting on Monday night short talks were made by several neighbors.

Cedar Camp now has over 1100 beneficial members and we are working hard for 1200 membership mark. Cedar Camp stands eighth in membership in the entire jurisdiction and the neighbors should feel proud of the fact. We hold the prize state banner for the largest membership in Ohio and that is another feature to be proud of. But neighbors, there is a camp that says they are going to take the banner away from us and they are working hard to do so. Are we going to let them take that banner that we have held for four straight years? Neighbors we want that banner for just one more year and then we will let Zanesville have it. All beneficial members are notified that there is no assessment for the month of October, making three that have been skipped this year.

Neighbors, read this month's paper about the Modern Woodmen's silver anniversary on the first page of the paper, and then come to the next meeting of the camp with two or three application cards filled out with your friends' names upon them.

Neighbors, the ball has started rolling and on the night of November 4, there will be another class

candidates. All members of the degree team are urged to be present. We cordially invite all visiting brothers to our hall and enjoy the evening with us.

Home Guards of America. The members of Newark Home No. 34 are requested to be present on next Wednesday evening, as there is some business of very great importance to all members, and should be attended to at once. Also those who want to take part in the new team work will have an opportunity to learn what the new work is to be.

Modern Woodmen. The regular meeting held by Cedar Camp, No. 4727 Modern Woodmen of America, on Monday night, September 30, was the best meeting that had been held for some time. All officers were present and the Forester team which is composed of 16 men, were all in uniform and put on the work, which was a great credit to them.

Seven applications for membership were received and elected. The Escort found in waiting Fletcher S. Scott, E. M. Goldenberg, Harvey Parr, Alfred Oberfeld, David A. Jarves, Henry C. Earl, George O. Brison, Nathan Wolf, George Yirk and Louis J. Blane who were adopted as members of Cedar Camp.

Neighbors, the ball has started rolling and on the night of November 4, there will be another class

adoption, and on that night refreshments will be served. If you have a friend that would make a good neighbor, induce him to put his name into Cedar Camp and become a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

it being their first appearance with our club, proved a winner and will be found with us every other Thursday evening during the season.

Season invitations will be issued soon. The next regular dance will be given October 17.

Regular meeting of chapter next Thursday evening. Work for the degree staff.

Ben Hur.

The officers and members of Alpha Court No. 51, are earnestly requested to attend the funeral of our late brother, Charles Luther, on East Main street, Sunday at 12:45 p. m. By order of the Chief.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

JOHN BUMCRAT.

John Bumcrat, a well known pioneer and life long resident of Amsterdam, passed away at his home in that village Friday morning at 11 o'clock, death being due to the infirmities of old age.

Mr. Bumcrat was born near Amsterdam 90 years ago, and in his younger days taught school for many years. He was highly esteemed and respected in the community in which he resided and was a member of the United Brethren denomination.

Three sons and two daughters survive, Marion, of Jacksontown, Sherman of Buckeye Lake, Sheldon residing at home, Mrs. Martha Forgrave, of this city, and Miss Mary, residing at home with her father.

The funeral will occur from the Presbyterian church at Amsterdam Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Fairmount cemetery.

G. T. REIGEL'S FUNERAL.

The remains of George T. Reigel, the B. & O. brakeman who was crushed to death in the B. & O. yards in this city Friday morning, will be shipped to Quaker City Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock where funeral services will be held and where interment will occur.

FRANK EDWARDS.

Frank Edwards, son of Henry and Rebecca Edwards was born January 12, 1854, died October 4, 1907. He was married to Mary E. Preston on March 15, 1892. He leaves a wife and stepdaughter, Mrs. George Bliss of Uhrichsville, three nieces, Mrs. Emory Brickley, Misses Alice and Helen Maybald, and three nephews, Harry, George and John Maybald, of this city, and a brother-in-law, Mr. John Maybald.

Mr. Edwards was a plasterer by trade and has worked at this his entire life. He was a member of Local Plasterers' Union No. 303.

He has been subjected to hemorrhages of the stomach for the past five years. He was taken sick last May and has not been able to do any work since. His friends, however, hoped for his recovery. He was taken worse about one week ago and grew rapidly worse until the end.

While not a member of any church in his last hours he expressed his willingness to go, saying "I have made my peace with God, and am ready to go."

He was a kind husband and good neighbor, and his many friends mourn his death, and extend their sympathy to the relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be held at the residence, 152 Ash street, Monday at 9 a. m. Interment at St. Louisville.

OBITUARY.

James Harvey Cochran, son of James and Louisa Cochran, was born December 9, 1865, and departed this life, September 28, 1907, aged 41 years, 9 months and 19 days. He was united in marriage with Lena Pound on August 18, 1898. To this union was born a son, Orin Pound. His wife and son, also his father, one sister and a brother have preceded him to the final resting place. His mother, two sisters and many friends remain to mourn his departure.

One by one our loved ones leave us. As the hour of life grows late: One by one their partings grieve us. They are passing thro' the gate.

One by one are they invited To our Monarch's broad estate: Not a loyal soul is slighted. They are passing thro' the gate.

One by one we all are going Down the pathway steep and straight.

Ah, the joy there is in knowing We shall meet beyond the gate.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends and all who assisted us in any way at the death of our husband, son and brother, and the Rev. Sparks, also Plymouth Congregational choir, Ben Hur and for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. E. E. Motz, mother, sister and brother.

Bitten By a Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington of Bosqueville, Texas, would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." Heals every sore. 25c, at F. D. Hall, the druggist's.

Knox silk opera, soft and stiff hats at Hermann's the clothier—4-2t.

DISHWASHER

NOTIFIED THAT HE IS PROBABLY HEIR TO EIGHTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Name Found in Old Directory in Cincinnati and He Was Located in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 5.—Thomas Yeakle, 38 years old, who has been employed as a dishwasher at different hotels of Indianapolis, sees a fortune of something like $80,000 in sight, and left Friday for Chicago to try to obtain it.

Edward A. Warfield, a Chicago business man and administrator of the estate of George T. Cline, who died in Chicago some months ago, leaving an estate of $200,000, located Yeakle in Indianapolis after a search of many of the large cities of the Middle West. Yeakle is a nephew of the late Millionaire Cline. Seven years ago Yeakle disappeared from his home in Maryland and never returned.

"Cline left a will giving his estate to four heirs," said Warfield. "One of these heirs was his sister, the mother of Thomas Yeakle. A codicil of the will declared that at the death of any of the legatees their property should go equally to their direct heirs. Yeakle's mother is dead and he is a direct heir."

The Cline estate is now in litigation in Chicago, and has become one of the famous cases in the Probate courts there. It is said that some of the litigants would like to have Yeakle declared legally dead, as he has been cut off from the family for seven years.

Yeakle is unmarried. He showed no particular astonishment when told that he had a chance of becoming rich. He knew that he belonged to a wealthy family, and hoped some day to get a share of the wealth.

"I have hunted for this fellow all over the country," said Warfield. "In Cincinnati I found an old Indianapolis directory which gave his name and occupation. I came on to Indianapolis, and located my man with little difficulty."

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Newark Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—They can't keep up the continual strain.

The back gives out—it aches and pains; Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Newark people tell you how they act.

M. B. Melick, driver, of 54 West Church street, Newark, O., says:

"For a long time I was suffering from a constant sickening pain in the small of the back and in the hips. Any quick movement was followed by sharp darting twinges that caught me suddenly and almost doubled me up. I suffered so from pains through the hips that at times I was almost laid up. Liniments and hop applications had little effect on it and I began using various medicines recommended for such troubles. I had little success until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. It was the only remedy that really found the right spot. It banished my troubles in time, and I have had no return of any symptom of kidney complaint since using it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Egg Baking Powder

Saves Eggs, Money, Time, Worry, Health!

Contains White of Egg and Wheat Phosphates

Less eggs are required in the baking because we use eggs in the making of Egg Baking Powder.

That saves money. The acid ingredient of "Egg" is Wheat Phosphates—a food element that is vitally essential to the human body. On account of the extraordinary leavening power of Egg Baking Powder, 1/4 less is required than of the ordinary kinds.

That saves more money. When moisture is added, as in baking, little particles of white of egg form countless cells that hold the gas bubbles in pastry, preventing a disastrous "fall." If necessary to leave the room for a moment, after food is prepared for the oven, you can do it safely.

That saves worry. You can jar the oven as much as you please, without causing the cake, biscuit or pastry to fall.

That saves trouble. And when the baking is done, it is light, wholesome, appetizing, digestible.

That saves health. Ordinary baking powders leave an irritating foreign substance in the baking—either Rochelle Salts or Glaubers Salts, depending on whether the baking powder contained cream of tartar or alum.

The effects of these foreign substances on the digestion is injurious. They cause dyspepsia.

Avoid bad baking powders! Egg Baking Powder is pure, sweet and as nourishing as eggs and wheat.

Your grocer has "Egg." Insist on being supplied with Egg Baking Powder.

Send name and address for free copy of the famous Egg Cook Book.

EGG BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

Egg Baking Powder
Your Grocer Has It
There is Nothing "Just as Good"

A Kilowatt or 1000 Watt Hours of Electricity Will

- Keep your feet warm for five hours.
- Clip five horses.
- Warm your curling tongs every day in the year for 3 minutes and twice on Sunday.
- Warm your shaving water every morning for a month.
- Run a mechanical sieve for two hours.
- Run an electric clock for ten years.
- Light 3000 cigars.
- Supply all the air required by the ordinary church organ for one service.
- Pump 100 gallons of water to a height of 25 feet.
- Run an electric piano for 10 hours.
- Keep four domestic flat irons in use for one hour.
- Boil 9 kettles, each holding two pints of water.
- Cook 15 chops in 15 minutes.
- Run a small ventilating fan for 21 hours.
- Run a sewing machine for 21 hours.
- Wash and wring your clothes for two weeks.
- Keep your coffee pot warm at the breakfast table every day for a week.

We have at our office a meter connected which will prove the above, and will be very glad to connect up an electric sewing machine, flat iron, bread toaster, small water heater or baby milk warmer, and any lamps our consumers or prospective consumers may pick out.

The Licking Light and Power Co

72 East Main Street

If You Want to Buy or Sell Anything Try

ADVOCATE WANT ADS.

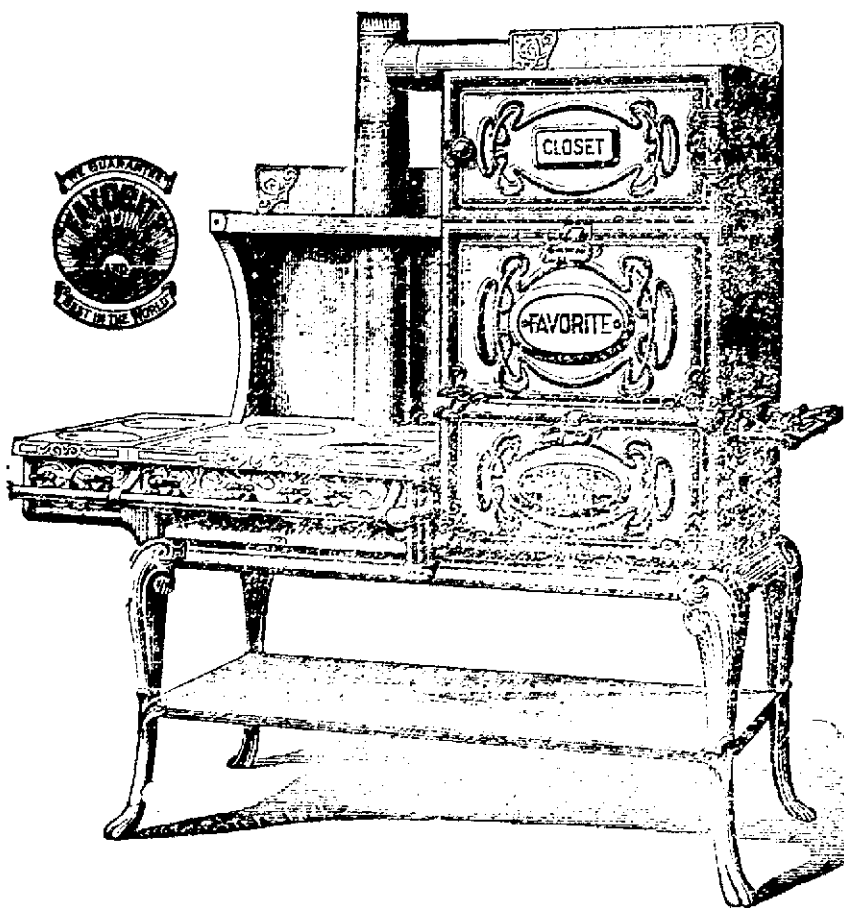

3 LINES 3 TIMES 25 CENTS.

FAVORITE GAS RANGES

Are made with scrupulous care, Of selected material, By the best class of mechanics, In the most complete plant of its kind in the world.

They are durable and operate properly, and are made in the largest variety of styles and sizes, and this is why we sell them as our leading line of Gas Ranges.

There are many cheap, poorly made ranges on the market, but the difference in the price between a good Gas Range and a cheap one the same size and style is not over two or three dollars, which it does not pay to save in buying a Range, as a cheap, poorly made Range is not desirable at any price, and many of them will not operate satisfactorily.

Exclusive sale of this popular line of Ranges and Heaters, and fully guaranteed by

Newark Hardware Company

23 WEST MAIN STREET

RISING BREAST

No woman who uses "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by a dressing application to

MOTHER'S FRIEND
Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain.

PISO'S CURE Coughs Crack the Constitution

25 cts.

A racking cough sometimes the forerunner of consumption. Stop the cough with Piso's Cure before your life is in danger. It goes to the source of the trouble and restores healthy conditions.
Promptly relieves the worst cough or cold, and has permanently cured countless cases of coughs, colds and diseases of the throat and lungs.

COUGHS AND COLDS

PILES

25 cts.

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years.
One year ago last April I began using Piso's Cure for Piles. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to shrink and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. I have since had no more trouble. I am a free man and feel like a new man." George K. Riedel, Napoleon, O.

Best For The Bowels

Cascarets
CANDY CATHARTIC

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent Taste Good Do Good.
Never Sticks. Never Gries. No Side Effects.
Guaranteed to cure your Piles. Try it today.
Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N.Y.

ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

W. E. WIEMER
—FOR—Grain, Seed, Feed Salt,
Hay and Straw
Poultry Feed, Fertilizers

YOUR TRADE SOLICITED
Citizen Phone 4—Bell Phone 682 L
21 East Canal Street

W. E. WIEMER
—FOR—Grain, Seed, Feed Salt,
Hay and Straw
Poultry Feed, Fertilizers

YOUR TRADE SOLICITED
Citizen Phone 4—Bell Phone 682 L
21 East Canal Street

BLOOD POISON

is the worst disease on earth, yet the easiest to cure WHEN YOU DO IT RIGHT. WHAT TO DO Many have pimples, spots on the skin, sores in the mouth, ulcers, falling hair, bone pains, earrings, and don't know what is wrong. Send to DR.
J. V. HILL, 936 Arch street, Philadelphia.
For BROWN'S BLOOD CURE. It will cure you in one month. Sold in Newark only by HALL, the Druggist
10 North Side Square.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
THE BLOOD PURIFIER Lifts out your blood for the kidneys. Cleanses the system. It is the only pills that will cure you of all blood diseases. It will cure you of all blood diseases. It will cure you of all blood diseases. It will cure you of all blood diseases.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

B. & O. R. R.
Innovation

Up-to-date parlor cafe car service installed on trains No. 14 and 15 Daily Between Wheeling and Newark.

Thus again has this company shown a disposition to please.

A la Carte Service.
TRY IT.

J. R. FITZGIBBON,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Prosecuting Attorney of Licking Co.

Will practice in all the Courts. All business promptly and carefully attended to.

Trust Building, Newark, Ohio.

IF YOU WANT A TRUSS
WE FIT YOU
BEFORE YOU PAY FOR IT.

Collins & Son
DRUGGISTS.
87 NORTH THIRD STREET.

FRIDAY'S RACES AT THE BIG COUNTY FAIR

TRACK WAS HEAVY ON ACCOUNT OF THE RAIN WHICH FELL ALL MORNING.

Margaret M. Tumbles and Driver Delano Edwards Breaks His Right Arm.

The rain man was the cause of the races at the Licking county fair not starting on schedule time Friday afternoon. It started raining early and continued until almost noon. The track was heavy and was given a chance to dry out a little by not starting the first race until 2 o'clock.

The first event on the program was the unfinished fifth heat of the 2:24 trot carried over from Thursday. It was won by Lady Lillian owned by V. C. Keller, of this city. This race finished as follows:

2:24 trot, purse $300.—Postponed.
Dr. Wilks, S. A. Drummond
Huntington, W. Va. 1 1 2 4
Angus G. G. A. Grove,
Thornville, Ohio 4 2 2 1 3
Lady Lillian, V. C. Keller
Newark 2 3 5 4 1
Yanko, N. E. Vanatta,
Newark 3 6 6 4 2
Kitty J. J. H. Warne,
Cambridge 1 2 3 3 4
Time 2:25 1-4, 2:27 1-2, 2:27 1-4, 2:27 1-4, 2:28.

The starting judge Friday was James Walker of Coldwater, Mich., and the speed judges were B. M.
Critchfield of Columbus, C. M.
Rowle of Lancaster, and Alex Stillman of Fredericktown. The timers were Charles Cuda, C. W. Miller and Ben B. Jones of this city.

An accident happened in the first heat of the 2:13 pace, but it was unavoidable. The Margaret in making the turn at the three-quarter stretch, slipped and fell, becoming entangled in her harness. The driver, Delano Edwards, was thrown and had his right arm fractured. He was carried to the stable and given medical attention. The horse was uninjured beyond a few scratches.

The following is the summary of the afternoon's races:

2:20 pace—purse $300:
Massie V. H. E. Wade,
Coshocton 1 1 1 1
Pilot Burns, C. E. Slaight,
Sabina 2 2 2 2
Ben Brew, John Dehner
Gahana 3 3 6
Dr. Walker, J. K. Warne,
Cambridge 9 4 3
Myrtle Chillover, Bessie Coast-man, Esther B. Buster B. and Hal McKinley also started, finishing in order named.

Time 2:21, 2:21 1-2, 2:22,
2:27 trot—purse $300.
Altha Boy, J. Ferris, Huntington, W. Va. 1 1 1
Loveland Belle, A. A. Crooks
Zanesville 2 2
Sunland Clay, Seymour Smith
Patsakala, N.Y. 4 6
Czarotta, Amos Stout
Delaware 6 3 2
Judge, C. E. Campbell,
Portsmouth 4 5 4
Ethel J. Perry Rank
Newark 5 6 5
Time 2:30, 2:30, 2:31.
2:13 pace—purse $300:
Kate Dixon, C. L. Smith,
Newark 1 1
Tommy Foster, C. E. Starr
Columbus 2 2
Daisy Elder, S. A. Drummond,
Huntington, W. Va. 3 3
Margaret, Delano Edwards
Galena 4
Time 2:18 1-4, 2:19.

In the 2:13 pace for a purse of $300 there were only four starters, and after The Margaret's accident,
the mare was distanced and Kate Dixon, Tommy Foster and Daisy Elder paced two heats, both being won by Kate Dixon, after which the race was postponed until Saturday afternoon on account of darkness. The time for the two heats was 2:18 1-4 and 2:19.

Following is the program for today:

SATURDAY, OCT. 5.
2:25 Class: pacing: purse $300:
Mark Jr., g. s., by Mark Hanna —Browney D. C. L. Debolt, Center-burg
Jay W., b. g., by Kavanah Star.

SICK HEADACHE Positively cured by these Little Pills.
They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste
in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORMENT LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

CARTER'S LITTLE PILLS.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

Genuine Must Bear
Fac-Simile Signature
W. D. Carter

CARTER'S LITTLE PILLS.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

S. A. Drummond, Huntington, W.
Va.
Robert C. b. g., by Osben. M.
Camp, Lancaster.
Acy, ch. m., by Actyon. M. T.
Lee, Mt. Vernon.
Fannie Strathmore, b. m., by Major Strathmore, Chas. A. Slaight, Sabina.

Lady Raglan, b. m., by Son of Fred Arthur. Henry Wright, Derby.
Max G., blk. g., by Bee. N. E.
Van Atta, Newark.
Barney O'Conner, ch. s., by Banner Bell. H. V. Hardway, Newark.
Maggie M., b. m., by Morgan Mc-Clan. S. A. Drummond, Huntington, W. Va.

Arthur B. b. g., by York Wilkes.
J. M. Hull, Mt. Vernon.
2:20 Class: trotting: purse $300:
Hambro, ch. g., by Boreal —Maud Shuman, R. Clark, Coshocton.
The General, b. g., by Conductor.
B. M. Critchfield, Mt. Vernon.
Stella G. b. m., by Alert. J. S.
McCrar, Newark.
Yanko, b. h., by Moko. N. E.
Van Atta, Newark.
Senator Gray, g. h., by George F.
Putney. H. B. Wade, Coshocton.
Kitty J., g. m., by Romancer.
J. H. Warne, Cambridge.
Oliver Moore, b. h., by Bert Oliver. Conrad & Abel, Marion.
Lady Lillian, b. m., by Lecturne.
V. C. Keller, Newark.
Novina C. ch. m., by Noval Chief Howard Miller, Mansfield.
Milton Strong, b. g., by Milton S.
A. T. Ault, Columbus.

Running: mile heats, 2 in 3;
purse $125.
ITCHING, DISFIGURING, SKIN ERUPTIONS Quickly disappear and the skin is left clear and velvety after using Dr.
Hale's Household Ointment. Clean, pure and wholesome. Contains no poisonous ingredients. Results always gratifying and certain. At the City Drug Store. 25c.

PENNANT

Clinched by the Detroit American League Club.
Washington, Oct. 5.—Washington captured the first game Friday in the double-header with Philadelphia, but the Athletics came back strong and routed the Senators in the second.
Manager Connie Mack of the Philadel-phas says the race is still on. "We have a fighting chance," he said. "It lies in winning both games Saturday and Detroit losing their three games with St. Louis."

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
AT WASHINGTON.—R. H. E.
Washington 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1-2 10 0
Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-8 1
Batteries—Johnson and Kahoe, Plank and Powers and Schreck.
Second Game. R. H. E.
Philadelphia 2 0 2 0 0 0 0 4-8 11 0
Washington 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-6 6
Batteries—Dyregat and Schreck; Hughes and Bankship.
AT NEW YORK.—R. H. E.
Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-1 3 3
New York 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 0-3 6 5
Batteries—Barry and Patterson; Hughes and Blair.

CLUBS W. L. P. C. CLUBS W. L. P. C.
Det. 51 56 .639 N. Y. 70 78 .478
Phila. 86 57 .601 St. L. 67 82 .450
Chica. 86 63 .577 Bos. 58 80 .395
Cleve. 85 66 .560 Wash. 49 100 .239

NATIONAL LEAGUE. R. H. E.
Cincinnati 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1 1 1
Pittsburg 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0-1 5 1
Batteries—Cousley, Hitt and Schlei; Madrox and Gibson.
Second Game. R. H. E.
Pittsburg 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-1 3 3
Cincinnati 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-6 6
Batteries—Willis and Kelsey; Weiner and McLean.
AT PHILADELPHIA.—R. H. E.
New York 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1 7 2
Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1-2 6 2
Batteries—McGuire and Bresnahan; Sparks and Doon.
AT BOSTON.—R. H. E.
Boston 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 2-4 18 9
Brooklyn 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-3 10 3
Batteries—Lindaman and Ball; Rucker and Ritter.
AT ST. LOUIS.—R. H. E.
St. Louis 0 0 0 1 2 2 0 1 0-12 13 3
Chicago 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-1 3 5
Batteries—Feister and Kling; Lush, Raymond and Noonan.

CLUBS W. L. P. C. CLUBS W. L. P. C.
Chica. 106 42 .716 Brook. 65 81 .445
Pitt. 59 51 .533 Cin. 64 85 .399
Phila. 81 64 .559 Bos. 55 91 .377
N. Y. 82 60 .544 St. L. 49 100 .239

Cincinnati Pitcher Dies.
Natick, Mass., Oct. 5.—Marcus T.
Leary, a baseball pitcher connected with the Cincinnati National club, died suddenly here following an operation for appendicitis. Leary was a student at the University of Pennsylvania and played on the baseball team.

FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON

The High school football team left this morning for Mt. Vernon where they will meet the Vernon boys on the gridiron this afternoon. The pigskin chasers of Knox county's hustling capital outweigh the local boys, but the latter are fast and will show the former a few points that they are not wise to.

Accompanying the team were Professors Millister and Carpenter, who will act as officials, and about 30 rooters who will help cheer the boys on to victory.

NEW BOWLING ALLEYS.
The new bowling alleys at Hayes' cigar store will be completed by Monday evening, and will be thrown open to the public on that date. They are new, up to date and first class in every respect.

MELANGE OF SPORT.

All aboard for the fair.
Today will be the last chance for another year.

Last ball game of the season tomorrow at Wehrle park.
It's great sport to write the same amount of numbers on a slip of paper as there are horses in a race, put them in a hat, shake them well, then put up 10, 25 or 50 cents a piece to draw them out. If your number corresponds with that of the winner you take down the pot.

Bill Smink is said to be a joker. A number of the hot ones which Bill handed out at Wehrle this season were certainly jokes, and state ones at that. Bill is also said to be a good singer. Why don't he try for a place with some grand opera company.

Reserve your seat for the game tomorrow. It can be secured at Hayes' cigar store.

The Reds may train at Anniston,
Ala., next spring.

Lillian R. has won 10 out of 11
grand circuit stunts.

O'Day will umpire with Sheridan in the world's championship series.

Barney Oldfield announces he is through with auto racing.

Donovan won six games from the Athletics this season, tied one and lost one.

Bill Edwards, old Princeton star, says the Tigers ought to beat Yale in a walk this year.

Epp and Geyer, Columbus pitchers will finish the season with the new Sandusky team.

Charley Mengel, captain of Yale's swimming and water polo team, will not return to college.

Perhaps the Naps have decided it would be a waste of energy to make any more runs before springing.

Dan Kelly, Pacific coast sprinting wonder, with a mark of 9 3-5 for the 100 yard dash, has arrived at Ann Arbor.

President Charles Morton banqueted his staff of umpires and the newspaper men of Akron the other evening. One of the features of the program was a launch ride on the lake, and the craft became disabled, the occupants being compelled to tear the seats loose and paddle it back to the hotel. A good time was reported.

Umpires Smink and List are spending some time in Pittsburg and Bannon is in Canton, and Hart in Youngstown. Bill Smink will umpire in the Interstate polo league.

The quarter stretch at the fair ground Friday was crowded with people and a number of favorites were backed by the sports.

The attendance at the fair today should be as large as that of yesterday, as the weather is all that could be desired.

The ball game tomorrow promises to be a fine one, and as it is for the benefit of the players will no doubt be liberally patronized.

PLAY AT BLACK HAND.

Patterson's ball team will go to Black Hand tomorrow to play the team at that place. Two games have been played between these teams, each winning one. Tomorrow will be the "rubber" and all those wishing to see a game of ball for blood, take the 2 o'clock car for Black Hand.

IN POLICE COURT.

Police court Saturday morning was a pretty sad affair, for the old mother of F. C. Hiltabedle, farmer, forty years old, living near St. Louisville, on the Martinsburg road. He came to Newark Friday to bring his mother to town, then he got drunk, so drunk that the patrol was called when Chief Sheridan arrested him at 2:30 in the afternoon. During his hearing his mother sat near him and sobbed when the mayor gave him a terrible arraignment. Yet his mother came to his defense and when the mayor wanted to send him to jail she pleaded that she might be allowed to pay his fine and take him back home with her. The matter was settled, and she walked from the court room leaning on his arm.
William Turney of Fredericktown,

Sore Throat Wisdom

If every mother could realize the real danger that lurks behind every case of sore throat, she wouldn't rest until she had effected a cure every time a child has it.

Your family physician will verify the statement that it is a positive fact that every child with sore throat is in immediate danger of contracting Croup, Quinsey, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria, and is not removed from that danger until the throat is cured. Think of it!

Liniments or outward application of medicines do not and cannot cure the ailment, though they may offer temporary relief. Neither can you cure sore throat with a cough syrup or a cold cure.

To cure, you must get at the seat of the disease, removing the cause. Nothing does that so quickly, safely and surely as Tonsiline. A single dose of TONSIL-INE taken upon the first appearance of sore throat may save long weeks of sickness, great expense, worry, even death. TON-SILINE is the stitch in time.

Use a little sore throat wisdom and buy a bottle of TONSILINE today. You may need it tomorrow.

TONSILINE is the standard sore throat remedy—best known and most effective and most useful. Look for the long necked fellow on the 25 or 50 cent sized bottle when you go to the drug store to get it.
The Tonsiline Co. Canton, Ohio.

came down to the fair and filled up with Newark booze. Officer Petrey found him prowling around and arrested him. Fined $5 and costs.

Gilbert Sheridan, a young lad from Johnstown, who said he was no relation to the chief of police, was drunk and disorderly when Officer Hager arrested him at 3:30 Friday afternoon. He drew five and costs for being drunk and $5 extra for being disorderly.

Andy Sucher, Hungarian, was well loaded when Wagonman Brown arrested him at 1:30 Saturday morning. He drew $5 and costs and the stone pile.

Steve Bogardus, also from the distant kingdom of Hungary, was begging and abusing and insulting women, when Wagonman Brooks took him in charge. His case was continued.

Charles Leedale put up a small sized scrap when Patrolman Burke arrested him Friday evening at 8:20, and before he was clubbed into submission he had struck the officer several times and almost entirely destroyed a pair of the officer's trousers. The wagon made a hurry run, and Officer Burke and Wagonman Brown had their hands full taking him to the city prison. He was slated drunk, disorderly and resisting an officer. On the first charge he drew $5 and costs, on the second five, and on the third twenty-five dollars.

NEWARK MOLDERS VS. ALL-STARS OF COLUMBUS

The ball game at the park tomorrow between the Molders remaining in the city and the All-Stars of Columbus will be called at 3 o'clock. If the weather is pleasant there should be a good attendance as the entire receipts will go to the players.

The following well known professionals from Columbus will take part:
Billy Partell, Kip Seibach, Billy
Drury, Billy Pardee, Ivor Wagner,
Ed Justice, J. McAllester, Nel Mason,
Wrigley and Hulswitt. The players will arrive in this city over the interurban at 11:45 o'clock. Two-bit Bierholter will accompany the boys and act as one of the umpires.

MORTON DISMISSES PROTESTS.

President Morton has dismissed the protests filed by Youngstown, Akron and Newark, having issued the official standing for the race just closed.
Youngstown and Akron protested against Red Davis being used by Newark and the Molders club demurred against the games in which Sam Havel played against Berryhill's team.

TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

Grain and provision market furnished by F. B. Sinsbaugh, broker: room 1, 15 1-2 West Main street.

Wheat.
[Open] [High] [Low] [Close]
Dec. 100.7 102.1 100.7 101.6
May 107.1 108.2 107.1 107.7

Corn.
Dec. 58.3 58.6 58.2 58.4
May 59.3 59.5 59.2 59.3

Oats.
Dec. 52.4 52.7 52.4 52.2
May 54.1 55.1 54.1 54.7

Pork.
Oct. 14.07
Jan. 15.27 15.30 15.25 15.27

Provisions—Lard.
Oct. 9.02
Jan. 8.80 8.80 8.97 8.50

LIVE STOCK.
Chicago.
(By wire for the Advocate.)
Chicago, Oct. 5.—Today's cattle:
receipts 300; estimated for Monday 30,000; market steady and unchanged.
Hogs: receipts 7,000; estimated for Monday 33,000; market strong and 5c higher. Light $6 15@80; roughs $5 55@6 10; mixed 55@6 80; heavy $6 10@6 70; pigs 55@6 40.
Sheep and lambs: receipts 1,000; estimated for Monday 45,000; market steady and unchanged.

Pittsburg.
(By wire for the Advocate.)
Pittsburg, Oct. 5.—Today's cattle:
Choice $5 65@5 90; prime $5 35@6 50;
good $4 60@5 10; tidy $3 00@5 50;
fair $2 00@4 25; common to good fat bulls $3 25@4 50; good fresh cows and springers $20@30.
Sheep and lambs: prime wethers $5 60@5 75; good mixed $5 25@5 50; fair mixed $4 50@5 10; culls and common $2 00@3 00; lambs $5 00@7 75;
veal calves $3 00@3 50; heavy and thin $4 50@5 50.
Hogs: Prime heavy $6 90@7 00;
medium and heavy $7 00@7 05; light
Yorkers $7 00@7 05; roughs $5 00@
6 00; stags $4 00@5 00; pigs $6 00@
6 40.

LIVE STOCK STATISTICS.
Columbus, Oct. 5.—The statement of the state auditor, showing the total number of horses, cattle, mules, sheep and hogs in the state, as returned by county auditors was, for the year 1907: 744,119 horses, decrease of 2,351; 1,319,414 cattle, de-

Say It
If your doctor says this is all right, then say it over and over again.

Headaches.
Biliousness.
Constipation.
Ayer's Pills.
Sugar-coated.
Easy to take.
Don't forget.

Orphum Theatre

ADVANCED VAUDEVILLE
ALL NEXT WEEK.

Porter J. White and Company

in a dramatic sketch entitled

THE VISITOR

Matinee daily, 10c., 3 p. m.
Two shows at night, 7:30, 8:45.
Tickets 10c. and 20c. Seats on sale for entire week at box office.

5—OTHER BIG ACTS—5

Matinee daily, 10c., 3 p. m.
Two shows at night, 7:30, 8:45.
Tickets 10c. and 20c. Seats on sale for entire week at box office.

Wonderland Theatre

29 1-2 S. THIRD ST.
TONIGHT,
Illustrated Song.
When the Violets Whispered Marie Moving Pictures,
Chinaman's Visit to London.
First Class Restaurant.
Buck and Wing Dancing a Specialty.
FIVE CENTS.

No Acetanilid in RICK'S CAPUDINE

The Liquid Remedy for all Headaches, Colds and Indigestion. At All Druggists.

DR. J. T. LEWIS, Dentist.

Office 42 1-2 N. Third St. New phone 818. Res. New phone 925 White.
Teeth extracted without pain; gas and vitalized air with oxygen used when desired. Work guaranteed. Office hours 9 to 11 a. m., 12:30 to 5 p. m. Open Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 8; other evenings and Sunday by appointment.

WAYNE COLLIER, LAWYER.

Practices in all courts—state and federal. Special attention given to writing deeds, wills and contracts.
Rooms 10—11 Lansing Bldg.

WOLF

the Clothier

says:

He has new goods arriving daily—no old ones—all new, snappy Suits, Hats and Furnishing Goods.

We are out of the high rent district, just around the corner on West Main Street.

Ask to See Our Men's Suits at $4.98, $7.48, $9.98 and Up

WOLF

The Clothier

20 W. Main St

Money for Coal

Put in your winter's supply while coal is cheap

Let us explain our easy payment plans by which you can get a loan of money privately and quickly on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons or other security without removal from your possession

Our large and old established business enables us to offer up-to-date methods and service at lowest cost on plans that allow the borrowers to get out of debt without feeling the payments, they are so small.

Our Popular Fifty Weeks plan will interest you. $1.20 per week for 50 weeks repays a $50 loan. Other amounts at same proportion.

Our agent is in Newark every Monday and Friday. Send us your name and address on the blanks below and our agent will call and explain everything without any charge unless a loan is made.

Name

Wife's Name

Address

Everything strictly confidential.

STATE LOAN COMPANY

6th Floor Union Nat. Bank Bldg. - Corner High and Spring Sts. Bell 4566. Citizen 8065. COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Don't Wait

Until it takes another advance in price, but put in your coal for the winter NOW! And while you are preparing for your own comfort, prepare for your horse's comfort by filling your barn with our clean, sweet hay.

HAY, STRAW, FEED & COAL QUALITY TELLS PRICE SELLS.

STAGE BROS.

Successors to Wm. Guttridge, 72 POPLAR AVENUE. Both Phones.

COUNTY SALARY LAW

Makes a Good Showing in the County Which Holds Capital.

COUNTY OFFICIALS WANT CHANGE

If the Law Works Well in Franklin County it Ought to be in the Rest of the State—Senator West Proposed For Attorney General—Some of the Measures to be Considered at the Coming Session of the Legislature.

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—How it is working in other counties is not generally known, but the new law placing county officials on a salary instead of the old fee system seems to be working all right in Franklin county. There is reason to believe that if the county salary law works successfully here at the capital of the state it ought to be successful in other counties.

The county salary law went into effect Jan. 1. The quarterly report for Franklin county for the month ending Sept. 30 shows a total of $36,481 in the six offices affected, and total expenses $22,467, leaving a net profit to the county of $14,014. The showing made in Franklin county may be of considerable interest in other counties of the state, the aggregates being as follows: County auditor, total receipts $13,936, salary and clerk hire $4,036; treasurer, total receipts, $10,019, salary and clerk hire $4,061; sheriff, receipts $2,179, salary and clerk hire $3,392; clerk of courts, receipts $2,797, salary and clerk hire $4,411; probate court, receipts $2,832, salary and clerk hire $3,426; recorder, receipts $4,716, expenses not stated. In three offices, the clerk of courts, sheriff's and probate judge's, many court costs have been incurred which remain unpaid, and will not be paid until after the termination of what may be lengthy litigation, as the costs usually are taxed in the end on the losing side. For this reason, earnings of these three offices will be larger in the future, when back costs are collected in addition to the current earnings.

SENATOR WEST.

If a similar showing is made in other counties there will be little if any sentiment in favor of repealing the salary law and returning to the fee system, but it is quite probable the next session will see a vigorous effort for a readjustment of receipts and expenses.

The county salary law is likely to come up the next session in another shape in a movement backed by the county clerks of the state favorable to the enactment of a uniform fee bill. It is claimed that certain additions are necessary in the present schedule of prices, and that without an increase the counties are certain to lose on the salary basis. It might be a dangerous precedent to open up the county salary bill to amendment, for with the bars down something might happen to it that would make it worse instead of better.

Senator Samuel H. West, Republican leader in the senate, is said to be discouraging the talk of taking him up as a candidate next year for attorney general. Sometimes that is a good way to promote that kind of talk. Senator West is not going to resign from the legislature, as was intimated he might do after leaving the service of a cash register company at Dayton.

A memorial tablet at the birthplace of President U. S. Grant was unveiled in the presence of a distinguished gathering. It was the first of three days' celebration of the centennial and home-coming week of Clermont county. A bronze cannon and memorial tablet had been placed on what is believed to be the exact spot where was located the house in which Ulysses S. Grant was born, and about this gathered Governor Andrew L. Harris, Fred D. Grant, and relatives and other relatives and guests. Governor Harris was one of the speakers. General Fred Grant's remarks closed the speaking program. On a metal tablet, which is affixed to the cannon, appears the inscription:

Ulysses Simpson Grant, General United States Army, and twice elected President of the United States, Was born on April 27, of the Year 1822,
In a house located on this spot.

The moral issue in numerous municipal campaigns this year will have a telling effect on county local option when the legislature reassembles in January. Senator Rose's county local option bill is still pending before the senate's committee on temperance, which is understood to be ready to favorably report it soon after the session begins, and a determined effort

WOLF

the Clothier

says:

He has new goods arriving daily—no old ones—all new, snappy Suits, Hats and Furnishing Goods.

We are out of the high rent district, just around the corner on West Main Street.

Ask to See Our Men's Suits at $4.98, $7.48, $9.98 and Up

WOLF

The Clothier

20 W. Main St

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

GUARDIAN

APPOINTED FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING CONSENT TO A MARRIAGE LICENSE.

For Young Man, While Father of the Girl, Also Gives His, in Writing. Court News.

Rachel Morris, an aged lady and grandmother of Pearl Morris, an engineer at the Everett glass factory, this city, 20 years old, in the absence of both parents, was appointed guardian by the Probate court Saturday for the purpose of giving her consent to a marriage license being issued to him. His prospective bride is Nellie Mason, daughter of James B. Mason. She is also a minor, 17 years of age, and her father gave his written consent to the license. Mr. Morris, the groom, is a talented young man, who has accepted a responsible position with the Westinghouse people at Pittsburgh, Pa., and he decided to get married before removing there.

New Church Corporation. Probate Judge Brister Saturday prepared for presentation to the secretary of state the articles of incorporation for the new Woodside Presbyterian church. Following are the incorporators: J. E. Marriott, T. C. Roland, John T. Sopher, F. T. Hickman, D. L. Conrad, Edwin Nichols, Ida M. Hickman and Maria W. Pratt.

Woolen Damage Case. In the case of James G. Woolen vs. William Deardorff, suit to recover $5000 for alleged malicious prosecution, $5000 for false arrest and $50 for alleged illegal search of plaintiff's house, which occupied the attention of the court and jury all week, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. On the second cause of action a verdict for the plaintiff for $50. Saturday morning counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion for a new trial which stated among other things that the verdict was against the evidence, against the law, that the court erred in its charge to the jury. The case grew out of a burglary committed at defendant's house on a Sunday morning in 1905, while the family was at church. Smythe & Smythe for the plaintiff; Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

B. & O. Makes Answer. In the case of Ida May Staugh vs. The B. & O. Railroad company, suit for damages alleged to have been sustained by jumping from a buggy in front of an approaching train, the defendant has filed its answer. It admits that on August 12, 1907, the plaintiff was driving along a road which crosses its railroad, and that the plaintiff drove onto the crossing in front of an approaching train, and jumped from the buggy and suffered some injury. It denies, however, that she was injured to the extent claimed and denies all the allegations made not admitted to be true. Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Plaintiff Files Reply. In the case of the International Fence and Wire Roofing company vs. W. H. Davis & Son, the plaintiff has filed his reply to the second defense in the answer and cross petition of the defendants. It denies that it entered into any contract with the defendants whereby plaintiff agreed to take full charge of the work and labor, and to superintend the construction of the concrete work and wiring in the erection of a building, mentioned in defendants' cross petition. It says that it agreed to and did furnish, a man skilled in concrete work to work subject to and under the direction and instruction of defendants in building the structure. Plaintiff admits that defendant agreed to pay for the services of the man and to pay for the materials furnished, but denies all the other allegations.

In Common Pleas. In the case of Elma Alexander vs. Clara F. Steele et al, being an action to quiet title to a piece of real estate on Canal street this city, a decree was entered by the court, quieting the title as prayed for in the petition of plaintiff, Fitzgibbon.

The case of James Brown vs. Allen DeLong was heard on testimony and submitted to the court. The point for decision arises upon a motion to discharge an attachment before a justice of the peace.

Mary C. Lees Barrows vs. Orville Kiger, et al, an action for damages for the conversion of a certain quantity of walnut timber, involving a dispute as to the line between plaintiff and defendant. Finding for defendant, dismissing petition. Notice given of motion for new trial. Flory & Flory; Norpell & Norpell.

The trial of criminal cases will commence on October 21, Judge Seward will hear the cases on the 21st and 22d, and Judge Wickham will conclude the argument. Judge Seward goes to Delaware on the 23d. Circuit court will be in session the week after next.

Real Estate Transfers. Jacob F. Bane and wife to Clyde Houck, 140 acres in McKean township, $1 and other considerations. Isaac Rudolph Parkinson to Frank H. Parkinson, 46 acres in Etina township, $4600.

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

We are Showing a Splendid Line of Strictly

Tailored Suits

In all Colors and all Sizes.

For $25.00

Be Your Own Financier

The young man who is industrious and saves his money is the one who is sure to accomplish greater things. He is learning the proper use of money and the management of his own finances. An account with the Newark Trust Company will bring you splendid results.

4% interest paid on savings accounts.

The Newark Trust Co

Capital $200,000.00—Surplus $100,000.00.

Suiting The Young Man

The young fellow is the faithful follower of fashion. He is always the first to notice a change and the first to adopt it.

Our smart suits are accepted by young men as interpreting their ideas of style.

Our Fall Suits for these swell young dressers are of smart fabrics and are cut and tailored with all the style that can be worked into a suit.

It's the smaller details that put style into a young man's suit, and they have received careful attention. Our prices are certainly very reasonable.

$10, $12.50, $15 up to $20 or $25

Mr. Young man, if you're after smartness in a Fall Suit here's where you can get what you're looking for. We'll be pleased to show you any day.

The Great Western

CLOTHCRAFT

OHIO LABOR IS AGAINST TAFT FOR PRESIDENT

AND ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS IN-DORSING THE EDITORIAL BY GOMPERS.

Officers Elected by Federation—Murder of Ohio Girl Charged—Other Buckeye News.

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—Michael Goldsmith of Cleveland, for nine years secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor, was defeated for re-election by Harry D. Thomas, also of Cleveland, by a vote of 89 to 69. Goldsmith says he may be a candidate for the office next year. Llewellyn Lewis of Martins Ferry was elected president. James Reynolds, a member of the legislature from Cleveland, was elected delegate to the national convention at Norfolk. It was decided to ask the legislature to enact a law limiting the number of hours a child under 16 may work to eight a day. Dayton was selected as the place for holding the next convention.

Labor Attacks Taft.
Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—The Ohio Federation of Labor unanimously adopted a resolution indorsing the editorial by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, recently printed in the official organ of that organization, attacking the decisions of William H. Taft on the United States circuit bench as hostile to labor interests.

Madman at Large.
Waynesville, O., Oct. 5.—Sheriff Patterson and a posse are hunting for William Satterthwaite, the escaped inmate of the Dayton asylum. Sheridan Evans, the guard who was shot by the crazed man when an attempt was made to capture him at his home near here, is in a precarious condition. The ball struck him full in the breast, passing through the right lung. Evans had caught the fugitive as he fled from the house. After firing the shot Satterthwaite escaped in the darkness.

Charged With Murder of Ohio Girl.
Washington, Oct. 5.—The insular bureau has been informed by cable from Manila that the authorities there have honored the demand of the British officials in Hongkong for the surrender to them under extradition proceedings of Sergeant Adsett, charged with the murder of Gertrude Dayton, an Ohio woman. Adsett formerly was one of the American marine guard at Peking.

Kills Sweetheart and Self.
Toledo, O., Oct. 5.—Because she would not marry him, Gaze Poka, 25, a Hungarian, shot and killed Meri Tulop, 21, at the house of the latter's sister here. Poka then turned the weapon upon himself and inflicted a fatal wound. The girl had a lover in Roumania and was preparing to return there next week to marry him.

Wanted at Canton.
Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—Governor Harris issued a requisition on the governor of Illinois for the extradition of Edward Caniff, wanted at Canton, O., for grand larceny. Caniff is being held under arrest in Chicago, and Deputy Smith of Canton left with the papers to bring him to Canton.

Whitlock For Mayor.
Toledo, O., Oct. 5.—In the city convention the Democrats of Toledo nominated Brand Whitlock, present mayor, for another term. Whitlock has also been nominated by the Independent party.

Adjudged Insane.
Jackson, O., Oct. 5.—Bert Gibson, for several years proprietor of the Gibson house, this city, was adjudged insane and taken to the Athens State hospital.

"Pneumonia's Deadly Work"
Had so seriously affected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor of Rural Route 1, Georgetown, Tenn. that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs. When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the real cure. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall, druggist. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

The latest and best he's at Hermann, the clothier. 4d2t

BOUGHT FREEDOM

From Her Husband and With Her Babe and Lover Left City of Cambridge.

Zanesville, O., Oct. 5.—Julia Kulkia, of Cambridge, bought her freedom from her husband for $6, she says, and Friday with her babe, came to this city with John Maceon, her lover.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Kulkia and Maceon came to this city, but were arrested on complaint of her husband who charged that she had taken $95 of his money. However, the woman paid $6 to Kulkia and with her babe and Maceon proceeded last night to New Lexington.

TRY THE WATER

Splendid Home Remedy for Stomach and Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism.

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well-known authority. "The numerous cases of stomach trouble, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the 'rinking of water, nature's greatest medicine, has been neglected."

Stop loading your system with patent medicines and cure-alls; but get on the water-wagon. If you are really sick, why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach.

When requested for such a prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney trouble the answer was: "You must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder, and, most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions I would suggest the following prescription, which is composed of only vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy. Any one can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. To be taken in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often." This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, backache or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

IN THE FALL OF THE YEAR.

When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock; when you bolt your food at mealtime, with your eyes upon the clock; you hardly recognize your wife an old towel on her head, who with a carpet beater drives the children to the shed. The house from top to bottom is no place to call a home, and you wish that for a week or so far distant you could roam. But when the spell is broken and housecleaning time is o'er, you find the old home looking bright and cheery as before. The furniture while familiar looks somehow bright and new, even your own old arm chair shines and glistens too. And you marvel and wonder till you hear your wife explain of the many hundred uses for our famous Spartan Stain. Made by the Marietta Paint and Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by the Newark Paint Co., 31 West Church street.

Fortune Ranges at Kellers.

GRANT FERGUSON

Writes Letter of Appreciation to the Advocate—Speed and Stover in Prison 13 Months.

The Advocate is just in receipt of the following letter from Grant Ferguson, formerly of Newark, now living at Aguascalientes, Mex. The letter is dated September 30, and reads: The Advocate of September 7, containing news of the release of Speed and Stover received, and in reply I want to thank you in behalf of Messrs. Stover and Speed, and also for myself for what you have done for us. Speed and Stover were released from prison September 4, by order of the Mexican government, after being incarcerated 13 months and 13 days. Speed immediately left for his home in Ft. Worth, Tex. Stover remained in Mexico, and has been visiting in Aguascalientes for the past week. We certainly made a good job of it while we were at it. Judge Luis G. Gomez of Alliguenes, has been removed from office, and all of his officials, together with the Jefe Politico and all of his officials. The court has been moved from Alliguenes to Cardenas by order of the Mexican government, and Alliguenes is now off the map.

I am certainly happy over the final outcome to the two cases. When I received the news of the release of the two prisoners, September 4, I was well repaid for the time, work and money I had spent in their behalf. I certainly got results to show for it. I have done my duty to my fellowmen and to my countrymen.

Thanking you again for your assistance in these cases, I am Yours truly,
GRANT FERGUSON.

Readers of this paper will remember that Speed and Stover, American railway conductors, were arrested in Mexico for the murder of a Mexican. One of the two men arrested was not present when the Mexican was killed, and abundant evidence was secured by Ferguson to show that the man who was killed was the aggressor and that the American acted in self defense. Stover and Speed were thrown into prison, convicted without trial and they remained in prison 13 months before released.

COSHOCTON GIRL TELLS STORY THAT IS NOT BELIEVED

Coshocton, Oct. 5.—Helen Lyons, who has been missing for eight days, returned home Friday night, being brought here from Columbus by her brothers, where she says, she was in the St. Francis Hospital, and had three small bones removed from her arm, which has given her trouble for several months. She sticks to her story, but a phone message to the hospital brings a response that she authorities never heard of her or her case.

A Coshocton man who refuses to divulge his name, swears he saw Helen Lyons playing a piano in Zanesville last Tuesday night. The mystery deepens.

Hawes, Beacon and National, three of our leading hats at $2.00. Hermann, the clothier. 4d2t Lost, an opportunity to purchase fine property, by not reading the want ads on page 3.

CHEAPEST FUEL ON MARKET.

In order to clear our yards we are selling first class hickory firewood at $1.50 per load delivered, cash on delivery.

THE BUCKEYE HARDWOOD CO.,
41 Manning street.
Old phone 168. New phone 299. 13tf

Henry W. Furniss

Hon. Henry W. Furniss, minister plenipotentiary from the United States to Haiti since November 23, 1905, was born at Brooklyn, N. Y., about 39 years ago, but his home has been in Indianapolis for the past 30 years, where he was educated in the grammar and high schools. He studied medicine, and from 1895 until 1896 was a surgeon in Freedman's hospital in Washington, D. C. He then returned to his home in Indianapolis. In 1889 he entered the census office at Washington and made schedules of financial transactions, bonded and other indebtedness, state and national, and summarized the laws relating to these intricate fiscal affairs. He was made consul at Bahia, Brazil, on January 14, 1898, where he remained until given his present post in Haiti.

Anarchists Flee Down.

Odesa, Oct. 5.—A strong detachment of police, mostly in plain clothes, had a desperate fight with a large band of anarchists, resulting in the capture of 53 of the outlaws. The police having obtained information that the anarchists were holding a meeting in a certain house, took steps to surround it and were preparing to break into the building, when the anarchists discovered their presence and opened fire on them, killing the assistant chief of the local police and wounding several plain clothes men. The police then made a rush for the building and a fierce hand-to-hand fight followed, during which a woman was killed and two men were mortally wounded, and nearly all the anarchists captured.

Toned Him Down.

"Isn't young Dashleigh a pretty swift young man?"
"Not since he had to pay fifty and costs for speeding."—Puck.

More Nature Fakes.

"Oh, sire, I heard a rooster crow! 'Twas 'Cock-a-doodle doo!'"
"I'm very sure that was a lie; The story can't be true."

"Oh, sire, I heard a pussy cat! The creature said 'Meow!'"
"You do not know the heart of things; I know that isn't how."

"Oh, sire, I heard a brindle cow! The critter hollered 'Moo!'"
"That cannot be—impossible; You are a liar too."

"Oh, sire, I heard a yellow dog remarking 'Bow-wow-wow!'"
"I've slain my thousands, and you lie; I tell you so right now."

—McLanburgh Wilson in Judge.

CATARH CANNOT BE CURED.

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHERRY & CO., Props., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Hats

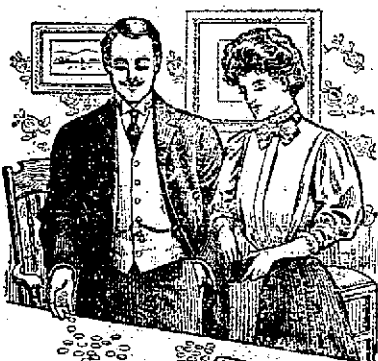

Fall and Winter Styles

Our Fall styles are ready, and include an unusually large number of original designs and exclusive novelties. Soft Felts, Derbies, Silks and Operas.

Grades and qualities to suit any and every one.

Dunlap Agency

The King Co

The Little Things That Count

Are the pennies. The nickles and dimes that most people don't count in their expenditures are the ones that waste the dollar.
Place your dollars with us for safe keeping and accumulation of interest.

We furnish small steel banks for savings depositors without extra cost.

Licking County Bank & Trust Co.

$25 REWARD

DR. COCHRANE.

Painless extracting free with other work.

DR. COCHRANE'S New System Dental Parlors

At the Sign of the Gold Tooth, 12 1-2 N. Park Place, Newark, O.
First Stairway East of Interurban Station.
Open evenings and Sundays Home Phone 252.

A Snap

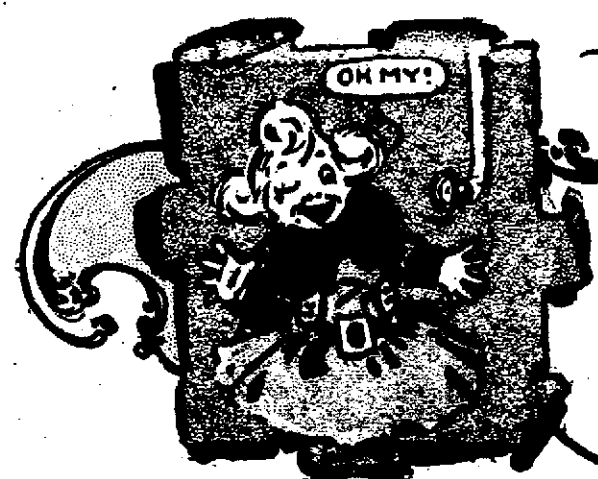

For Furnishing Goods and Hat Buyers. We are going to close out this department. All new goods and WILL BE SOLD AT COST AND LESS

$2.00 Shirts for	$1.50	$1 Night Robes	75c
$1.50 Shirts for	$1.00	$1.50 Night Robes	$1.00
$1.00 Shirts for	75c	$3.00 Hats	$2.00
50c. Shirts for	38c	$2.50 Hats	$1.75
50c. Hose, 38c., 2 prs for	75c	$2.00 Hats	$1.50
25c. Hose 19c., 3 prs for	50c	$1.50 Hats	$1.00
15c. Hose 10c., 3 prs for	25c	50c. Shirts and Drawers ..	38c
15c. Collars 10c., 3 prs for	25c	75c. a suit.
25c. Cuffs 10c., 3 prs for	50c	$1.00 Shirts and Drawers, 75c
10c. Hdks., 4 for	25c	$1.50 a suit.
25c. Hdks., 19c., 3 for ..	50c	$2.00 Shirts and Drawers, $1.50
		$3.00 a suit.

We must have this room for our rapidly growing jewelry business. SALE NOW ON.

ED. DOE

READ ADVOCATE WANT ADS

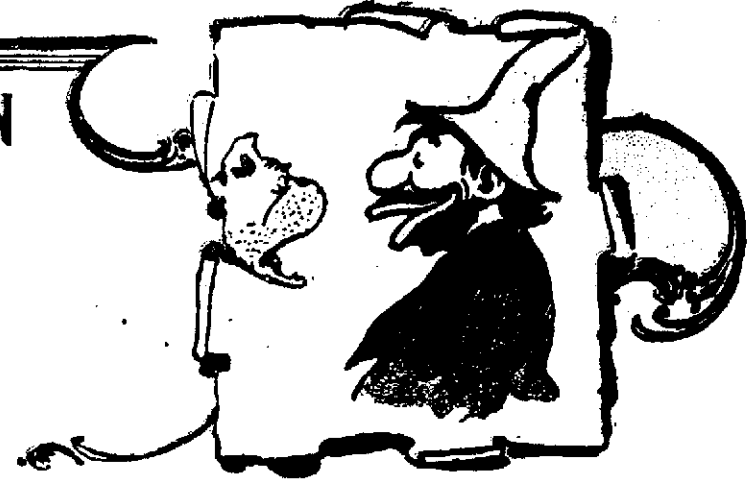

30.

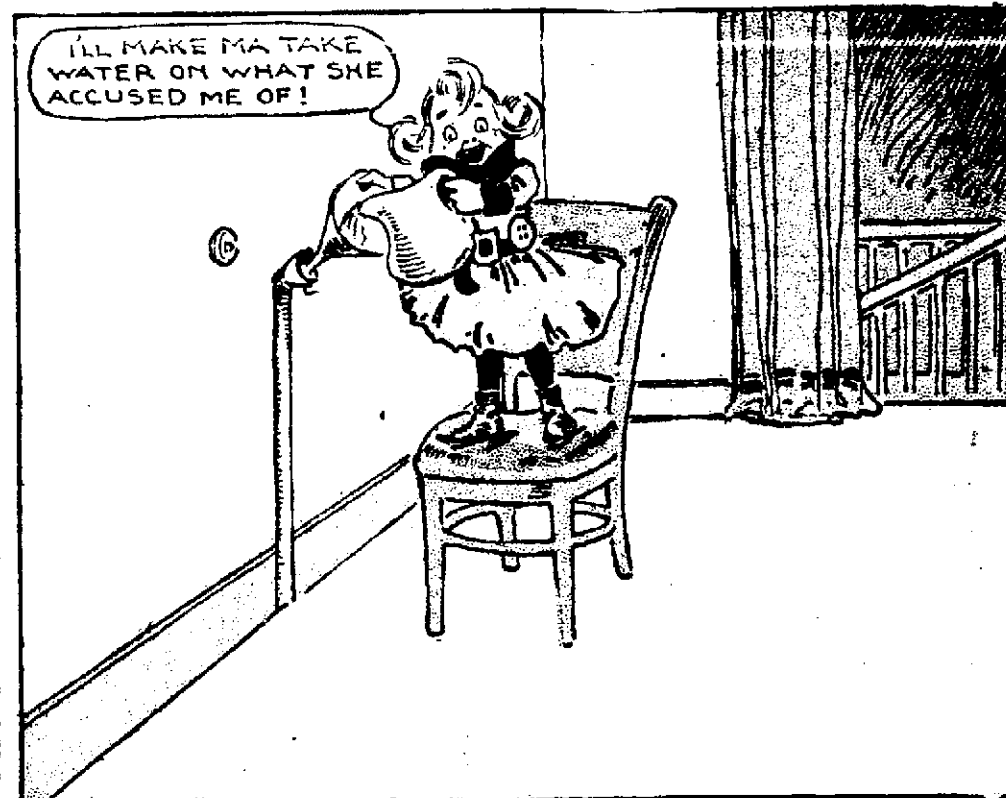

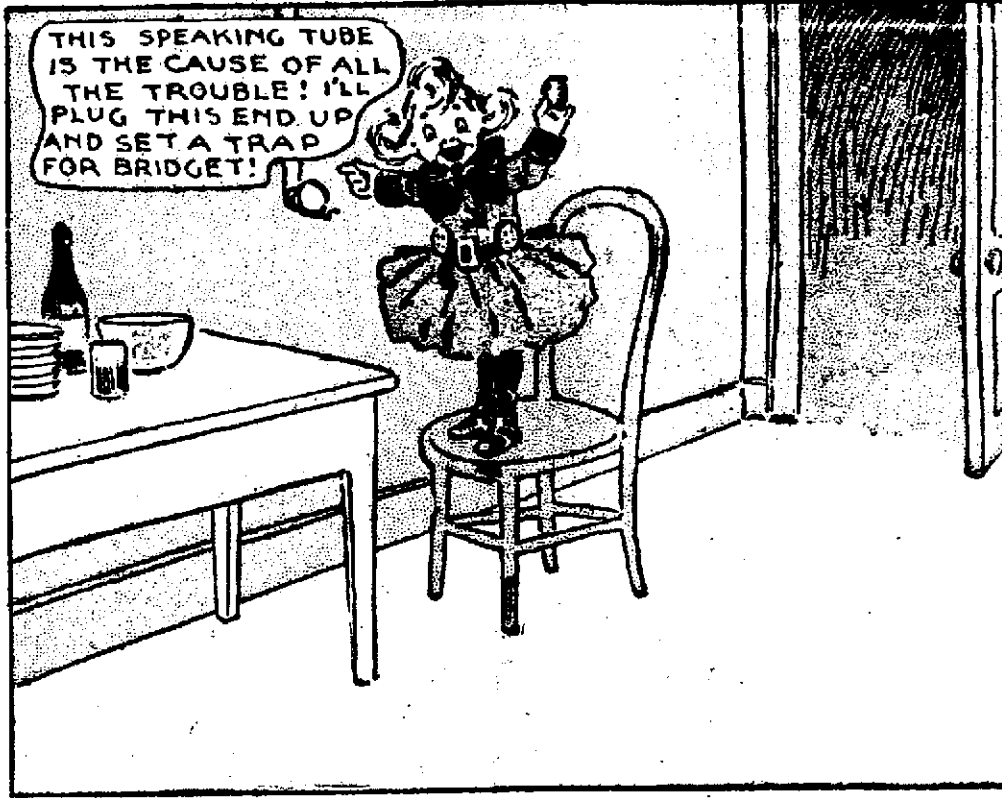

THE NEWARK ADVOCATE

Saturday Evening, October 5, 1907

MAGAZINE SECTION

WILLIE CUTE EXONERATES HIMSELF

BRAINY BOWERS SETS A TRAP FOR HIS ENEMY

THE WORLD'S BEST SHORT FICTION

THE GIRL AT DUKE'S-By James Weber Linn

Duke's slept in the hot sun. Who was Duke? what was he, where did he come from, where did he go—the scion of a noble house, or some intimate humble citizen of the plains? Nobody knows; his memory is shrouded in the mists of antiquity which wrap the early legends. The railroad, tolling over the ruddy desert, crosses a little empty run, with a few seasons holds water from heaven knows where, and at the crossing stands, or crouches, Duke's. Rose-red hills, clasping in their jealous hearts the secret of fertility some day to be delivered up at the touch of the Genius—rose-red, sun-smitten, dusty, restless, grassless, waterless, hills roll and roll endlessly away from Duke's, lonely and bare as in the ages before history began; bisected by the two gleaming steel rails, seeming a human somehow, savage as the cacti, and as more a part of civilization than the flickering, quivering sun-devils are which dance hour after hour above them to the monotonous fiddling of Phaeton in his fiery chariot. Duke's is a tank, a platform, a little wooden shanty, and a name. Passengers upon the observation-cars of the Limited behold it, and in utter idleness watch its oblong diminish over the flat miles; suddenly the train whips round the shoulder of a hill, and Duke's is gone forever from their memory.

When had such a passenger been known to descend at Duke's? And yet, one afternoon of a day late in April, one did descend. The person who got off upon that little oasis of station platform was a girl. She had left the spring behind her piecing out its mosaic of showers and sunshine, with birds singing and mating, and had traveled two thousand miles to reach this forsaken spot in the land of burning summer. The conductor, as he helped her from the step, looked at her doubtfully; the porter, who followed with her handbag, looked at Duke's disdainfully; and the passengers in the "tourist" looked wonderingly at all three.

"Well, you folks ain't here," said the conductor.

"Who did you expect, lady?" asked the porter.

She replied shyly to both. She was a girl of twenty, perhaps; of a pretty timidity; plainly not one who was accustomed to find for herself. "It is my uncle. He knows that I am coming."

"I suppose it's all right," meditated the conductor, "but I'd be easier in my mind if I saw him waiting for you. Some men got no sense of punctuality. And if I was looking for the jumping-off place, I certainly wouldn't go a step farther."

"Lonely place to leave a lady in, for suah," assented the porter.

"Well, if you're easy in your mind, I guess we'll have to be pulling out," observed the conductor. "You're sure you won't come on to Wheeler?"

"No, sir, I think I'd better not."

They left her reluctantly. The porter tossed his carpet-covered stool to the platform, and swung aloft, waving his hand encouragingly. She watched the train forsooth itself to a square in the distance until the hill shut it out. Its last, least humming died away. Instantly primeval silence and desolation reassured themselves.

She looked about her, and saw her trunk, some rods from her. Further off, the line of drying green showed where the creek had been. A lizard ran along the edge of the platform, and perceiving her, made an odd little noise in its throat, like the snapping of a match-box. Otherwise, there was no sign of life anywhere. Half an hour passed; an hour. Her uncle was long in coming! The shade of the tiny station shifted lazily over the hot boards. She made an effort to draw her trunk within it, for she was tired of standing, but though she flushed and panted in her endeavor, she was unsuccessful. Another half-hour passed. Her eyes were weary with gazing across the glowing slopes, and her brain ached with waiting. Off in the distance a bird lazily sailed, and she followed its flight aimlessly. A red rock loomed upon a hill, a rock of sandstone carved and machicolated by the centuries, confronted her, and she stared at it till presently it glared and blurred, for she was crying. She stepped from the edge of the platform; at once her foot sank to the ankle in the soft, fine dust, which followed in a little jet as she drew back. She could not travel far that way; besides, she was quite ignorant of the road. "Come to Duke's," her uncle had written, "and I will meet you there." That was a month ago, after her mother died. Then she came promptly, her warm heart stirring with affection for the uncle whose hospitality asked no questions; he had sent her the money for the journey, and she was here. It was incomprehensible, terrible, that he should fail her now. Should she go back? To whom—and how? Her questions mocked her.

As she stood there forlornly, a musical note reached her ear, and another, and another, shaping themselves into a fragment of a song which had been popular in New York years before. From behind the thrust of a hill rode a young man, sitting on a dusty sorrel pony, and singing as he rode. At the sight of him the girl's heart leaped, and then sank again; for she saw that he was plainly bent on errands of his own. He did not glance in her direction. To call to him, without knowing what sort of a man he might be, seemed dreadful; and yet not so dreadful as to let him go and be left again to solitude. He crossed the space between the two hills, the dust spouting and floating around him, while she sought to make up her mind. He was disappearing, when she gave a low cry— involuntary, it seemed, and so low that he must have had sharp ears to hear it at his distance. Hear it he did, turned, saw her standing there, and flicking the sorrel with his quirt, contended toward her rapidly. Instinctively she shrank a little, though she had called to him.

"You were not sent to meet me?" she faltered.

"No, Miss; he said respectfully.

"My name is Dudley—Miss Dorothy Dudley. I—I expected some one to meet me here."

He waited in silence. He had removed his wide, corded hat, and she saw that his hair was brown, and his face tanned, almost black; even his eyelids were tanned, and the blue of his eyes was in sharp contrast to them.

"It was my uncle," the girl went on eagerly. A sudden fear seized her, and she cried: "He was to meet me. Duke's. This is Duke's, isn't it?"

"This city? Yes, ma'am."

She looked at him hopelessly, and the tears, which she had restrained, stood in her eyes once more.

"Maybe," he said gently, "if you was to tell me your uncle's name, Miss, I might know him. I know a good many round here."

"Gage—Mr. Henry F. Gage. His ranch is the Bar K."

The young fellow gave a slight start. "Gage—the Bar K?" he repeated. "Why, Miss—?" He broke off. She ventured to look at him again; and her shy, quick glance noted the clear line of his forehead, the clean, firm line of his jaw, the little upward curving of his lips; and her girl's heart told her she was not wholly a piece of time, and need not be afraid. She had time to wonder who he was, and on what errand he had been bound, before he spoke again. Yet his pause was scarcely perceptible.

"I reckon I'm in some luck; yes, I reckon I am. You wanted Mr. Gage, of the Bar K? That's where I hang out, Miss."

"You live there?"

He nodded. "Foreman," he said pleasantly.

"I am so glad." She had not known how her nerves were strained until the relief came. "Duke's? Do you take me there? Is it far? Do you know why my uncle didn't come to meet me?"

A strange expression, untranslatable to the girl, hovered upon his face.

"You say you were expecting him? You wrote to Wheeler, didn't you? That's where we get our mail. Wheeler's about forty miles on. I reckon your letter's there now; we've not been in—not for ten days."

"And suppose you hadn't come along?"

"I guess maybe that was arranged. I don't guess about the sort of lady that hard luck is wantin' to meet." He paused.

"Your uncle, Mr. Gage—he's not at the ranch just now," he added.

"Not at the ranch?" she said after him.

"Yesterday was a week," he calculated. "That he went."

"But what shall I do?" she cried. She told him, hurriedly, all that she could of her affairs; she was glad to explain her strange presence there. She was as unsuspicious of him as a child, he could see.

"Well, Miss," he answered, "I don't know. You see, of course, you could go on to Wheeler, or back to Winslow, and wait there till you hear from him; but there's no train till to-morrow, now."

"But how could I wait here till then?"

"And I reckon you're hungry, too," he said thoughtfully. "I could tote you right out to the Bar K on Pete—he's a kitten when I give him the say-so, but—"

"But you would have to walk!" she finished disappointedly.

"I hope you weren't thinking I was caring about that?" He saw her answer in her look, and it seemed to decide him. "Come," he said; and though as soon as he had decided, she hung back, hesitating, suddenly he put his two hands beneath her elbows, and lifted her lightly into the saddle, in which she sat sideways, as if it had been a chair. In front it had a great horn, or pommel, and the rear curved slightly up, unlike any saddle the girl had ever seen. Obviously she steadied herself with one hand upon the pommel; her brown skirts fluttered against the sorrel pony's side, and the animal looked round nervously, but the young man patted his nose, soothing him.

"There, be good," he said. "Do you want to lose your good luck, you Peje? I am expectin' you to behave."

He slipped the bridle over the pony's head.

"Come on, quit your joking, horse; come on now." After a moment the sorrel followed quietly. They set forward into the desert, the man trudging at the pony's head, and the girl her little feet rising and falling with the pony's breathing, her right arm about the saddle-horn, and her brown eyes roaming over the hot, dry wastes, but always turning to fasten themselves upon the unbrooded back of her guide.

The sun brooded and burned above them, but she was gay in the relief from her loneliness. She asked him his name, and why he had come into this part of the country; she asked him a hundred questions of her uncle, and the Bar K ranch; but the more she questioned him, the more she grew his tone, the briefer his replies; until she began to wonder, and to remember again the wide desolate spaces about them, and her ignorance of her conductor and her destination. Fear crept into her heart again, and stilled her; until, noticing her silence, he turned round, and she hardly knew why, she was reassured. She thought how fine the life must be which made men so strong and yet so lightly thinking, and she wondered what he was thinking of, and she wondered the more she brushed the red dust from her skirts with her free hand. The heat made her sleepy. She did not know how long they had been traveling when, at the summit of a slope, he turned and said: "There's the Bar K, Miss."

"Oh—"

Imagine, set in the midst of masses of crusted rose-pink topaz and chrysolite, a single great emerald, like a seal, and dangling down from it, a narrow, silken ribbon of the intensest green. Thus you may conceive what the landscape was like.

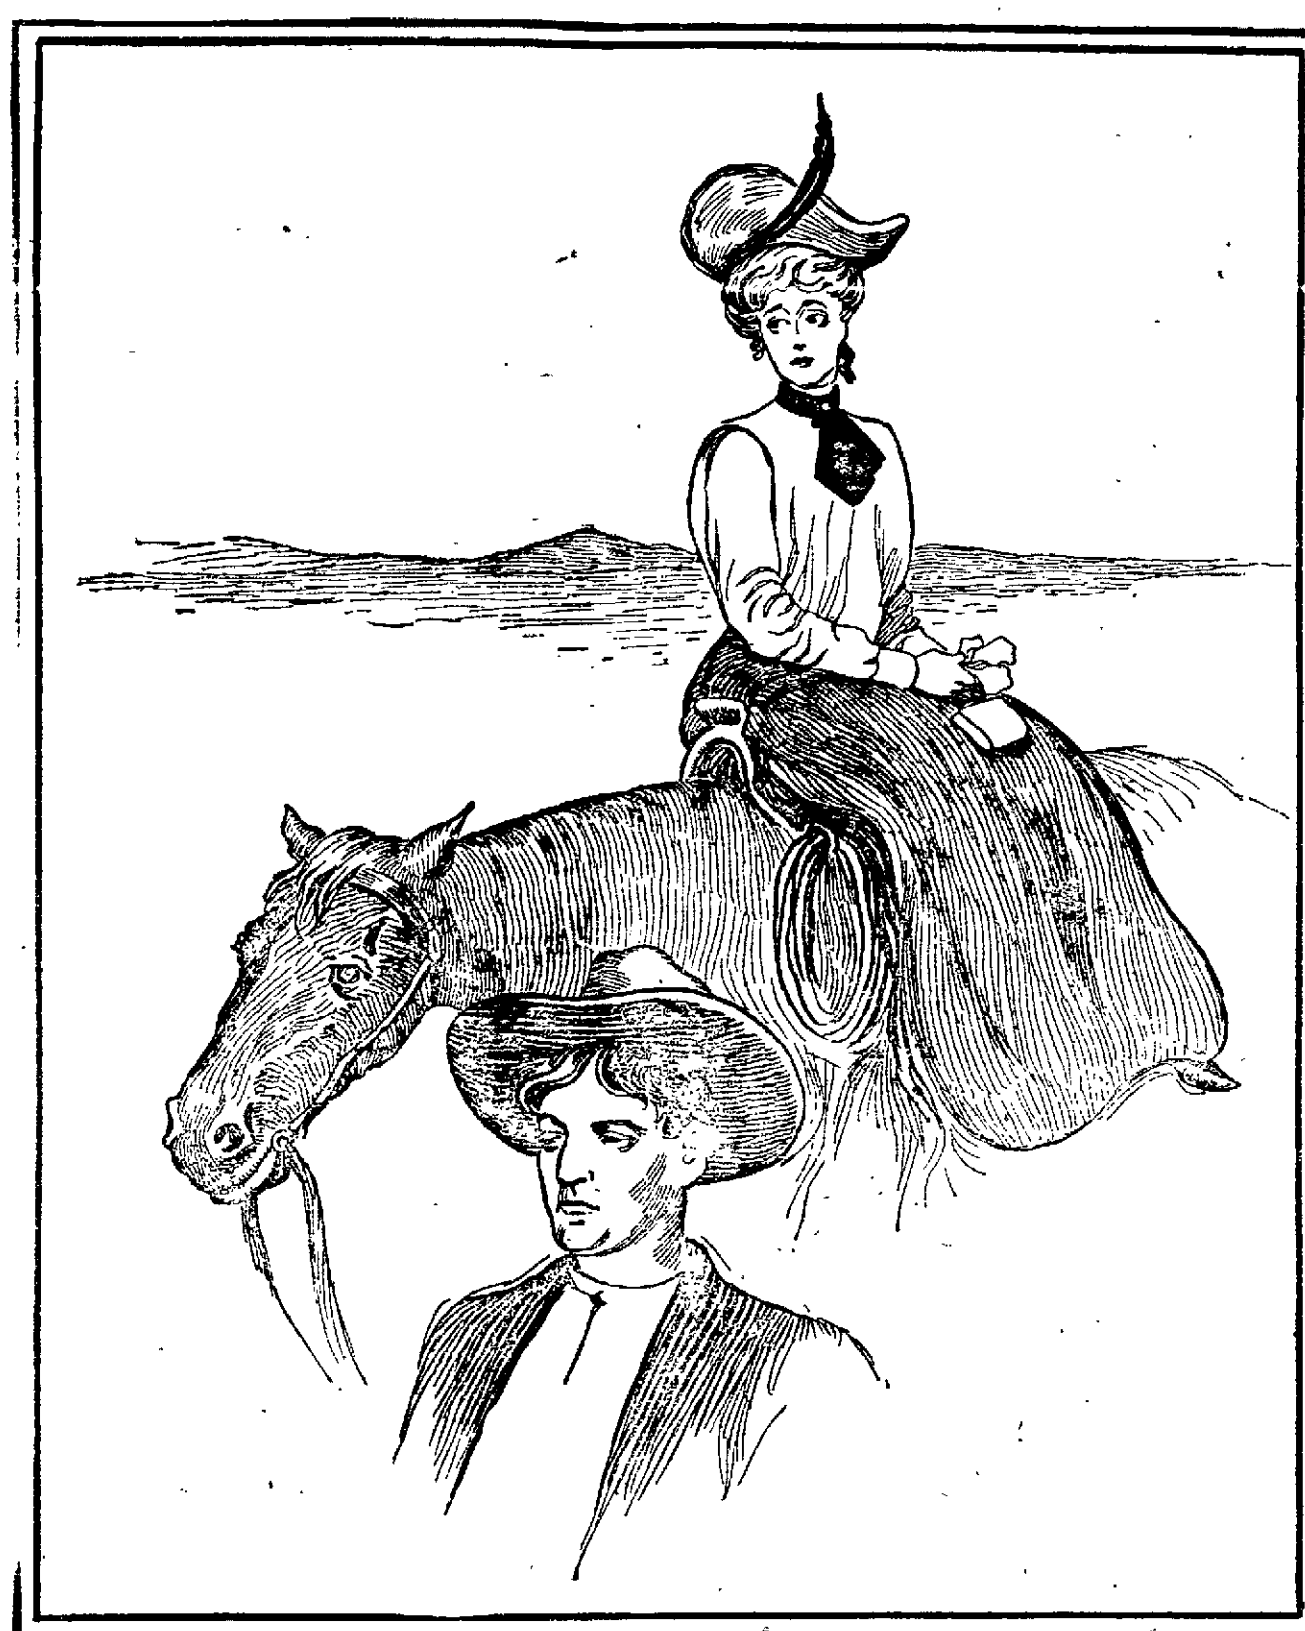

The girl's exclamation from the girl's lips, and then she saw that the ranch was still a mile away, but in that thin clear air it showed as if it lay at their very feet. Up to their ears came the thin bark of a dog, and the faint, soft sigh of puffing steam. A capful of vapor floated lazily through the trees, and a throb, throb, which the distance robbed of its harshness, proclaimed the working of an engine.

"What is that?" she asked.

"That's the well, Miss, that irrigates the soil. All the soil round here is dry. If you could only get water to it, your uncle happened to find the water, just here."

"Is that all my uncle's? I don't see how he could go away and leave it—it's so beautiful. How soon do you think he will be back?"

The man failed to answer her, relapsing again into the moody silence from which she drawn him. And as they approached the place, her timidity rose once more, with the knowledge that she had offended him somehow, though in what way she did not know. They had almost reached the buildings, in the midst of which towered the reservoir, and he coughed the engine, like a patron saint hoarse with many benedictions, which she ventured to say, half under her breath.

"They set forward into the desert."

"I hope you won't forget to let me see you again, to thank you for bringing me here. You know I'm very much obliged to you; I don't know what I could have done without you."

"Are you, Miss?"

"I don't know what I could have done without you," she repeated hurriedly, something in his tone seeming to make his quick remark.

He bowed gravely, took her hand in his, and helped her to the ground. For an instant he continued to hold her, his eyes searching her face. Her heart beat fast; but he said only:

"You know I'd be mighty glad to be of service to you." Then he released her, and they walked in silence up the little path which led to the door.

As they did so a man came round the corner of the low building and confronted them.

"Why, where are—?" he began; then seeing the girl, he left off speaking with his mouth still open, and utter surprise written in his face. But he recovered himself quickly.

"Why, Bill, up to your old tricks, hey?" he said softly. "Like to meet your friend, if it's convenient, I would." The young man made no answer; she quickened her step, and they left him standing, with an evil smile upon his lips, staring after them.

She could feel his sensual look upon her, as she unconsciously walked closer to her guide; it followed her, piercing, enfolding, defiling her in spite of herself. The fear which had been partly forgotten sprang up in her heart again. Was this truly the Bar K ranch, or—? She could not finish the thought, even to herself, as she realized her own helplessness, her remoteness from all that she knew of civilization.

"This is your uncle's shack, Miss; I reckon you'd better keep it for to-night, anyway," he said; but with that other man so near her, his voice had lost its power to reassure.

"Yes," he answered nervously. "Can you—can you send a woman here, please?"

He shook his head. "There ain't a woman on the place, Miss. I'm sorry."

Over his shoulder she caught the eyes of the other man, still turned steadfastly upon her. She knew that he was growing pale, but she tried to say bravely:

"Never mind; I—I shall not need one, I think." Then, as he left her, she shut the door fast, she meant to lock it, but there was no key, and she could only press a chair against it. She grew weak and sick as she stood there, straining her ears to hear the conversation that should pass outside. Her heart fluttered; her hands grew cold; in a wild thought of escape, she looked about the room, to see whether she might fly. Mistily she saw the big bare oblong of it, the table with its red cloth, the deer's heads above the windows, the coyote skins upon the floor; and then her eye caught the two narrow book-shelves upon the opposite wall, and hardly knowing what she did, she crossed to them, and took down a volume at random. She meant to open it, to look at the fly-leaf, but her fingers refused to obey her. When she had them under her control, she looked quickly. A name was written lines wavered and trembled, then settled in a signature she knew. Henry F. Gage! She had reached her destination. She sank into a chair, not knowing whether she wished to laugh or cry. This was the Bar K! Lonely she was still, but no longer afraid. She had done right to trust the man who had been good to her.

While she sat there, trying to force herself to realize where she was, a silent, soft-padded Chinaman entered, and began to set the table for her supper. She watched him curiously, and saw that he provided only one place. She was to eat alone, then. She spoke to him, conquering her aversion with an effort, and he bowed solemnly, the tips of his fingers upon his breast, but he made no attempt to answer her.

He bowed gravely, took her hand in his, and helped her to the ground. For an instant he continued to hold her, his eyes searching her face. Her heart beat fast; but he said only:

"You know I'd be mighty glad to be of service to you." Then he released her, and they walked in silence up the little path which led to the door.

As they did so a man came round the corner of the low building and confronted them.

"Why, where are—?" he began; then seeing the girl, he left off speaking with his mouth still open, and utter surprise written in his face. But he recovered himself quickly.

"Why, Bill, up to your old tricks, hey?" he said softly. "Like to meet your friend, if it's convenient, I would." The young man made no answer; she quickened her step, and they left him standing, with an evil smile upon his lips, staring after them.

She could feel his sensual look upon her, as she unconsciously walked closer to her guide; it followed her, piercing, enfolding, defiling her in spite of herself. The fear which had been partly forgotten sprang up in her heart again. Was this truly the Bar K ranch, or—? She could not finish the thought, even to herself, as she realized her own helplessness, her remoteness from all that she knew of civilization.

"This is your uncle's shack, Miss; I reckon you'd better keep it for to-night, anyway," he said; but with that other man so near her, his voice had lost its power to reassure.

"Yes," he answered nervously. "Can you—can you send a woman here, please?"

He shook his head. "There ain't a woman on the place, Miss. I'm sorry."

Over his shoulder she caught the eyes of the other man, still turned steadfastly upon her. She knew that he was growing pale, but she tried to say bravely:

"Never mind; I—I shall not need one, I think." Then, as he left her, she shut the door fast, she meant to lock it, but there was no key, and she could only press a chair against it. She grew weak and sick as she stood there, straining her ears to hear the conversation that should pass outside. Her heart fluttered; her hands grew cold; in a wild thought of escape, she looked about the room, to see whether she might fly. Mistily she saw the big bare oblong of it, the table with its red cloth, the deer's heads above the windows, the coyote skins upon the floor; and then her eye caught the two narrow book-shelves upon the opposite wall, and hardly knowing what she did, she crossed to them, and took down a volume at random. She meant to open it, to look at the fly-leaf, but her fingers refused to obey her. When she had them under her control, she looked quickly. A name was written lines wavered and trembled, then settled in a signature she knew. Henry F. Gage! She had reached her destination. She sank into a chair, not knowing whether she wished to laugh or cry. This was the Bar K! Lonely she was still, but no longer afraid. She had done right to trust the man who had been good to her.

While she sat there, trying to force herself to realize where she was, a silent, soft-padded Chinaman entered, and began to set the table for her supper. She watched him curiously, and saw that he provided only one place. She was to eat alone, then. She spoke to him, conquering her aversion with an effort, and he bowed solemnly, the tips of his fingers upon his breast, but he made no attempt to answer her.

He bowed gravely, took her hand in his, and helped her to the ground. For an instant he continued to hold her, his eyes searching her face. Her heart beat fast; but he said only:

"You know I'd be mighty glad to be of service to you." Then he released her, and they walked in silence up the little path which led to the door.

As they did so a man came round the corner of the low building and confronted them.

"Why, where are—?" he began; then seeing the girl, he left off speaking with his mouth still open, and utter surprise written in his face. But he recovered himself quickly.

"Why, Bill, up to your old tricks, hey?" he said softly. "Like to meet your friend, if it's convenient, I would." The young man made no answer; she quickened her step, and they left him standing, with an evil smile upon his lips, staring after them.

She could feel his sensual look upon her, as she unconsciously walked closer to her guide; it followed her, piercing, enfolding, defiling her in spite of herself. The fear which had been partly forgotten sprang up in her heart again. Was this truly the Bar K ranch, or—? She could not finish the thought, even to herself, as she realized her own helplessness, her remoteness from all that she knew of civilization.

"This is your uncle's shack, Miss; I reckon you'd better keep it for to-night, anyway," he said; but with that other man so near her, his voice had lost its power to reassure.

"Yes," he answered nervously. "Can you—can you send a woman here, please?"

He shook his head. "There ain't a woman on the place, Miss. I'm sorry."

Over his shoulder she caught the eyes of the other man, still turned steadfastly upon her. She knew that he was growing pale, but she tried to say bravely:

"Never mind; I—I shall not need one, I think." Then, as he left her, she shut the door fast, she meant to lock it, but there was no key, and she could only press a chair against it. She grew weak and sick as she stood there, straining her ears to hear the conversation that should pass outside. Her heart fluttered; her hands grew cold; in a wild thought of escape, she looked about the room, to see whether she might fly. Mistily she saw the big bare oblong of it, the table with its red cloth, the deer's heads above the windows, the coyote skins upon the floor; and then her eye caught the two narrow book-shelves upon the opposite wall, and hardly knowing what she did, she crossed to them, and took down a volume at random. She meant to open it, to look at the fly-leaf, but her fingers refused to obey her. When she had them under her control, she looked quickly. A name was written lines wavered and trembled, then settled in a signature she knew. Henry F. Gage! She had reached her destination. She sank into a chair, not knowing whether she wished to laugh or cry. This was the Bar K! Lonely she was still, but no longer afraid. She had done right to trust the man who had been good to her.

While she sat there, trying to force herself to realize where she was, a silent, soft-padded Chinaman entered, and began to set the table for her supper. She watched him curiously, and saw that he provided only one place. She was to eat alone, then. She spoke to him, conquering her aversion with an effort, and he bowed solemnly, the tips of his fingers upon his breast, but he made no attempt to answer her.

He bowed gravely, took her hand in his, and helped her to the ground. For an instant he continued to hold her, his eyes searching her face. Her heart beat fast; but he said only:

"You know I'd be mighty glad to be of service to you." Then he released her, and they walked in silence up the little path which led to the door.

As they did so a man came round the corner of the low building and confronted them.

"Why, where are—?" he began; then seeing the girl, he left off speaking with his mouth still open, and utter surprise written in his face. But he recovered himself quickly.

"Why, Bill, up to your old tricks, hey?" he said softly. "Like to meet your friend, if it's convenient, I would." The young man made no answer; she quickened her step, and they left him standing, with an evil smile upon his lips, staring after them.

She could feel his sensual look upon her, as she unconsciously walked closer to her guide; it followed her, piercing, enfolding, defiling her in spite of herself. The fear which had been partly forgotten sprang up in her heart again. Was this truly the Bar K ranch, or—? She could not finish the thought, even to herself, as she realized her own helplessness, her remoteness from all that she knew of civilization.

"This is your uncle's shack, Miss; I reckon you'd better keep it for to-night, anyway," he said; but with that other man so near her, his voice had lost its power to reassure.

"Yes," he answered nervously. "Can you—can you send a woman here, please?"

He shook his head. "There ain't a woman on the place, Miss. I'm sorry."

Over his shoulder she caught the eyes of the other man, still turned steadfastly upon her. She knew that he was growing pale, but she tried to say bravely:

"Never mind; I—I shall not need one, I think." Then, as he left her, she shut the door fast, she meant to lock it, but there was no key, and she could only press a chair against it. She grew weak and sick as she stood there, straining her ears to hear the conversation that should pass outside. Her heart fluttered; her hands grew cold; in a wild thought of escape, she looked about the room, to see whether she might fly. Mistily she saw the big bare oblong of it, the table with its red cloth, the deer's heads above the windows, the coyote skins upon the floor; and then her eye caught the two narrow book-shelves upon the opposite wall, and hardly knowing what she did, she crossed to them, and took down a volume at random. She meant to open it, to look at the fly-leaf, but her fingers refused to obey her. When she had them under her control, she looked quickly. A name was written lines wavered and trembled, then settled in a signature she knew. Henry F. Gage! She had reached her destination. She sank into a chair, not knowing whether she wished to laugh or cry. This was the Bar K! Lonely she was still, but no longer afraid. She had done right to trust the man who had been good to her.

While she sat there, trying to force herself to realize where she was, a silent, soft-padded Chinaman entered, and began to set the table for her supper. She watched him curiously, and saw that he provided only one place. She was to eat alone, then. She spoke to him, conquering her aversion with an effort, and he bowed solemnly, the tips of his fingers upon his breast, but he made no attempt to answer her.

He bowed gravely, took her hand in his, and helped her to the ground. For an instant he continued to hold her, his eyes searching her face. Her heart beat fast; but he said only:

"You know I'd be mighty glad to be of service to you." Then he released her, and they walked in silence up the little path which led to the door.

As they did so a man came round the corner of the low building and confronted them.

"Why, where are—?" he began; then seeing the girl, he left off speaking with his mouth still open, and utter surprise written in his face. But he recovered himself quickly.

"Why, Bill, up to your old tricks, hey?" he said softly. "Like to meet your friend, if it's convenient, I would." The young man made no answer; she quickened her step, and they left him standing, with an evil smile upon his lips, staring after them.

She could feel his sensual look upon her, as she unconsciously walked closer to her guide; it followed her, piercing, enfolding, defiling her in spite of herself. The fear which had been partly forgotten sprang up in her heart again. Was this truly the Bar K ranch, or—? She could not finish the thought, even to herself, as she realized her own helplessness, her remoteness from all that she knew of civilization.

"This is your uncle's shack, Miss; I reckon you'd better keep it for to-night, anyway," he said; but with that other man so near her, his voice had lost its power to reassure.

so that it frightened her. Yet she remained looking at him, fascinated; her breath, which had been dull and careless of what happened to her. She was hardly more a part of the world, the living, spinning world, than the bit of sandstone they were passing. They passed it; she looked at her guide—and there was Duke's asleep in the hot sun, amidst the rose-red, sun-baked, grassless, treeless, waterless hills, as it had been yesterday, and should be to-morrow. But she did not see it, for as it came in sight the boy's face paled, and he dropped the reins.

"I reckon you can find your way—now," he said, and his eyes closed peacefully. "I've—?" He toppled toward her, and she had to put her arms around him.

"What is it? What is it?" she cried wildly.

"His eyes opened slowly. 'That coyote—bit me,' he murmured, and they closed again. The ponies, left to themselves, stopped. They had reached Duke's. She got water from the perishing creek and bathed his head, and then, taking off her hat, she sat and fanned him. Presently he revived again, and under his directions she found his flask and gave him whisky.

"I—I didn't know I was such a dern fool," he whispered.

"Hush!" she said. "You mustn't talk."

"I saw this morning," he answered irrelevantly, "that you knew I was lying to you last night about that coyote. But I guess you was deceived then?"

"No," she said quickly; "I knew. I heard—but I thought you weren't hurt."

"Don't you be good to me," he said. "I wasn't hurt bad—I ain't lying to you now. I reckon I just keeled over with the sun—me being a fool."

"If you would get into the shade—" she said hesitatingly.

"Don't you be good to me," he repeated. But he moved obediently as she suggested.

"That train'll be along soon now," he said. "We have to flag it, you know, Miss. Naturally, it don't stop."

"I know."

"I reckon you'll be going back to your folks?" he asked at length.

"There was only my uncle," she answered quietly.

"Well, a lady like you has got plenty of friends everywhere."

"And you wouldn't be friends—" "Friends," he interrupted her.

"You're goin' away so soon now I reckon it wouldn't be playing it low-down if I was to tell you—"

"You oughtn't to talk," she repeated. "I can't help myself, Miss. I've got to say this. I told you I might be crash, and if you was to be staying here I wouldn't say a word more. But I can't let you go away thinkin' that what he said was true—Big Ed—"

"Stop!" she cried. "Did you—did you say that? She looked at him beseechingly, her eyes praying:

But he answered sadly: "You can't understand, Miss. He miscomprehended right at first, and there weren't any chance to put him straight. He miscomprehended." The boy's eyes turned back towards the Bar K, and Dorothy knew clearly that his words were Big Ed's epitaph. "You can't understand," he repeated.

"I never thought what he said was true," she said.

The boy's face lightened, then fell into gloom again.

"No," he answered to himself, "how could you understand him—a lady like you? Well, I reckon I must be movin'."

"No, no! I am afraid," he tried to rise, but she restrained him.

"I'll be here right soon, now," he said gently.

"Oh, if you wish to go, go!" she sobbed suddenly. "I can flag the train; I can wait here alone. I would rather wait than have you stay! Go, go!"

"I saw you here yesterday," he whispered. "I just was like that angel—an angel from heaven. Yes, I'll go, Miss; I know how I must be annoyin' you by my words. But would it be playing low-down to say why I wouldn't be friends as you have said? Would I dare take a hand in that there game? What do I do first? I lie to you—I lie to you about your uncle, a gentleman who has been kindly to me. Say I mean you no harm. But what do I do? I lie. How do I dare be friends with you after that? Friends—why? I just was like that angel—myself, know; you will not speak to me, Miss! But it's not friendship's been in my heart since I've seen you!"

She did not withdraw her eyes from him, and he went on, more and more rapidly:

"I'm older than I look, I reckon. I'm twenty-six. I've seen a lot of things—things that you wouldn't ever hear about. But I do not think I ever did a mean trick. I've been honest—till yesterday; and then it had to be you I lied to—you. Well, I reckon I will be goin' now."

"Are you—are you going to leave me?" she asked forlornly. "Won't you—stay?" She knelt beside him, and her arm closed round his neck, and he bound train, on time for a wonder, swept unflagged in a whirl of dust through Duke's, and passengers looking from the windows saw the two there, and laughed a little.

(Copyright, S. S. McClure Co.)

SNOBBISSHNESS IN CHILDREN

SNOBBISSHNESS is indeed not only a common complaint among children, but unless it is early corrected it easily becomes a chronic fault that follows the adult all through life. A snobbish child, I find, is often a clever and a pretty one, but sooner or later it renders itself quite insufferable to a kindly minded little fellow. When

ERASING THE MARKS OF ILLNESS

Sickness of any sort, and particularly if accompanied by fever, is extremely hard on the hair. As soon as the patient can endure massage of the scalp it should be brought into play. If you cannot afford the services of a professional, with a little patience, any deft-fingered member of the family can administer the treatment. Loosen the hair by giving the ends of it two or three light shakes; place the tips of the fingers of both hands at the juncture of the hair and the forehead, and then work them with a circular motion gently but firmly towards an imaginary centre at the top of the head. As each turn of the fingers takes the hair lightly on the surface, and then deeply. The first motion is addressed to the hair follicles themselves, the next to moving the scalp on the head so as to make it soft, yielding and flexible.

The second movement is made by placing the tips of the fingers so that the forefinger of each hand will meet at the spot where the massage left off. This will bring the fingers of each hand over an ear at the juncture of the hair with the skin. In the same manner as before, they should work over the hair roots with light and deep massage until the finger-tips meet at the same centre at the top.

For the third movement of scalp massage, the fingers of each hand are placed so as to meet at the base of the neck where the hair begins, and, describing the same motions as before, they work themselves up towards the upward to the centre. This entire treatment should not occupy over five minutes.

If the scalp is very dry and the dandruff of a scaly nature, use a little olive oil with the massage, and if the scalp is very oily use a little alcohol in connection with the massage.

Be very careful about applying any proprietary tonic whose ingredients you do not know. Many of these contain lead, which is poisonous, and tincture of cantharides, which is apt to blister a tender scalp. Your regular druggist should be able to tell you the ingredients of a remedy he wishes to sell you.

A harmless tonic which can be made up at home and will reduce the itching sensation, which often follows illness, is this:

Quinine Hair Tonic.

Sulphate of quinine.....1 drachm
Rose water.....8 ounces
Rectified spirits.....2 ounces
Dilute sulphuric acid.....15 drops

Mix; then add:

Glycerine.....4 ounce
Essence royale.....5 drops
Agitate till solution is complete, and, after standing twenty-four hours, decant.

Massage has taken the place of shaving the head after illness and unless the physician positively orders shaving, it should not be done.

THE STOP-GAP

It is quite allowable to call upon a friend, as an act of special courtesy, to fill a vacancy occurring in a dinner party at the last moment. But in such a case the invitation explaining the circumstances, and not by a formal card dispatched at the last moment. It would be entirely civil and reasonable, for example, to approach a friend with an appeal for assistance in the following terms:

12 Westbury Place,
Dec. 26th, 19—

Dear Mr. Cook:

Will you not be very amiable, and help me out on Thursday, the twenty-first, at a dinner party? The grippies have seized one of my guests at the eleventh hour, and I am cast upon the good nature of my friends. We are dining at eight o'clock, and my husband and I will count ourselves under the most agreeable obligations to you for the pleasure of your company as well as the favor you confer by coming.

Sincerely yours,
Amelia E. Bradford.

The reply whether favorable or not, must take the form of a note:

3 Broadway,
Dec. 28th, 19—

Dear Mrs. Bradford:

There is nothing I like better than at the same time to dine with you and serve you. At eight o'clock to-morrow I will do my best to persuade you that the obligation and pleasure of the situation are all on my side.

Believe me, sincerely yours,
Everett R. Cook.

EGGS IN JELLY

Eggs in Jelly.—This is a beautiful luncheon dish and will appeal to the woman who loves to entertain daintily. Make a jelly that is firm but will quiver, of any standard gelatine, flavored with soup stock that has been strained. It is well to make this the day before and allow it to harden so that you are sure of its consistency. Arrange in the bottom of a deep platter large slices of cold smoked tongue, cut medium thick. On each slice of tongue lay a poached egg and allow the egg to cool. Be sure that your eggs are poached in the rings, are well done and perfect in shape. Heat your gelatine and stock and allow them to cool but not to stiffen, and pour over the eggs filling the spaces. When this is formed and is ice cold the dish is ready to serve. If you have used a nice platter you can garnish this with parsley and have it passed from guest to guest. If you wish to serve it individually, cut around each egg, being careful not to break the jelly, lift with a cake turner, and serve on a paper lace doily trimmed with parsley.

MRS. MCKINLEY

"Though Mrs. McKinley," said a Canton clergyman, "left an estate of about $200,000, she was one of the most charitable women in Ohio. Her experiences in charity work were interesting. I used to like to hear her talk of them. She once told me about a colored widow whose children she had helped to educate. The widow, rather late in life, married. Mrs. McKinley asked her how she was getting on. 'Ise a-gittin' on fine thank you,' the bride answered. 'And is your husband a good provider?' asked Mrs. McKinley. 'Deed he is a

The WOMAN'S HOME PAGE

WOMAN ADMIRAL

THERE is a polite and pleasing practice among European royalties of conferring on each other honorary high offices in navies or armies. Not infrequently even feminine members of ruling families have been the beneficiaries of this complimentary action. Many ladies of that rank have been decorated with military titles, but few, if any, with naval ones.

There is at present only one woman in the world who has a right, granted by governmental edict, to call herself an admiral. Curiously enough, the country whose ruler bestowed the honor on her has no longer a war fleet on the high seas, and the land strength, adoption possesses no naval strength. The lady thus peculiarly distinguished is Queen Olga, for many years wife of the King of little Greece, but formerly a grand duchess in the mighty empire of Russia. She was the eldest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine, a grand-uncle of the present Czar. She is extremely fond of the sea, on or on which she spends as much time as she can, and has a considerable knowledge of ships.

It was doubtless these qualifications which led the late Czar (Russia) after she had attained to queenly rank and had become a Grecian, to give her an admiral's commission.

FLOUR AND SOAP

ALWAYS empty a tin flour can completely, and dust it out well before putting in a fresh supply. Twice a year at least wipe out the can with a cloth wet in clear boiling water, and dry it well, then let it air a while. In damp, muggy, mouldy weather put an asbestos mat upon top of a warm stove, and set the flour can on the mat long enough to heat and dry its contents without scorching. Keep the lid open while the warming goes on, thus the moisture driven away is not recondensed and made more harmful. Wooden flour bins or buckets are liable to breed and harbor weevils. If one must perforce use wood, take care to empty, air, scour and scald it at least every three months.

Soap, like wine, is the better for age. Wherefore, buy it by the box. Borax soaps are milder than those made with soda and potash. But any good white soap, properly kept and managed, will do good work. Take out bars from their box and pile them, cob-house fashion, in a light, airy place. With a special laundry, a shelf above the stove is the place for soap, starch and bluing, all of which need warmth, dryness and light.

SARAH'S UMBRELLA

"O" Mrs. Bernhardt's last visit to us," said a manager, "she was beguiled one afternoon to a charity bazaar at a New York hotel. She was beautifully dressed in gray, with an umbrella of gray silk, and as she stood at the embroidery booth she laid the umbrella on the counter. Instantly the young girl who conducted the booth seized the pretty umbrella, waved it over her head and cried: 'How much am I bid for Mrs. Bernhardt's umbrella? Fifty? Twenty-five? Ten?' And while the auctioneer looked on smiling there ensued a spirited auction that ended in the umbrella's sale to a western brewer for $30.

THE FAMILY CAT--HIS CARE

CATS are by nature dainty, even in their cruelties. There is all manner of feline grace in the way they play with mice. Cats suffer much less from constant housing than dogs, although they run wild much more readily, and never quite get over their murderous instincts. A cat of fancy breed, as Maltese, Angora, Coon-cat, or Manx, is a possession of great value, and should be treated as such. They are not only dainty and playful, they rank below their black and grey and tiger-marked and tortoise-shell brethren.

White cats are in general more savage and less intelligent than grey or tortoise-shell. Many white cats have blue eyes, and all such are said to be stone deaf. Hence, they are less desirable in the house. Unlike dogs, cats require to have their meat raw. They must not have too much of it. Milk should constitute at least a third of their food. Crumbly stale bread in the milk, and now and again beat up a raw egg in it. A bit of raw liver, as big as two fingers, or a fish-head, is meat enough for a day's ration. Supplement it with milk and bread, or milk and mashed potatoes, a cracker or two, or a bit of hard bread, lightly buttered, and a few small bones, as

ETIQUETTE OF MOURNING CARDS

IN America we have no hard and fast rules regulating the depth of mourning border on a visiting card. An extremely broad band—one, say, half an inch wide—is frowned upon as too ostentatious an emblem of woe, even when adopted by a widow or by a bereaved parent.

Ordinarily, in the first year of widowhood, a border a trifle more than one-third of an inch wide is all-sufficient indication of even the profoundest depths of grief. In the second year a border a third of an inch wide is adopted and continued for six or eight months or a full year. Then and thereafter every sixth month the border is diminished by a sixteenth of an inch until mourning is put off entirely.

On the card of a widow, since a man's card is always smaller than a woman's, the black border is always narrower; it is diminished from time to time by about the same graduations as on the card of a widow.

When a lady, past the meridian of life, loses her husband, she frequently chooses to wear mourning for the rest of her days; and after the first year of her bereavement, for the wide border of black is substituted a permanent

Marjorie Dane's Latest Patterns

ONE OF THE NEW VOILES.

MANY of the new veillings are woven in checks and plaids of varying shades of one color and are exceedingly chic and charming. Here is one that shows shades of gray and that is trimmed with gray velvet matching the darkest tone and combined with a chemise of cream colored lace over white chiffon. The whole effect is charming in the extreme and the color as well as the material is in the height of style while the model is one of the newest that yet have appeared. The waist is trimmed after a novel fashion with extensions that give the broad and drooping line so apparent in all recent designs, while the skirt is tucked to fall in graceful folds. Fullest all the seasonable light-weight silk and wool materials and a great many of the very charming cotton and silk and cotton fabrics, that are not washable in any sense, are appropriate. Indeed, anything can be utilized that can be tucked with success and trimming can always be varied again and again. The skirt can be finished with a plain hem or again bands of plain silk braided with soutache can be used upon both waist and skirt, soutache used in every possible way being one of the most pronounced whims of the moment. For the medium size will be required, for the waist, 4 1/2 yards of material 21, 3 3/4 yards 27 or 2 yards 44 inches wide with 1/2 yard of all-over-lace for the chemise, 1 yard if long sleeves are used; for the skirt 11 1/2 yards 27 or 5 3/4 yards 44 inches wide if material has up and down; 9 1/2 yards 27 or 5 1/2 yards 44 inches wide if it has not.

Pattern of the waist, No. 5589, sizes 32 to 40 inches bust, or of the skirt, No. 5587, sizes 22 to 32 inches waist.

EMPIRE COAT 5181.
That Empire influences are to make themselves greatly felt throughout the season has become an established fact and various attractive caps and wraps are being shown. This one is among the best that so far have appeared and gives ample evidence of the sources from which the design was taken without including any of the objectionable features of the period. The model is made of nut brown broadcloth with trimming of velvet hands and is finished with exceedingly handsome buttons, but velvet and velveteen also will be greatly worn while never have we had a longer list of available and handsome colors. Velvet trimming on cloth makes a feature of the season, but there are braids which can be substituted if better liked. Again, buttons are exceedingly handsome, some and exceedingly varied and are used for the effect they make as well as for prosaic utilitarian purposes.

The coat is made with the deep yoke, which gives the characteristic short-waisted effect, the fronts and the back, both back and fronts are laid in inverted plaits, but those at the front are attached with binding silk for a portion of their length, while those at the back are simply pressed into position. The sleeves of the favorite ones of the autumn and winter, comfortably full at the shoulders, while they are finished at the wrists with the flare cuffs that always are becoming.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 6 1/2 yards 27, 4 3/4 yards 44 or 4 yards 52 inches wide.

The pattern 5181 is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40-inch bust measure. Patterns will be sent to any address on receipt of ten cents each, by Marjorie Dane, 44 East Twenty-third street, New York City.

PATTI'S PAY

N the past very large fees have been paid to celebrated vocalists. The record hitherto being, it is said, the $5,000 check handed nightly to Adelina Patti by Col. Macpherson, during the prima donna's engagement at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. Christine Nilsson received $2,000 nightly; Marcella Sembrich, $1,500; Campanini, $1,000, and Mme. Schuch, $1,000. The only real rival of Patti, Mme. Frezzolini, a generous and romantic souled woman, born by some mistake of nature in the most material of all centuries, would never accept more than $200 a night. In this respect La Frezzolini resembled the painter who, when at the height of his renown, never sold a picture for more than $1,000, declaring that "a piece of colored canvas cannot possibly be worth more." However this may be, even Patti's fees have been surpassed to-day. And by whom, think you? By a man, a tenor, Enrico Caruso, "the divine," who comes forward to the footlights, sings his little song, and so, in his leanest years, makes a minimum income of $150,000. Alone among professional performers does Paderewski, with his annual average of $150,000, come anywhere near this!

ONION EATERS

"If people would eat more onions," said the man with the smooth-faced beefsteak, "the world might have to hold its nose, but the population of the world would be a great deal healthier."

"Most of us eat too much meat and grease and butter and bread and not enough vegetables, and the consequence is our systems get clogged up with grease and starch, our livers get out of order and we grumble at our wives and scold our children and fuss when the baby cries and quarrel with the street car conductors, and get into rows at the office and lose our jobs, not because we are naturally sulky or quarrelsome, but because we are bilious. Why are we bilious? Because we don't eat onions. You never saw a dyspeptic man eating onions. He thinks they are poison, but in fact, they are the medicine that he most needs."

"Whenever you see an onion eater you see a whole-souled, open-hearted, jolly good fellow, who knows what he ought to eat to keep him good humored. Talk about the staff of life, why, bread is only a crutch. There is more nourishment in an onion than there is in a roll. The onion lovers keep the world moving, to say nothing of providing it with much of its fun."

TRAVELER'S CARD

A WOMAN arriving at a place where she has friends and intending to stop there for a greater or less time, takes pains to acquaint her friends with the men and the women of her presence by her temporary address.

It is very important for a member of society in case of a change of address to post cards to all his or her friends announcing the change. The cards bearing the old address are best used for this purpose, with a line drawn through the old address and the new one written clearly in pencil above or opposite the old one.

JUST TAKE A LOOK AT YOUR BACK

MANY women use the handglass to study their coiffure and then do not employ it again after completing their toilet. This is a great mistake. No matter how fasten your dress in the back, or adjust your collar and cuffs, study the results carefully by the aid of a handglass. You always take one third of yourself in the mirror—why not swing around and get a glimpse of your back? Use a large hand mirror, shaving glass, or even a wall mirror for this purpose. Here are some of the things you may see: Your petticoat may hang just half an inch below your dress skirt in the back. Your girdle may cover the junction of waist and skirt at the top of the buckle, but the skirt band may have been pressed down by that same buckle. The button may not be set close enough together to keep the skirt from slipping off of bare skin. Your collar may have been folded over too little or too much so that the band of the shirt waist has slipped down beneath it.

There is absolutely no excuse for a gaping waist line or the use of safety pins which slip down below the girdle, which should be a neat and not an unsightly finish to the costume. Half the effect of an expensive girdle is lost when the skirt band slips down beneath it. If you are wearing a wash shirtwaist, stitch a tape or narrow band snugly across the back of the waist, leaving it loose from the under-arm seam forward. To this tape, sewing through the waist itself, attach bars, or the equivalent of any non-rustable fastener. Fasten on every skirt to be worn with this waist, matching hooks or snaps. The best dressmakers use four, instead of two hooks. This will insure a perfectly fitting girdle. There are also a number of patent devices on the market, but none are more satisfactory in the end than the simple hook and eye, provided the latter are sewed on tight and are not permitted to dangle up or one or two loose threads.

Take no chances with the placket of your skirts and underskirts. Ready-made skirts in particular should be overhauled directly they come home. The hooks and eyes or snaps on the placket should be sewed on tight, and if they are far apart insert additional ones between those already supplied. The stout woman in particular should have the hooks on the placket as close together as an inch. It is also much neater to have the placket of your drop skirt or petticoat finished with hooks and eyes. If the placket of a dress is not deep enough, cut it down further at once and face it. Do not take chances on bursting it the first time you slip it over your shoulders. This had evidently happened to a woman recently seen on the street car. She wore a handsomely tailored skirt, whose placket hole had burst and in haste she had actually caught it together with a cheap gold safety pin set with turquois. The contrast with the heavy tailored skirt was absurd. If your blouse, which close in the back, are made at home or by an outside dressmaker, insist upon having the hooks and eyes or button-holes set close together and the blouse sewed on tight. Just now the fly finish for wash waists is not used. The button-holes are worked straight through the cloth and pretty cut, pear or crocheted, neat buttons are used. The linen buttons are better than the pearl.

WINDOW WASHING

BEGIN with the blinds, whether inside or outside. Brush the dust from the slats, corners, etc., with a stiff bristle-brush, following with a damp clean cloth. If the washes are removable, take out a window at a time, wash, wipe, and set in place—thus mistakes are impossible. With weighted sash, provide a stout leather belt for the window-washer, with a strap either side, ending in a snap-hook. Fasten staples in the window-frames a foot above the sill. With the hooks snapped in these staples, one may sit in even a fourth-story window without any risk. It is, then, a mere matter of sliding sash up and down. Since a dollar will supply belt and staples, they may be reckoned the cheapest form of life-assurance.

Dust sash and glass well before wetting. Wash the sash first with borax soap-suds or borax-water, and dry quickly with a soft, thick cloth. A Turkish towel is admirable—all the more so if it is worn to rags. Do not stop. On the other hand, do not play of water in your pan. Wring the wash cloth dry, but be sure it is clean, and do not stir spots nor fly specks. Keep the wash-cloth off the glass as much as possible.

For the glass use any one of several excellent scouring soaps, especially made and provided. Lacking them, make one by dissolving in a water-bath a cake of good white soap, and stirring it thick with powdered and sifted whiting, mixed with its own bulk of powdered washing-soda. Rub this to a thick lather with a clean cloth and tepid water, cover the glass with the lather, a pane at a time, remove the lather with another cloth wrung out of clean water, and dry, and polish with crumpled newspaper.

SAVORY EGG DISH

For a family of six use six individual dishes known as shirred egg dishes, each of which will hold two eggs. Butter the bottom of the dishes lightly and turn two eggs into each, being careful not to break the yolks. Season with salt and pepper and cook them for one minute on top of the range, or if you have a gas stove, on a heavy sheet of iron or tin. Now place them in the oven for five minutes. Remove from the oven and pour over them a tomato sauce made as follows:

Plunge six medium size ripe tomatoes into boiling water for a minute or two. Lift them out with a skimmer and peel them. Cut into quarters. In a small saucepan, heat a teaspoonful of butter, add a little finely chopped onion. When the onions are light brown add the tomatoes with half a teaspoonful of sugar and two salt-spoons of white pepper. Cover and simmer gently for ten minutes, stirring occasionally. Mix together a teaspoonful of butter and half a cupful of flour, add to the tomatoes, mix, bring to a boil and pour the sauce over the eggs, serving at once. This sauce can also be poured over eggs fried, and served on crisp bits of ham, or it can be poured over an omelette.

PATENTS THAT PROTECT—Our three books for inventors, mailed on receipt of six cents.

GOOD HEALTH

A Few Simple Hints on Simple Ways To Remain Well.

By COUSIN JOHN.

Article No. 14.

Although pneumonia is so common a disease that it kills 45,000 Americans each year, the great mass of people still know very little about it. Therefore the following simple remarks, which were made recently by a prominent physician are well worth repeating. He said in part:

"A sudden chill in mid-summer is just as apt to end in pneumonia as a sudden chill at Christmas. In the beginning the symptoms are much like a severe cold or influenza. There is sharp chill followed by a high fever. Then come sharp pains in the chest and a dry cough."

"Nothing can be done to make an attack shorter. Place the patient in a bright room with lots of ventilation. For food, give plenty of easily digested things like milk, eggs, rice and broth. Plenty of water and lemonade should be given."

"The old-fashioned method of dosing the patient with whiskey is dangerous. The same applies to the old-fashioned method of closing all the doors and windows to prevent any air from reaching the patient. You cannot give too much fresh air."

"Good nursing is more valuable than drugs. Wash the patient's face and mouth frequently. Burn all the expectorations. Pneumonia is a decidedly infectious malady."

For protection against pneumonia, avoid undue exposure, excessive, take regular and sufficient sleep and eat wholesome food.

Take lots of exercise in the open air. That is not exposure in the dangerous sense. Dangerous exposure comes only when a person goes out into weather in such a condition that he cannot resist it, and fatigue sufficiently. A man who gardens himself by cold baths in the morning and wearing sensible clothes is much safer from pneumonia than the man who bathes in warm or hot water and wears heavy underclothes.

Sailors seldom get pneumonia. Officers men are its readiest victims.

Whenever the temperature of the body declines, whether it be from sudden exposure to great cold or a result of alcohol excesses, the natural powers of resistance almost disappear. For instance, the common barn-yard fowl is not susceptible to pneumonia, and pneumonia germs may be injected into her veins without injury. But if the same hen is forced to stand in cold water for half an hour and is then

CONCLUDING A LETTER

Mary Blank.

[Mrs. John B. Blank.]
An unmarried woman signs her notes "Eleanor Blank," unless a business matter is the subject of her correspondence, and she fears that she may be mistaken for a widow; then she precedes her name by the word "Miss" in brackets.

A man writing very formally and on a matter of business, to a woman whom he knows slightly, should conclude his letter with "Yours obedient servant, or respectfully, or yours truly. Writing formally, but not on business affairs, as in a letter of condolence, etc., the best phrase is, I beg to remain yours to command, and then the signature. It is very desirable for a man to avoid adopting a signature like these: T. Bartlett Williams, J. Ferrers Thompson. The middle name is best simply to indicate with the initial, and then write the first name and last name in full; as thus, James P. Thompson.

CARE OF LAMP CHIMNEYS

THERE are chimneys and chimneys—all breakable. Luckily they are also cheap, especially when bought by the dozen or the gross. If all the lamps of the household take chimneys of the same size, the gross is possible, and a sensible economy. After buying thus in quantity, put some shavings in the bottom of a wash-bowl, pack the chimneys snugly down in it, strew a handful of salt over them, then almost fill the bowl with cold water, and set it where it will come very slowly to a boil. Let it simmer for two hours, then take from the fire and cover so thickly it will be at least three hours in cooling.

When it is cold, wash the chimneys in clear, hot water with a suspicion of soda in it; rinse, also in hot water, and wipe dry, and store on the highest shelf in the closet. There the warmest air in the kitchen will still further toughen them. Nine chimneys in ten break through unequal heating. Boiling this way, and keeping in a warm place afterward, seems to effect some molecular change which makes the glass less liable to break.

Roll all the movable metal parts of lamp-burners once a month for ten minutes in strong soda water, rinse well with boiling water, and either dry in the sun or on top of a hot stove if the burners are clogged and gummy. Soak them lightly before putting on to boil. A clean burner is nearly as essential to good light as a clean chimney. Wash the chimney also in hot soda water, rinse well, wipe dry, and polish with crumpled newspaper.

FLOOR CLEANING

WATER should never touch a waxed or oiled floor, no matter what the wood. Even a few drops spilled will leave marks unless instantly removed. Sweep such floors twice with the bristle floor-brush—not the weighted one; go over afterward with either a dust-mop or a broom pinned inside a towel, then clean and remove spots or stains, and complete the cleaning by going over the whole floor with a flannel wet in turpentine, then a dry flannel or a flannel-mop, made by tacking the coarsest woolen cloth upon the bottom of a square mop-board, in such manner that the cloth stands in deep tucks between the rows of tacks. This is much easier than hand-rubbing. Finish by rubbing with

DINNER TIME

THE hour for a dinner, of such formality that the invitations have been issued a fortnight in advance of the chosen evening, is usually seven, seven-thirty, or eight o'clock. A dinner so elaborate that the actual serving of the many courses will occupy over two hours is a great mistake. A hostess should so arrange her menu and drill her servants that one hour and a half only will be spent at table, though in one hour a handsome and very complete feast can be dispatched, without crowding one course too close upon the heels of another. After an hour or an hour and a half the diners are usually well satisfied to leave the atmosphere of the

SMART DESIGNS for BOYS & GIRLS

5682

5860

5672

5757

EVERY mother likes to see her boys and girls smartly dressed. Here are four designs that are among the very newest and will greatly aid her to realize her sartorial ambitions for her "jewels".

The little dress illustrated (No. 5860) is simple in style, yet exceedingly attractive; the bretelles that form the trimming on the waist being a very smart feature. If desired, they may be made of the same material as the skirt and attached to it, so as to be worn with different guimpes. The blouse waist is mounted on a body lining, and is gathered to a yoke which may be of all-over embroidery. The sleeves may be in elbow length or extend to the wrist, finished by close fitting cuffs. The mode could be attractively developed in any of the stylish plaids as well as challis, cashmere, gingham and pique. For a girl of 8 years 3½ yards of 36-inch material will be required.

GIRLS' BRETTELLE DRESS. No. 5860. Sizes for 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

One-piece dresses are among the smartest designs for girls, and are unusually attractive this season. The one pictured is of red and white dotted challis, the large round collar trimmed with bands of scarlet material and white pearl buttons. The closing is made invisibly on the left side under a box-pleat, and the neck opens over a removable shield topped by a high standing collar. A belt of the material or of leather may be worn around the waist. Albatross, mohair, cheviot, pique, linen and gingham are all adaptable for the making. For a girl of eight years 2½ yards of material 44 inches wide will be required.

GIRLS' BOX-PLEATED FROCK. No. 5672. Sizes for 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

The smart dress for the little boy is in the Russian style. It closes at one side of the front, and slight gathers at the neck in front give an easy comfortable fit. Made up in the washable fabrics, it is ideal for playtime or everyday wear.

Serge, mohair, Scotch gingham, linen and pique are all suggested for the making. For a child of four years 1½ yards of 44-inch material will be required.

CHILD'S RUSSIAN BLOUSE. No. 5757. Sizes for 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years.

This little dress of white mohair (No. 5682) is very girlish and charming. It is also very practical, as it admits of several variations. The long sleeve may be omitted, and the neck cut out, thus making a dainty little frock to be worn with different guimpes. The waist is bloused slightly all around and the deep tucks over the shoulders give grace to the childish figure. The trimming consists of scarlet braid and buttons which add much to the smartness of the mode. Challis, albatross, cashmere, linen and gingham are all adapted to the design. For a child of eight years 3 yards of material 36 inches wide will be required.

GIRLS' DRESS. No. 5682. Sizes for 8, 9, 10 and 12 years.

Patterns of these illustrations will be mailed to any address by carefully filling in the accompanying blank and mailing, with ten cents for each pattern, to Marjorie Dane, 44 East Twenty-third Street, New York City.

Marjorie Dane, 44 East 23d Street, New York City

Enclosed please find _____ cents for Pattern (s) No. _____

Size (s) _____

Name _____

Town _____

State _____

HERR SPIEGLEBURGER UND SOME UNLUCKY BISNESS

IMPERIAL GRANUM

The Unsweetened
FOOD

Brought this Baby
From this to this

"My baby was a living skeleton reduced to the lowest ebb. I saved him by IMPERIAL GRANUM."

It fortifies against and prevents the dangerous Summer disorders, babies fed on it have perfect digestion, no bowel irregularities, plump firm flesh, no flabby fat.

Trial Size 25 cents, at Druggists.

Write for our FREE book for mothers "The Care of Babies." It shows what to do in hot weather. With it we send a large sample of IMPERIAL GRANUM and a cute rag doll to be cut out and stuffed for baby to play with.—address.

JOHN CARLE & SONS, Desk 33, 153 Water St., New York City

HOW TO CLEAN FURNITURE

WASH willow and wicker in natural finish with a scrubbing-brush and plenty of warm borax soap-suds, and dry quickly—in the sun, if possible. But first dust thoroughly, and look after stains and splashes. Dry-clean varnished or enameled wicker by rubbing it hard with a swab of prepared chalk and very fine hard-wood sawdust, tied tight in a square of cheese-cloth. When the cloth gets dirty put its contents into a fresh piece. After the rubbing, brush hard with a soft bristle-brush. Rub very dirty places with a swab of tripoli as big as the end of the thumb, dipped as lightly as possible in bottled linseed oil.

To clean upholstered furniture, cover the stuffing with a towel and whip a rattan, shaking the towel whenever it grows dusty. Wash all visible wood in tepid soap-suds, dry it very quickly, then rub hard with a flannel and a few drops of kerosene. This for walnut, cherry, and oak in any finish. Mahogany needs to be merely wiped with a damp cloth, then rubbed for half an hour with a clean flannel.

Brush the upholstered parts very hard, then wipe them quickly with a cloth wrung very dry out of clear hot water. Follow this with a clean, white flannel dipped in alcohol. As soon as the flannel shows dirt, wash it clean in tepid water. Otherwise the alcohol will dissolve out the dirt, and deposit it in streaks upon the surface of the fabric.

Clean out tuftings with a little swab of cotton-wool tied on the end of a stout skewer, and wet in alcohol. Throw away the cotton as soon as it gets dirty. Clear alcohol lightly used will not mark the most delicate brocades. The swab must not be wet enough to trickle under pressure.